

GIFTS IN SILVER

Nothing a bride receives will be more cherished and admired than a piece or assortment of silver. Silver is eminently in good taste, always, and there are many unique possibilities in the field of selection. As an aid in proper choosing, the following suggestions may be helpful:

Berry Spoons	Tea Sets
Casserole	Butter Spreaders
Tomato Servers	Bon Bon Dishes
Soup Spoons	Cold Meat Forks

In these and other articles you will find a marked distinctiveness that a selection from this store always possesses.

The eucalyptus tree in the yard of the S. S. Walker home on Madison Street between Eleventh and Twelfth Streets attracts much attention. This probably is the only tree of its kind in the State of Oregon, and has made a rapid growth during the past year, and it has been necessary to top the tree to keep it from growing to too great a height, it now measuring about 15 feet. Mr. Walker brought the tree several years ago from the state of California.

FRANK BUSCH, OREGON CITY, OREGON

Stiff Stay Hog Fence

Standard 26-inch Hog Fences

These patterns are the established standard hog fences of the West; they are usually used with three strands of barb wire above and when thus constructed make a stock and field fence for all purposes.

The stiff stays in Peerless Fence make it superior for turning hogs, which cannot root under and lift it up.

3726—7-bar 26-inch hog fence. Top and bottom, No. 10; filling No. 13; crossbars 12 inches apart.

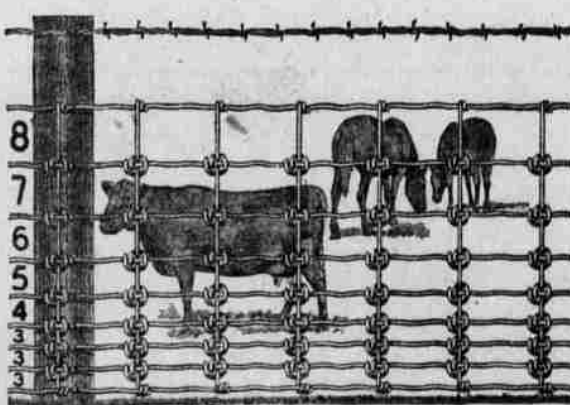

Price Per Rod 21c

Put up in 10 and 20 Rod Rolls.

03726—7-bar 26-inch hog fence, top and bottom, No. 10; filling, No. 13; crossbars 6 inches apart.

Price Per Rod 25c

Field Fence

9-Bar 39-Inch Field Fence

Growing to be one of our best sellers. Close enough at the bottom to turn pigs and high enough, with a barb over it to turn all kinds of stock, and strong enough to turn an automobile. No man will ever go wrong in buying this kind of fence.
