COOKING DEMONSTRATION AT ADAM'S STORE IS ATTRACTING LARGE CROWDS

The cooking demonstration which is being held at Adams Dept. Store this week is daily attracting large crowds. Yesterday one of the largest crowds that has yet turned out to see Professor Becker demonstrate was on hand promptly and the large furniture room was literally jammed with women.

Of unusual interest Thursday was the walking cake demonstration. Professor Becker baked a large cake and fifteen large women stood on it, completely crushing it. After they released the cake it went back to its original size, after which it was sliced and served to those present. This was one of the most unique feats ever seen in Oregon City and the women who witnessed it were delighted.

Professor Becker also gives lectures along with his demonstrations. He is a chief of national reputation and has the happy faculty of being able to impart the information to his hearers. He not only tells his audience how a thing should be done but he shows them.

These demonstrations will be given the rest of this week, the great Majestic range is being used.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Caufield on Seventh and Monroe Street, a very pretty wedding was solemnized on Easter Sunday, when their daughter, Miss Ethel, became the wife of Mr. Harland Grover Thompson, of Spokane, Wash. The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. George Nelson Edwards, pastor of the Congregational church.

The bride was becomingly gowned in blue silk poplin, and was attended by Miss Pearl Montgomery, of Portland, who was also attired in blue.

The bridegroom was attended by Carl Caufield, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony was performed the bridal party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Livi Stipp, the latter a sister of the bride, where a dinner was enjoyed.

The Caufield home was a bower of beauty with decorations of apple blossoms and ferns. The archway, where the ceremony was performed, was of cut flowers and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on the evening train for Spokane, their future home, where the former has business interests.

The bride was born and reared in Oregon City and comes from a well known Oregon pioneer family. She is well known and highly esteemed in Oregon City. For several years she has been connected with the office of the Portland Journal.

On Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Taylor of Molalla, when their daughter, Miss Leota Pearl Taylor became the wife of Charles Franklin Dobbs, of Molalla, Rev. J. C. Simmons, pastor of the M. E. church, officiating. The bride was attractively attired in a traveling suit of navy blue serge, and wore a picture hat. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaid was Mrs. William Kowski, sister of the bride. Walter Taylor, brother of the bride, was best man.

The rooms of the Taylor home were very prettily decorated with cut flowers and ferns.

The bride has been a resident of Molalla but one year, but she has made a host of friends and is one of the most popular young women at that place. Her father, G. J. Taylor, is owner and editor of the Pioneer of Molalla.

The bridegroom is a well known young farmer of Molalla, and has made his home with his aunt, Mrs. J. C. Simmons. He is the son of Mrs. Artesia Jensen, of British Columbia.

After a brief honeymoon spent in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Dobbs will return to Molalla to make their future home.

The marriage of Miss Mary Marguerite Green, of this city and Mr. Walter E. Hickok, of Portland, was solemnized in this city on Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's father, S. R. Green. The impressive marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Ware, uncle of the bride.

The bride was prettily gowned in a tailored suit of blue with hat to match, and her shower bouquet was composed of lilies of the valley and Bride's roses.

As Lohengrin's Wedding March was rendered by Miss Genevieve Green, cousin of the bride, the bride leaning on the arm of her father, S. R. Green, entered the living room where they were met by the bridegroom, and where Rev. Ware performed the ceremony in the presence of only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties.

After the ceremony refreshments were served.

The bride is one of Oregon City's well known young women and has many friends here, where she has spent all her life.

The bridegroom is connected with the Western Electric works in Portland, and is a popular young man of that city.

After May 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Hickok will be at home to their friends at 232 Twelfth Street, Portland.

The Newly Weds will be entertained this evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meissner, at their home on Tenth and Washington Streets.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

William T. Milliken, D. D., pastor

Do you know that the church aims to do something for you that no other organization can do? A man died last week. All that the real estate man ever did for him he has left for his heirs to scrap over. All that the social reformer has done for him he has gone from forever. But what religion has done for him he keeps and will keep it thru eternity.

Go to church next Sunday and see how it feels! If you have no other church home the Baptist people will be glad to welcome you. Morning worship at 11:00; evening worship at 7:30. Bible school at 10:30. Attendance 335 last Sunday. Young people at 6:30. Go to the church of your own faith, but if you have none here you will be cordially welcomed by this congregation.
