SUICIDE'S BODY FOUND

Pockets of Clothes Filled with Rock Indicates Man Sought Drowning

With the pockets of his clothes filled with overfluffing with good sized stones, the body of an unidentified man was found in the Willamette river off the foot of Eleventh street Tuesday afternoon, and turned over to Coroner Wilson for an inquest. The remains were those of a man of medium build, about 30 years of age, and indicated that the body had been in the water approximately a month. There were no papers found in the clothing that shed any light as to the identity of the deceased, but a gold watch may lead to his identification if its number can be traced through the jeweler who sold it.

Coroner Wilson held an inquest, and his jury returned a verdict of suicide, deeming that if foul play had taken place the watch would have been left on the body.

Wednesday a number of Portland men practically identified the remains as those of M. S. Dudley, a mining man who disappeared about two and a half months ago.

COMMENTS FROST'S WORK

Lady Voter thinks People Should Stand by One Who has Made Good

Courier:

In behalf of a clean and moral city, and for the welfare of our boys and girls, I can heartily and conscientiously endorse the work of Constable Jack Frost and advocate his re-nomination and election to the office.

When on the police force in this city he did splendid work for law, order and morality, and his record is proof of this.

As a juvenile officer he has always been the friend of the boy or girl who may have gotten into trouble, and I know of many instances where he has kept the little troubles covered up and the culprits shielded from publicity which would have only made the cases worse.

Mr. Frost has been an energetic and honest official, I believe, and I believe both women and men voters should sustain such officials by their encouragement and ballots.

Mrs. W. C. Green.

A. D. Putrow, Well Known and Respected Resident of This City

The funeral services, which were held at the residence of the deceased, A. D. Putrow, one of the prominent and well known residents of Oregon City, died at his home on Eleventh and Washington Street on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks.

Mr. Putrow was born at Plattsburg, New York, February 21, 1827, and after residing in Norwich, Conn., where he married Miss Mary Davis. From Norwich Mr. Putrow moved to Peacedale, Rhode Island, making his home later at North Adams and at Providence, R. I. Leaving Providence in 1872 he came West with his family and settled in Oregon City, where he accepted the position as superintendent of the carding department of the Oregon City Manufacturing Company, severing his connection with that company in 1892.

Mr. Putrow was the last remaining member of his family, his last remaining brother, Joseph Putrow passing away at Plattsburg, N. Y., four years ago.

Deceased is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Putrow, of this city and one daughter, Mrs. E. G. Caulfield, also of Oregon City. His only son, William, died in this city October 29, 1904. He also leaves two nephews, Joseph and John Putrow, of Seattle, Wash.

The funeral services, which were largely attended, were conducted at the family residence on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. E. S. Bollinger, formerly pastor of the Congregational church of this city, but now of the Highland church, of Portland, conducting the services. Mrs. John Crawford sang impressively "Some Day We'll Understand." The pall bearers were old time friends of Mr. Putrow, and were Charles Babcock, Henry E. Cooke, William H. Howell, George Gardner, W. E. Pratt and T. L. Charman.

The remains were interred beside those of his son, William, in Mountain View cemetery. The floral tributes were in profusion and were beautiful.

Good for the Oregon City Boy

An old gentleman from California, unable to carry his grip, asked a small newsboy to carry it to the motor from the train. The little boy was offered 25c and he said politely, "No sir, that's nothing, let me help you put on the motor," refusing the 25 cents saying "That's nothing." The old gentleman said he was the kindest boy he had ever met.

THE WAY HE SEES IT

One Candidate Thinks Man Can Best Serve Others by Serving Self

John Albright, candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff, has some ideas that are different from other peoples. In fact that is one of the reasons why he is a candidate; he wants to get a chance to put his ideas in practice. And most of his ideas seem to have reason in them. A friend named Jack Albright on this street early this week.

"Daw's politics, Jack?" he asked.

"Don't know, I'm fishing," answered Jack.

"But aren't you running for sheriff?"

"Yep."

"Then why aren't you campaigning?"

"I'll tell you why," said Jack with a frank look. "I am a candidate for sheriff. You want a good man for sheriff, don't you? And a good man is one who takes care of himself and supports his family? Well, fishing is my business right now, and I'm sticking to it because it means bread and butter for me and mine. I can campaign when I can't fish. Just now I can do more for myself by fishing, so I am letting the campaign go. See? Before a man can take care of a job he's got to be able to take care of himself, and that's what I'm doing now. After I get Jack Albright and his family cared for, then I'll go campaigning again. Don't that sound reasonable?"

And his friend said it did.

E. A. Smith preaches this week at Highland, Alberta and Henri. He will preach at Highland at 11 A. M., Sunday and at Alberta at 3 P. M.; and also at Henri. Rev. Chas. Rutherford is on his way from India and will be home in a few weeks. His parents live at Highland.

Mr. Smith and Rev. A. J. Ware will begin a special meeting at Logan Sunday, May 17th.

DAVID E. LOFGREN

Candidate for re-election to the Legislature from the 17th district, comprising the counties of Clackamas and Multnomah counties.

Mr. Lofgren is well known in this county, having been interested in developing a large colony of progressive farmers in this county and has a 200-acre ranch in this county. During the last sessions he worked in harmony with the delegation from this county and has their endorsement for re-election.

In all questions wherein this county was interested he stood solid for our interest. On all moral questions he was found voting with the best element.

When a member of our delegation made a survey of the last legislature

DAVID E. LOFGREN

In the columns of this paper he said that Mr. Lofgren could always be depended on to vote for the best interest of the people.

Mr. Lofgren's platform is strict economy, equitable taxation, sane road legislation; less money laws and commissions; better schools for the state at large, and our school should be so conducted so as to train the hand as well as the mind and prepare the pupil for becoming a producer rather than a consumer.

We need a certain amount of high-grade education, but the crying need is for a practical education for the average man and woman.

Mr. Lofgren worked consistently for all legislation wherein the grange was interested.

He has a large circle of friends in this county and ought to carry this county by a large majority.

BIG BUSINESS AND BOOZE ATTACK

usual the senate killed this bill in the interest of the railroad.

H. B. 184. This was Gov. West's bill for uniform county salaries, introduced by Mr. Gill. I thought it was a good bill, and that it would be a benefit to the state at large, but the senate killed it, of course.

H. B. 414. On this bill I appeared before the committee and got the April delinquent penalty stricken out. The bill was then held up in committee by the state tax commission until the last day that house bills could be passed and go to the senate, and when the bills were not ready in fall it was then stated on the floor of the house that the only change after payments was the repeal of rebates. I was deceived by this story, and so were all the other members.

H. B. 273. This was to make a uniform system of boarding prisoners in all the counties. It would have resulted in a general reduction instead of increase of expense for keeping county prisoners. Of course I voted for it.

H. B. 7. I voted to repeal the immigration commission law because the commission wanted an appropriation for $75,000 chiefly in the interest of the real estate dealers of Portland, and they were finally allowed $50,000 over my protest.

H. B. 604. I voted against this bill because it allows Multnomah county to issue bridge bonds for $1,400,000 and make the state pay the interest, amounting to $70,000 a year. The plan is to eventually make the state pay the principle also. Of course I voted no.

H. B. 544. I voted against this bill because it would give to the cities more than a just proportion of the special tax it provided for.

H. B. 608. I voted for this appropriation because we must maintain the medical school if we are going to maintain the university.

H. B. 419. I voted against this because it increased the salary of the state tax commissioners $500 per year each, created a lot of new and unnecessary offices, carried an appropriation of $10,000 a year in addition to what would greatly increase the expenses of every county in the state.

H. B. 131. I voted all the time against this bill to increase the county superintendent's salary and the vote of the people last fall proved that they thought I was right.

H. B. 205. I voted yes on this bill because of the large number of petitions that were filed for it with the legislature, and many of which were signed by the voters of Clackamas county.

H. B. 193. This was the woman jury bill, and I voted NO because it allowed a woman only
