speaking farmers. Let us hear from your local about this. The question of a Fourth of July picnic is before us again. What will we do about it. Go to the next meet-ing of your local and help decide this matter. Let us know. We have a County Fair and 'al-way, will and why not make it more useful to the organized farmer. Why not have a day for the organized farmer. The Equity and grange Grange could furnish the speakers. Why not? Why not? Thousands of farmers co-operat-ive undertakings have failed, and yet of late thousands are succeeding. When farmers organizations start their enterprises they are propert. There or himself. It is far more the salmon and the river, and the people who consume them. There is too much law to throw the fruits of industry into the pockets of a few individuals who could not spend their income while millions go cold and yet of late thousands are succeeding. When farmers organizations start their enterprises they are prone to give the management and good sal-eries to other than farmers, and the enterprise fails. Farmers must do these things themselves. No one is going to work for your interests but farmers. several bills have been introduced in Congress. Our democratic Congress seems to have its hands tied on ac-count of too many bankers and law-Would Handle Him yers in it. As long as farming pays so little to the farmer, bankers will not regard farmers security as good comgard farmers security as good com-mercial paper. You see farming must be put on a paying basis before the farmer can do business on his own credit, like members of the boards of trade and other people who are rob-bing the industries to maintain their hold on Big Business. The farmers less people. must unite and work together politically, to ever succeed in business.

This Wonderful Sale full of real sensational bargains will continue through the balance of this week. We still have thousands of bargains at heretofore unheard of prices many of which are cut below the actual wholesale cost. Remember this is a Wholesale House "Stock Reducing Sale," and when we tell you the prices are reduced to less than the Wholesale price we mean every word of it.

SIC the past week thousands--yes thousands--of guests visited our store out of curosity and without exception were tempted by our remarkable bargains and carried away arm loads and wagon loads of standard merchandise.

KEEP IN MIND :-- This stock is all bright new goods, clear as a bell and sound as a dollar and the PRICE is less than 2nd Hand goods If you wish to avail yourself with necessary articles COME QUICK for the crowds will continue during the balance of this Mammoth Sale. Remember the closing date is Saturday, May 30th.
