

Does Your Watch Need Repairing?

A Watch is Intended to Tell You the Time of Day

UNLESS IT DOES THIS ACCURATELY, IT IS WORSE THAN USELESS. FOR IT IS LIKE THE MAN YOU CAN NOT DEPEND UPON.

MANY A MAN HAS TWENTY-FIVE OR THIRTY DOLLARS TIED UP IN A WATCH, WHICH IS WORTHLESS, WHEN, IF HE WOULD INVEST A DOLLAR OR TWO FOR HAVING IT REPAIRED, HE WOULD GET THE FULL VALUE OUT OF IT.

OFTEN A WATCH DOES NOT KEEP PROPER TIME BECAUSE OF REGULATION FOR WHICH WE MAKE NO CHARGE. IF IT NEEDS REPAIRING OUR CHARGES ARE MORE THAN REASONABLE.

Oregon City Jewellers
Susp. Bridge Corner

Burmeister & Andresen

Our Work Is Guaranteed

NEWS OF THE CITY

Miss Nan Cochran... Local Editor

Every trimmed hat greatly reduced. Miss C. Goldsmith.

Miss Charlotte Baker visited friends in Portland Sunday.

Mrs. Bertha Hurst, of Canby, was in Oregon City on business Monday.

Teddy, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Osmund, who has been ill is rapidly improving.

Mrs. Spulak, of New Era, who has been visiting friends in this city, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Edward Schwab and Geraldine Schwab, of Portland, visited friends in Oregon City, Saturday.

Miss Goldie Harless, of Molalla, is visiting in this city as the guest of Miss Ellen Grace and Miss June Scott.

L. Donahit, formerly of Oregon City, but now of Powell River, B. C., has arrived in Oregon City where he will visit friends.

Mrs. C. Meissner, of Portland, who has been in this city visiting her son, Dr. C. H. Meissner, and family, returned to her home on Saturday.

Mrs. G. W. Grace, who has been in Portland, where she has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grace, has returned to Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Blomberg, of Portland, who have been visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Bremer, of Willamette, returned to their home Monday afternoon.

James Summers returned to his home at Antelope, Oregon, Thursday, after visiting his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Summers, of Seventh and Washington street.

Mrs. William Eters and daughter, Mrs. Maggie Cross went to Canby, Sunday, where they attended the funeral of the former's brother-in-law, William Cantwell.

R. L. Holman, leading funeral director, is now located in his new parlors, 5th and Main street, Oregon City. Night or day service. Call Main 4151 or B 18.

Miss Myers, of Walla Walla, Wash., arrived in Oregon City Sunday evening, where she will visit her aunts, Mrs. Walter Wentworth and Mrs. W. Millam. She will also visit with relatives in Portland before returning to her home.

Mrs. Charles Crossman, of Tacoma, Washington, who has been in this city visiting her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Summers, having been called here by the death of her sister, Mrs. W. L. Little, recently, returned to her home Saturday.

Miss Helen L. Price, librarian of the Oregon City library, who is having a four month's vacation, is visiting friends at Astoria. During Miss Price's absence Mrs. Bertha Adams, assistant librarian, is in charge of the library.

Mrs. M. E. Bunn, of this city, and Miss Myrtle Buchanan, also formerly of this city but now of Lebanon, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. U'ken at a luncheon at the Multnomah Hotel, Saturday. At that time Mr. U'ken gave an address before the Civic Federation League.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moehneke and little daughter, Catharine, who have been at Eagle Creek for the past month, have returned to Oregon City, where they are looking after property interests but will return to Eagle Creek, where they will spend the summer, where the former will engage in the sawmill business. Mrs. Moehneke will dispose of his home in this city, this being located near the Eastham school house, and is one of the most modern homes in this city.

Mrs. Lizzie Strickland, who has been at Condon, Oregon, has returned to her home at Gladstone. Mrs. Strickland went to Condon, to attend the hearing of her son, Bert Strickland, who was accused of burning a building. The young man was released after the jury had been out but a short time, and cleared of the charge preferred against him. He was formerly a Clackamas county boy and has many friends throughout the county. He was engaged in farming on the Strickland farm time ago when the family lived near Redland, and always had the best of reputation. His friends here as well as at Condon were confident of his innocence of the charge against him.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jewell left Friday for Idaho, where they will make their future home. Mr. Jewell has been employed by the government as deputy fish warden at the Clackamas hatchery, and will hold the position of fish commissioner in Idaho.

Miss Addie Robinson, formerly of this city, but who has been spending the past year at Oakland, California, returned to Oregon this week, and will spend the summer in Portland, where she will visit with her brother, Rev. C. W. Robinson.

D. Horner, of Dodge, John Mullenhoff, of Damascus, W. E. Bonney, of Colton, Mr. Owings of Hubbard, and H. N. Everhart, of Molalla, well known residents of Clackamas county, who have been serving on the jury, have returned to their homes. While in this city they registered at the Electric.

Miss Maybelle Hunstock, who has been engaged in teaching in the Oregon City High school for the past two years, will leave Tuesday evening for Berkeley, California, where she will take a special course in physical culture during the summer months. She will be joined at Berkeley by her sister, who is engaged in teaching at Oxmad, California, and both of whom will return to the latter place in the fall. Miss Hunstock was one of the most successful teachers employed by the school district during her two years in Portland. She has devoted her entire attention to the commercial department. Before coming to this city she was a teacher in the Baker, Oregon, High school, under the supervision of Prof. Churchill, having taught there for three years. After her graduation from the McMinnville College in 1909 she was appointed as assistant in that institution, where she taught for a year, and afterwards took a special course in Mrs. Gardner's school in Portland. With Miss Hunstock's experience as a teacher she was most successful while performing her duties in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lyman, of Shubel, visited relatives in Oregon City Sunday.

George Holman, of Beaver Creek, visited friends in this city Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Gwendolyn Evans, of Hazel, dale, visited with friends in Oregon City Monday.

Herman Fischer, of Carus, county road supervisor of that place, was in Oregon City Monday.

Fred Bohlander, of Beaver Creek, was a well known resident of that place was in this city Saturday.

J. A. Tufts, county treasurer and well known G. A. R. man, is seriously ill at his home at Gladstone.

Albert Charman, who has been visiting relatives at Corvallis, has returned to his home in Oregon City.

Mrs. John A. McQuinn of Portland, was a well known visitor of her sister, Mrs. Charles D. Latourette, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Goodman, of Medford, have arrived in Oregon City where they expect to make their future home.

William Schatz, a well known farmer of Stafford, has been in this city the past week, where he has been serving as jurymen.

Louis Wallace, of Highland, was in Oregon City Monday, being accompanied by Eli Stark, also of that place.

Mrs. R. A. Schoenborn is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Nathaniel Smythe, of Portland, during the rose show.

Wane Wright, of Walla Walla, Washington, was among those visiting in Oregon City the first of the week.

Mrs. Charles Parker has returned to this city, from Southern Oregon, where she has been for the past three weeks on business.

Mrs. James Wilkinson, of Gladstone, who has been critically ill for the past two months suffering from pneumonia, is rapidly improving.

C. A. Rands and daughter, Miss Evelyn, of Palouse, Wash., are visiting relatives in this city. Miss Evelyn Rands is a niece of Mrs. E. L. Shaw of this city.

Leon Bly and sister, Miss Jennie Bly of Carus, were in Oregon City Monday. Miss Bly will visit friends in Portland during the rose show before returning to her home.

Mrs. J. P. Keating and two children, Rodney and Virginia, formerly of this city but now of Hoquiam, Washington, have arrived in this city where they are visiting the former's sisters, Misses Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Driscoll, of Carus, were in Oregon City Tuesday. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Miss Ethel, who has been attending the Oregon City High school.

Mrs. George H. Millinglan, who has been serving on the jury in Pueblo, Colorado, for the past six weeks returned home Friday evening. She was accompanied to this city by her niece, Miss Johnson, who will spend the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jewell left Friday for Idaho, where they will make their future home. Mr. Jewell has been employed by the government as deputy fish warden at the Clackamas hatchery, and will hold the position of fish commissioner in Idaho.

Miss Addie Robinson, formerly of this city, but who has been spending the past year at Oakland, California, returned to Oregon this week, and will spend the summer in Portland, where she will visit with her brother, Rev. C. W. Robinson.

D. Horner, of Dodge, John Mullenhoff, of Damascus, W. E. Bonney, of Colton, Mr. Owings of Hubbard, and H. N. Everhart, of Molalla, well known residents of Clackamas county, who have been serving on the jury, have returned to their homes. While in this city they registered at the Electric.

Miss Maybelle Hunstock, who has been engaged in teaching in the Oregon City High school for the past two years, will leave Tuesday evening for Berkeley, California, where she will take a special course in physical culture during the summer months. She will be joined at Berkeley by her sister, who is engaged in teaching at Oxmad, California, and both of whom will return to the latter place in the fall. Miss Hunstock was one of the most successful teachers employed by the school district during her two years in Portland. She has devoted her entire attention to the commercial department. Before coming to this city she was a teacher in the Baker, Oregon, High school, under the supervision of Prof. Churchill, having taught there for three years. After her graduation from the McMinnville College in 1909 she was appointed as assistant in that institution, where she taught for a year, and afterwards took a special course in Mrs. Gardner's school in Portland. With Miss Hunstock's experience as a teacher she was most successful while performing her duties in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lyman, of Shubel, visited relatives in Oregon City Sunday.

George Holman, of Beaver Creek, visited friends in this city Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Gwendolyn Evans, of Hazel, dale, visited with friends in Oregon City Monday.

Herman Fischer, of Carus, county road supervisor of that place, was in Oregon City Monday.

Fred Bohlander, of Beaver Creek, was a well known resident of that place was in this city Saturday.

J. A. Tufts, county treasurer and well known G. A. R. man, is seriously ill at his home at Gladstone.

Albert Charman, who has been visiting relatives at Corvallis, has returned to his home in Oregon City.

Mrs. John A. McQuinn of Portland, was a well known visitor of her sister, Mrs. Charles D. Latourette, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Goodman, of Medford, have arrived in Oregon City where they expect to make their future home.

William Schatz, a well known farmer of Stafford, has been in this city the past week, where he has been serving as jurymen.

Louis Wallace, of Highland, was in Oregon City Monday, being accompanied by Eli Stark, also of that place.

Mrs. R. A. Schoenborn is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Nathaniel Smythe, of Portland, during the rose show.

Wane Wright, of Walla Walla, Washington, was among those visiting in Oregon City the first of the week.

Mrs. Charles Parker has returned to this city, from Southern Oregon, where she has been for the past three weeks on business.

Mrs. James Wilkinson, of Gladstone, who has been critically ill for the past two months suffering from pneumonia, is rapidly improving.

C. A. Rands and daughter, Miss Evelyn, of Palouse, Wash., are visiting relatives in this city. Miss Evelyn Rands is a niece of Mrs. E. L. Shaw of this city.

Leon Bly and sister, Miss Jennie Bly of Carus, were in Oregon City Monday. Miss Bly will visit friends in Portland during the rose show before returning to her home.

Mrs. J. P. Keating and two children, Rodney and Virginia, formerly of this city but now of Hoquiam, Washington, have arrived in this city where they are visiting the former's sisters, Misses Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Driscoll, of Carus, were in Oregon City Tuesday. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Miss Ethel, who has been attending the Oregon City High school.

Mrs. George H. Millinglan, who has been serving on the jury in Pueblo, Colorado, for the past six weeks returned home Friday evening. She was accompanied to this city by her niece, Miss Johnson, who will spend the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jewell left Friday for Idaho, where they will make their future home. Mr. Jewell has been employed by the government as deputy fish warden at the Clackamas hatchery, and will hold the position of fish commissioner in Idaho.

Miss Addie Robinson, formerly of this city, but who has been spending the past year at Oakland, California, returned to Oregon this week, and will spend the summer in Portland, where she will visit with her brother, Rev. C. W. Robinson.

D. Horner, of Dodge, John Mullenhoff, of Damascus, W. E. Bonney, of Colton, Mr. Owings of Hubbard, and H. N. Everhart, of Molalla, well known residents of Clackamas county, who have been serving on the jury, have returned to their homes. While in this city they registered at the Electric.

Miss Maybelle Hunstock, who has been engaged in teaching in the Oregon City High school for the past two years, will leave Tuesday evening for Berkeley, California, where she will take a special course in physical culture during the summer months. She will be joined at Berkeley by her sister, who is engaged in teaching at Oxmad, California, and both of whom will return to the latter place in the fall. Miss Hunstock was one of the most successful teachers employed by the school district during her two years in Portland. She has devoted her entire attention to the commercial department. Before coming to this city she was a teacher in the Baker, Oregon, High school, under the supervision of Prof. Churchill, having taught there for three years. After her graduation from the McMinnville College in 1909 she was appointed as assistant in that institution, where she taught for a year, and afterwards took a special course in Mrs. Gardner's school in Portland. With Miss Hunstock's experience as a teacher she was most successful while performing her duties in this city.

Miss Mary Davies, of Homedale, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mr. Lammers, of Homedale, was in this city Sunday.

Miss Irene Voght, of Shubel, was an Oregon City visitor Sunday.

Roland Edwards, of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Monday.

John Kline, of Carus, transacted business in this city Saturday.

Otto Stryker, of Eldorado, was in this city on business Saturday.

George Brenner, of Carus, transacted business in this city Saturday.

Mrs. O. W. Robinson, and baby have returned to this city from Portland.

Pierce Wright, who resides at Liberal, was in this city Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lyman, of Shubel, visited relatives in Oregon City Sunday.

George Holman, of Beaver Creek, visited friends in this city Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Gwendolyn Evans, of Hazel, dale, visited with friends in Oregon City Monday.

Herman Fischer, of Carus, county road supervisor of that place, was in Oregon City Monday.

Fred Bohlander, of Beaver Creek, was a well known resident of that place was in this city Saturday.

J. A. Tufts, county treasurer and well known G. A. R. man, is seriously ill at his home at Gladstone.

Albert Charman, who has been visiting relatives at Corvallis, has returned to his home in Oregon City.

Mrs. John A. McQuinn of Portland, was a well known visitor of her sister, Mrs. Charles D. Latourette, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Goodman, of Medford, have arrived in Oregon City where they expect to make their future home.

William Schatz, a well known farmer of Stafford, has been in this city the past week, where he has been serving as jurymen.

Louis Wallace, of Highland, was in Oregon City Monday, being accompanied by Eli Stark, also of that place.

Mrs. R. A. Schoenborn is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Nathaniel Smythe, of Portland, during the rose show.

Wane Wright, of Walla Walla, Washington, was among those visiting in Oregon City the first of the week.

Mrs. Charles Parker has returned to this city, from Southern Oregon, where she has been for the past three weeks on business.

Mrs. James Wilkinson, of Gladstone, who has been critically ill for the past two months suffering from pneumonia, is rapidly improving.

C. A. Rands and daughter, Miss Evelyn, of Palouse, Wash., are visiting relatives in this city. Miss Evelyn Rands is a niece of Mrs. E. L. Shaw of this city.

Leon Bly and sister, Miss Jennie Bly of Carus, were in Oregon City Monday. Miss Bly will visit friends in Portland during the rose show before returning to her home.

Mrs. J. P. Keating and two children, Rodney and Virginia, formerly of this city but now of Hoquiam, Washington, have arrived in this city where they are visiting the former's sisters, Misses Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Driscoll, of Carus, were in Oregon City Tuesday. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Miss Ethel, who has been attending the Oregon City High school.

Mrs. George H. Millinglan, who has been serving on the jury in Pueblo, Colorado, for the past six weeks returned home Friday evening. She was accompanied to this city by her niece, Miss Johnson, who will spend the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jewell left Friday for Idaho, where they will make their future home. Mr. Jewell has been employed by the government as deputy fish warden at the Clackamas hatchery, and will hold the position of fish commissioner in Idaho.

Miss Addie Robinson, formerly of this city, but who has been spending the past year at Oakland, California, returned to Oregon this week, and will spend the summer in Portland, where she will visit with her brother, Rev. C. W. Robinson.

D. Horner, of Dodge, John Mullenhoff, of Damascus, W. E. Bonney, of Colton, Mr. Owings of Hubbard, and H. N. Everhart, of Molalla, well known residents of Clackamas county, who have been serving on the jury, have returned to their homes. While in this city they registered at the Electric.

Miss Maybelle Hunstock, who has been engaged in teaching in the Oregon City High school for the past two years, will leave Tuesday evening for Berkeley, California, where she will take a special course in physical culture during the summer months. She will be joined at Berkeley by her sister, who is engaged in teaching at Oxmad, California, and both of whom will return to the latter place in the fall. Miss Hunstock was one of the most successful teachers employed by the school district during her two years in Portland. She has devoted her entire attention to the commercial department. Before coming to this city she was a teacher in the Baker, Oregon, High school, under the supervision of Prof. Churchill, having taught there for three years. After her graduation from the McMinnville College in 1909 she was appointed as assistant in that institution, where she taught for a year, and afterwards took a special course in Mrs. Gardner's school in Portland. With Miss Hunstock's experience as a teacher she was most successful while performing her duties in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lyman, of Shubel, visited relatives in Oregon City Sunday.

George Holman, of Beaver Creek, visited friends in this city Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Gwendolyn Evans, of Hazel, dale, visited with friends in Oregon City Monday.

Herman Fischer, of Carus, county road supervisor of that place, was in Oregon City Monday.

Fred Bohlander, of Beaver Creek, was a well known resident of that place was in this city Saturday.

J. A. Tufts, county treasurer and well known G. A. R. man, is seriously ill at his home at Gladstone.

Albert Charman, who has been visiting relatives at Corvallis, has returned to his home in Oregon City.

Mrs. John A. McQuinn of Portland, was a well known visitor of her sister, Mrs. Charles D. Latourette, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Goodman, of Medford, have arrived in Oregon City where they expect to make their future home.

William Schatz, a well known farmer of Stafford, has been in this city the past week, where he has been serving as jurymen.

Louis Wallace, of Highland, was in Oregon City Monday, being accompanied by Eli Stark, also of that place.

Mrs. R. A. Schoenborn is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Nathaniel Smythe, of Portland, during the rose show.

Wane Wright, of Walla Walla, Washington, was among those visiting in Oregon City the first of the week.

Mrs. Charles Parker has returned to this city, from Southern Oregon, where she has been for the past three weeks on business.

Mrs. James Wilkinson, of Gladstone, who has been critically ill for the past two months suffering from pneumonia, is rapidly improving.

C. A. Rands and daughter, Miss Evelyn, of Palouse, Wash., are visiting relatives in this city. Miss Evelyn Rands is a niece of Mrs. E. L. Shaw of this city.

Leon Bly and sister, Miss Jennie Bly of Carus, were in Oregon City Monday. Miss Bly will visit friends in Portland during the rose show before returning to her home.

Mrs. J. P. Keating and two children, Rodney and Virginia, formerly of this city but now of Hoquiam, Washington, have arrived in this city where they are visiting the former's sisters, Misses Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Driscoll, of Carus, were in Oregon City Tuesday. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Miss Ethel, who has been attending the Oregon City High school.

Mrs. George H. Millinglan, who has been serving on the jury in Pueblo, Colorado, for the past six weeks returned home Friday evening. She was accompanied to this city by her niece, Miss Johnson, who will spend the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jewell left Friday for Idaho, where they will make their future home. Mr. Jewell has been employed by the government as deputy fish warden at the Clackamas hatchery, and will hold the position of fish commissioner in Idaho.

Miss Addie Robinson, formerly of this city, but who has been spending the past year at Oakland, California, returned to Oregon this week, and will spend the summer in Portland, where she will visit with her brother, Rev. C. W. Robinson.

D. Horner, of Dodge, John Mullenhoff, of Damascus, W. E. Bonney, of Colton, Mr. Owings of Hubbard, and H. N. Everhart, of Molalla, well known residents of Clackamas county, who have been serving on the jury, have returned to their homes. While in this city they registered at the Electric.

Miss Maybelle Hunstock, who has been engaged in teaching in the Oregon City High school for the past two years, will leave Tuesday evening for Berkeley, California, where she will take a special course in physical culture during the summer months. She will be joined at Berkeley by her sister, who is engaged in teaching at Oxmad, California, and both of whom will return to the latter place in the fall. Miss Hunstock was one of the most successful teachers employed by the school district during her two years in Portland. She has devoted her entire attention to the commercial department. Before coming to this city she was a teacher in the Baker, Oregon, High school, under the supervision of Prof. Churchill, having taught there for three years. After her graduation from the McMinnville College in 1909 she was appointed as assistant in that institution, where she taught for a year, and afterwards took a special course in Mrs. Gardner's school in Portland. With Miss Hunstock's experience as a teacher she was most successful while performing her duties in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lyman, of Shubel, visited relatives in Oregon City Sunday.

George Holman, of Beaver Creek, visited friends in this city Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Gwendolyn Evans, of Hazel, dale, visited with friends in Oregon City Monday.

Herman Fischer, of Carus, county road supervisor of that place, was in Oregon City Monday.

Fred Bohlander, of Beaver Creek, was a well known resident of that place was in this city Saturday.

J. A. Tufts, county treasurer and well known G. A. R. man, is seriously ill at his home at Gladstone.

Albert Charman, who has been visiting relatives at Corvallis, has returned to his home in Oregon City.

Mrs. John A. McQuinn of Portland, was a well known visitor of her sister, Mrs. Charles D. Latourette, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Goodman, of Medford, have arrived in Oregon City where they expect to make their future home.

William Schatz, a well known farmer of Stafford, has been in this city the past week, where he has been serving as jurymen.

Louis Wallace, of Highland, was in Oregon City Monday, being accompanied by Eli Stark, also of that place.

Mrs. R. A. Schoenborn is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Nathaniel Smythe, of Portland, during the rose show.

Wane Wright, of Walla Walla, Washington, was among those visiting in Oregon City the first of the week.

Excellent values on trimmed hats. Miss C. Goldsmith.

V. Olson, of Canby, was in this city Saturday and Sunday.

D. B. McDowell, of Canby, was an Oregon City visitor Monday.

E. Everett, of Gresham, was an Oregon City visitor Saturday and Sunday.

V. V. Willis, of Scotts Mills, was in Oregon City Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. J. A. Collins, of Beaver Creek, was an Oregon City visitor Friday and Saturday.

Hugh Young, of Prosser, Wash., was among the Oregon City visitors Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. L. J. Ewalt, of Logan, accompanied by her nephew, Higby Ewalt, were in Oregon City Tuesday.

Miss Hazel Mitchell, of Canby, is visiting her sisters, Misses Clara and Mary Mitchell, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Miles spent Sunday in Portland as guests of their daughter, Mrs. George Martin.

N. T. B. Pentreath, of Seattle, Washington, was an Oregon City visitor Thursday and Friday.

O. H. Russell, of Albany, who has been in this city on business, returned to his home Monday evening.

H. J. McEachem, of Tacoma, Washington, was registered at the Electric hotel Friday and Saturday.

LeRoy Worth, of Eugene, was transacting business in Oregon City Saturday, returning to his home Sunday.

Miss Bertha Koerner, of Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city as the guest of Miss Sedonia Shaw.

Mrs. Mary Vedder, of Monitor, Oregon, who has been visiting her son, Professor Brenton Vedder, of Gladstone, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Thomas Keith, of Portland, formerly Miss Edith Cheney, of Portland, who has been visiting relatives in the East, has returned to her home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Moehneke, of Beaver Creek, who have been in this city visiting their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Moehneke, have returned to their home.

District Attorney A. M. Crawford, of Salem, was in Oregon City on legal business Thursday, returning to his home Friday evening.

Harry Forsythe, after spending several days in this city, registering at the Electric Hotel, has returned to his home at Prosser, Wash.

Mrs. Emily Shaw, a well known instructor of Clackamas county, whose home is at Milwaukie, was in this city on business Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Gregory left on Sunday, after visiting her sister, Mrs. H. B. Carlisle, for several days. She will leave for her home at Williamsport, Indiana, the latter part of the week to spend her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Steiner and son, William, and daughter, Mrs. Lester Bernhardt, of Portland, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Latourette, Sunday. Mrs. Latourette is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steiner.

P. H. Smith, of Tillamook, Oregon, who recently