NEWS OF THE CITY

Miss Nan Cochran... Local Editor

Thomas Sinnott has gone to Southern Oregon, where he will remain for some time, being connected with the Oregonian.

Clyde Green has gone to Seaside, where he has accepted a position in the office of the railroad company. Last year he was shipping clerk for the same railroad company.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Green will leave next Wednesday for Seaside, where the latter will remain for the summer, but Mr. Green will spend but a few days at this summer resort.

Mrs. Ambrose Bailey, of Portland, is visiting Mrs. J. W. Norris.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Howell, spent the week-end at Salem, attending the Cherry fair. While in that city they were the guests of Mrs. Mayme Babcock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hawley and son, Willard, who have been enjoying a visit in California, have returned to Oregon. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Barlow, and son of Oakland, California, who will visit in this city and in Portland. The trip was made by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Pety of Seaside, Oregon, arrived in this city last week where they will remain for several days. Before returning to Seaside they will make a trip by automobile to Newport, and will also go to California, where they will visit Mrs. Pety's sister at Red Bluffs.

Dr. and Mrs. Ray Norris and son, of San Francisco, are in this city, the guests of the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Norris. They will leave for their home July 9th. Mrs. Norris is also visiting her mother in Portland during her stay in Oregon.

Mrs. Theodore Griel, of Oysterville, Oregon, but formerly of this city, has returned to Oysterville after visiting friends in Oregon City and looking after her property interests.

Miss Mary Mitchell has resumed her position with the Bank of Oregon City after spending the past week at her home at Sandy.

Mrs. C. W. Evans, Mrs. F. T. Barlow and Mrs. N. M. Alldredge have returned from Tillamook, where they attended the encampment of the Women's Mead Relief Corps. Mrs. Evans has been department president for the past year, and her successor is Mrs. Dunlap. While attending the encampment the members of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. were entertained in a royal manner by the residents of Tillamook. The encampment for 1915 will be held at McMinnville.

THE HUB

We make a specialty of high grade Coffee. Try our D. & B. blend at 30c per pound, it is great for the price.

Our Hub Special or our Equity at 35c make as fine a cup of coffee as you could wish for.

Tea Garden Peanut Butter in bulk is fine, and costs you much less than in glass jars, 20c per pound.

We have just opened a 50 gallon barrel of those Heinz celebrated dill pickles.

You have not tried any as good, and they are going fast at 20c per dozen.

You should eat Blue Ribbon Bread, and Clear Creek or Oregon City Butter—always good and fresh.

SOCIAL EVENTS

A very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Califf of Tenth and John Quincy Adams Street Friday afternoon, June 25th, when their second daughter, Miss Ruth became the wife of Mr. George Howard Eberly, of this city. Rev. J. R. Landsborough officiating.

The marriage ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties, after which the young couple left for a brief honeymoon, which was spent at Vancouver, Wash., and at The Dalles, returning to this city the first of the week, where they have taken up their residence on Molalla Avenue.

The bride wore a very becoming traveling gown of brown, with a large picture hat. Her cousin, Miss Etta Straight of Parklake, was the bridesmaid. Ted Marley was best man.

The rooms of the Califf home were artistically decorated in sweet peas, roses and ferns, the marriage ceremony being performed beneath a canopy of flowers at the rear, ferns and potted plants being arranged.

Mrs. Eberly, who was born in this city, has spent most of her life, except two years at Cazadero, here. She attended the Oregon City schools and was a general favorite among her classmates. She has the past two years held a position with the Oregon City Enterprise.

Mr. Eberly came to this city four years ago from Iowa, and at the present time is employed by the city. During his residence in this city he has made many friends.

Miss Bertha Koerner, of Portland, entertained at her home Saturday evening in honor of Miss Genevieve Capen, of Gladstone, whose marriage to Leo Burdon, also of that place, will be solemnized July 8th. Miss Capen has been the motif of many social affairs, being one of Gladstone's most popular young women, and the affair given by Miss Koerner was a most enjoyable one.

The evening was devoted to cards followed by refreshments. The rooms of the Koerner home were attractively decorated for the occasion.

Attending were Mrs. Irene Poulter, Mrs. Clara Myers, Mrs. Joseph Gerber, of Portland, Mrs. Charles Legler, Miss Wynne Hanny, Miss Nell Caulfield, Miss Morita Hickman, Miss Vada Elliott, Miss Belle Mattley, Miss Olga McClure, Miss Ethel Shaw, Miss Lotta Livermore, Miss Mary Belle Meldrum, Miss Sedonia Shaw.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church gave a tea at the home of Mrs. W. C. Green Thursday afternoon of last week, and which proved a most successful affair. Mrs. Green was assisted in entertainment of the guests by Mrs. A. E. Frost and Mrs. M. P. Chapman. During the afternoon many friends and members of the church called and enjoyed the musical and literary programme, consisting of the following numbers: piano solo, "Flower Song," Fred Toozee, Jr.; vocal selection, "Welcome Song," Helen Toozee; reading, "Jim and I," Mrs. L. Read; song, "Lullaby," little Beverly Schoenborn; solo, "Jesus Bids Us Shine," little Madeline Lindborg; vocal solo, "Believe Me of All Those Endearing Young Charms," Mrs. Angus Matheson, who responded to an encore by singing, "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes;" vocal solo, Oscar Laurence Woodfin, responding to several encores, singing, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and "He Met Her on the Stairs."

The marriage of Miss Bessie C. Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds, of this city, and Mr. David W. Herd, also of this city, was solemnized at the apartment of the bride at Fourteenth and Main street, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, June 25, in the presence of the bride's family. Rev. J. C. Landsborough, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, and the bride and bridegroom were unattended.

The rooms were very prettily decorated in carnations and roses, the color scheme being pink and white.

The bride, who is a very attractive young woman, looked very pretty in her simple gown of white embroidered-mulle and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations.

After spending their honeymoon at the beach, Mr. and Mrs. Herd will return to this city to take up their residence on Fourteenth and Main street.

The bride was born in Siskiyou county, California, but came to Oregon with her parents when a child, first making her home in Portland, where she attended school, and afterwards moving to Oregon City, where she attended the Oregon City High School. For the past two years she has been employed as stenographer and bookkeeper for Miller & Parker.

Before accepting this position she was a teacher of stenography in this city, as well as in Portland, and is one of Oregon City's most highly esteemed young women.

Mr. Herd, who has been a resident of Oregon City for the past two years, is an experienced paper maker, being connected with the Willamette Pulp & Paper Co. Before coming to this city he was employed as freight clerk of a railroad company at San Francisco. His former home is Waterville, Maine, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Herd, reside.

88 YEARS YOUNG

Mrs. W. P. Burns celebrated her 88th birthday anniversary Friday, June 26th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burns, of Greenpoint.

During the afternoon many friends and relatives of Mrs. Burns from Portland and of this city, called to pay their respects. Mrs. Burns was assisted in receiving by her daughter Mrs. Laura Fuller, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles Burns. Refreshments were served during the afternoon. The guests of the Burns home were very attractive with artistic decorations of carnations and roses. Mrs. Burns was presented with many beautiful flowers and other gifts in honor of the occasion.

Although Mrs. Burns has reached her 88th birthday, she is enjoying the best of health. She has a charming personality and has hundreds of persons, many friends and members of the church called and enjoyed the musical and literary programme, consisting of the following numbers: piano solo, "Flower Song," Fred Toozee, Jr.; vocal selection, "Welcome Song," Helen Toozee; reading, "Jim and I," Mrs. L. Read; song, "Lullaby," little Beverly Schoenborn; solo, "Jesus Bids Us Shine," little Madeline Lindborg; vocal solo, "Believe Me of All Those Endearing Young Charms," Mrs. Angus Matheson, who responded to an encore by singing, "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes;" vocal solo, Oscar Laurence Woodfin, responding to several encores, singing, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and "He Met Her on the Stairs."

CONCERT WAS SUCCESS

The largest attended musical concert ever given in Oregon City was held in Busch's Hall. It was the complimentary concert given by Oscar Lawrence Woodfin and Frank Busch. Every seat was occupied. Mr. Woodfin sang one of his own compositions, "The Witches' Dance." Mrs. V. Harris accompanied the vocalists. The patronesses were Mrs. Frank Busch, Mrs. James Finley, Mrs. C. E. Fraker, Mrs. H. Daneman and Mrs. Viola Gordon Wright. After the concert the floor was cleared of chairs and a dance was enjoyed by the young people.

The Primary department of the Presbyterian Sabbath school, held a picnic on Thursday afternoon of last week on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. C. Scheibel at 8th and Jefferson street. The little ones thoroughly enjoyed the games and races, after which they were served with sandwiches, cakes and pink lemonade. Mrs. Chas. Ely, Primary supt., was assisted in entertaining the children, by Mrs. Frank Aldredge, Roberta Scheibel and Mrs. A. E. Frost.

City Attorney Schuebel, City Engineer Noble, Henry Templeton, chairman of the Street Committee and J. E. Hedges, attorney for Mrs. Chase, in her legal battle with the City, went to Salem Monday evening, by automobile, to be present at the opening of the proceedings to settle the elevator difficulties as present existing between Mrs. Chase and the Oregon City Council.

W. C. Grace, of Portland, visited relatives in Oregon City Sunday.
