

"City Fathers Agitated"
Permission was granted the Oregon City ice factory to erect coal bunkers on E. R. Ave. Remonstrance was made today by C. I. Stafford, H. Stevens and a lady. The city council held a meeting in an old barn and decided that the bunkers would injure no one. Mr. Stafford objected, it is said, because he wished steps build down from the Fifth St. crossing.

The Council decided to call a meeting tomorrow night when the coal bunker matter and Division Street improvement will be the matter to be discussed. Lively innings are predicted.

WILL NOT MOVE

Maple Lane School House will Remain Where it is for the Present

Residents in the Maple Lane school district have changed their minds about moving the school house from its present site.

At a meeting of the district Monday June 29, it was decided to move the location of the school house near the center of the district, and it was proposed to erect a modern school house suitable for a graded school, a committee of five having the matter in hand to report at a meeting to be held on July 7.

At this meeting Tuesday evening about 50 voters were present and it was decided to reconsider plans and let the school building remain where it is, the vote being 3 to 1 against moving it.

The district may decide to put up a new building at a later date, but there is nothing definite at present.

ROSE SOCIETY MEETS

And Elects Officers for Ensuing Year - Makes Substantial Gain Past Season

The annual meeting of the Oregon City Rose Society held in the Commercial Club parlors on June 30th, concluded the business meetings of the organization for the year.

At this time the Treasurer's yearly report was read and officers elected for the ensuing year. The Treasurer's report shows: Cash on hand beg. of year $155.93 Total receipts for year $283.84 Total Disbursement for year $176.55 Bal. on hand $263.22

The retiring president, Mrs. J. J. Cooke, wishes to thank all who contributed in cash, prizes or labor to help make the Festival a success; also to thank the Commercial Club for the use of their parlors for holding meetings.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year. Mrs. Angus Matheson, Pres., Mrs. Chas. Risley, Vice Pres., Mrs. Duncan Shanks, Secy.; Mrs. F. T. Barlow Treas.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Clackamas County Teachers Will Study at Gladstone Park

The second annual teachers' training school, conducted by the county school superintendent, will open at Gladstone park August 10, and remain in session to August 28. Superintendent Calavan will have the charge of the school.

The school will be divided into two divisions, primary and advanced. Mrs. Minnie L. Fulkerson, of Salem, will have charge of the primary department, and T. J. Gary, formerly county superintendent, but now a teacher in the Portland School of Trades, and Supervisors M. S. Lovelace and Brenton Vedder will teach in the advanced division. Miss Elizabeth K. Matthews, an eastern expert, will do special work in such subjects as methods of teaching and child study. Besides these special lecturers will be engaged from the state normal schools, Oregon Agricultural College, University of Oregon, and the state department of education.

RAILWAY BOARD MEETS

Geo. A. Harding Given Directorship and Construction Work Progresses

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Willamette Valley Southern Railway, Monday evening, Geo. A. Harding was elected to fill the position on the board left vacant by the recent death of F. M. Swift.

Construction work on the road is said to be progressing satisfactorily. About 3 miles of track out of Oregon City has been ballasted. No more track will be laid just at present, but rails and other equipment are being assembled at the present end of the line.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Mulvey and Miss May Mulvey returned from a trip to Southern Oregon Monday, after having a most enjoyable automobile trip. The party left this city Saturday, arriving at Eugene about 11:30 o'clock. They then proceeded to Cottage Grove and from there to London Springs, where they enjoyed their visit at that resort. Although there were 618 miles covered by the Maxwell, 25 machine, in three days, there were no accidents to mar the pleasure of the trip, not even a punctured tire. This is one of the best records in length and with the hay cut and stacked and ready for hauling to the barn, is the finest he has ever seen. The fruit crop, as well as that of the hay is also large.

Thomas Fairclough spent Saturday and Sunday at Wilhoit Springs. Miss Mary Silvers and brother, Waldo, who have been attending Mt. Angel Academy and College, have returned to this city to spend their summer vacation with their mother, Mrs. Agnes Silver, of West Linn. Miss Silver had the honor while at Mt. Angel Academy of receiving a general average of 99 in her studies.

Mrs. Russel Allen, formerly Miss Bess Reddick, of this city, but now of Troy, Ohio, is visiting her father, R. D. Reddick, also her brother Guy Reddick and family of Greenport. Mrs. Allen will return to her home in Ohio next Thursday.

Dick Rotter, who has been spending his two weeks' vacation at Seaside, Oregon, has returned to Oregon

HOWELLS SUED FOR $7,400

Fred Blum Seeks to Recover Large Amount of Money

E. M. Howell, T. C. Howell and M. L. Howell are defendants in an action filed last Monday by Fred Blum who seeks to recover damages for false representation the Howells are alleged to have made in an exchange of a rooming house for Mr. Blum's farm.

Fred Blum, the well known wood dealer of Oregon City, represented by Attorney O. W. Estabrook,

E. M. Howell, one of the defendants, is well known about town as Mac Howell. He has been in the real estate business in Oregon City for a number of years, buying and selling considerable property on his own account. His brother, T. C. Howell, mayor of Gladstone, and better known as Chambers Howell, is interested with him in a large part of his real estate holdings. The Howells are said to be wealthy.

From Blum's complaint it appears that the Howells were owners of the furniture of a Portland apartment house. The wood dealer, not being informed in furniture values, took the defendants' word for it that he was getting a good $12,000 value with a net earning capacity of $150 to $300 per month. In exchange he parted with a fine 120 acre farm two miles east of New Era. Then he learned what he alleges to be the crushing truth; that the rooming house was losing money every day, and that a reasonable value for it, over and above the mortgage on it, would be $400. This is what he has to show for his $9,000 New Era farm.

Blum's complaint indicates that he trusted implicitly in the representations of his fellow townsmen; that it was not hypnotism or mesmerism but a case of misplaced confidence.

Miss Mary Kline of Battle Creek, Michigan, Mrs. Louis Roland of Philadelphia, Pa., Mrs. Charles Castle and son, Glen, of Portland, Mrs. Jack Castle and son, Bruce, of Portland, were the guests of Mrs. J. D. Baker of this city, Wednesday of last week.

Frank Nelson and sister, Miss Mable Nelson, of Portland, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. William Weismandel, of Eleventh and Center Street, have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bollinger, who have been spending the past week at Cannon Beach, Oregon, returned to Oregon City Monday evening, after having spent a most delightful outing.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weismandel, accompanied by Miss Mabel Nelson, and Frank Nelson, spent Saturday at Woodburn attending the Fourth of July celebration at that city.

Gustave Schuebel and son, Walter, of Shubel, passed through this city Tuesday on their way to Gladstone, where they attended the Chautauqua.

Notice to Contractors

Sealed proposals will be received by the County Court of Clackamas County, Oregon, until July 24th, 1914 at 10:30 A. M., and then opened, for the improvement of County Roads numbered 40 and 230 and extending from the town of CLACKAMAS northward to the intersection of road No. 230 with the center line of the Oregon and California Railroad Track or from Station O to Station 61 plus 67, in sections 4 and 9, T. 2 S. R. 2 E. of the Willamette Meridian.

Plans and specifications are now on file in the office of the County Clerk of said Clackamas County, Oregon.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for an amount equal to five per cent of the amount bid, made payable to the County Clerk of Clackamas County, which check shall be forfeited to said Clackamas County, should the successful bidder fail to enter into contract and furnish a satisfactory bond within five days after the award is made.

Each bid shall be endorsed, "Proposal for improvement of a portion of roads No. 40 and 230."

The County Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

W. L. Mulvey, County Clerk.

Almost 500 people attended the celebration at Colton, July 4th, when Hon. W. A. Dimick of this city, was orator of the day. The day's program opened with a parade, this headed by a band from Portland, and consisted of decorated carriages, and automobiles. Among the floats was a miniature log cabin bearing the words "Colton 1906."

An attractive looking grove was was the destination where the day's programme was carried out. There was something doing every minute, and the programme committee for the day's event is deserving of much credit in the manner it was given.

The marriage of Miss Mary Carmichael, of Saginaw, Michigan, and Mr. W. R. Reddick, of this city, was solemnized at the home of Rev. O'Hara, of Portland, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, in the presence of immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of dark blue and picture hat to match. Her corsage bouquet was of lilies of the valley and pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Reddick left Portland Wednesday afternoon for Seaside, Wash., and from that city will take the steamer for Alaska, where they will spend their honeymoon.

The bride arrived a year ago from Michigan and since that time has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Farmer, her uncle and aunt, and is a highly esteemed young woman.

The bridegroom has made his home in Oregon City for the past 25 years and is well known here. He is superintendent of the wood room of the Willamette Pulp and Paper Company and has been connected with that company for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Reddick will make their future home in Oregon City.

Miss Clara Fields, formerly of this city, but now of Portland, was united in marriage to Mr. Ben C. Wing of Portland, July 4th. The marriage ceremony was performed by Dr. Jonah B. Wise in Temple Beth Israel.

FISHERDALE FARM

North Dakota Poultry Fancier Makes Success of Hen Business Here

F. F. Fisher, a poultry fancier, proprietor and owner of "Fisherdale Farm," situated about two miles from this city and located on the banks of the Clackamas river, is making the poultry industry a paying proposition by up-to-date methods of feeding and caring for his chickens.

Mr. Fisher, arriving in Clackamas County four years ago from New Rockford, North Dakota, decided to go into the industry of raising chickens and eggs for the market as well as ducks. He selected the Single Comb White Leghorn chickens and English Pencilled Indian Runner ducks. Although he has only 6 1/2 acres of land much of this is devoted to the running of his chickens, and with the river flowing close by is an ideal location for the raising of ducks.

Mr. Fisher has kept a correct record as to what his poultry and ducks are bringing him. From January, 1, 1914, to May 1, 1914, 150 hens laid 8,281 eggs. From these he sold 7,286 eggs in the market, the averaging market price being from 20 cents to 45 cents per dozen. For incubator use at his home, 1,054 eggs, and for household purposes 324 eggs.

From his 31 ducks, were hatched from September 1913, to May 1, 1914, 3838 eggs. From this he sold 212 for setting purposes, 90 for incubator. The total number of hen and duck eggs was 10,787 eggs.

The amount received from his sales at stores from January 1, 1914, to May 1, 1914, was $144.33; incubator use, $103.70; cockrels, frites and hatched by chicks, $53.00; the total being $301.03. The price of the feed and wheat for the feeding during this time was $301.03. The net profit was $197.03.

Mr. Fisher will exhibit at the Clackamas County Fair and Oregon State Fair this year. He received first at the County and State Fairs of last year on his chickens, and received awards on his ducks. His motto is "Buy quality, raise quality, breed quality and show quality."

Addition to City

An addition to Oregon City near the Mountain View cemetery, comprising about 120 acres, was filed with County Recorder Dedman by H. Gerson, Friday. The tract will be known as Gerson's Addition to Oregon City. It is laid out in lots and tracks of varying sizes and is situated west of Mountain View Cemetery.

MARTIN HAS ACCIDENT

Takes Exciting Plunge Over 12-foot Embankment Without Injury

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martin and daughter Charlotte, William Lee, William Davis and Mabel Mills, Sunday evening enjoyed the pleasure of being in a sensational automobile accident and getting off without a serious injury.

Mr. Martin was driving his Cadillac up a heavy grade on a country road near Sanburn when he temporarily lost control of the driving mechanism; the car backed through a fence at the bottom of the grade and plunged into the creek bottom about 12 feet below. Luckily no one was injured except Mrs. Martin, whose bruises were slight.

Dr. L. G. Ice brought the wrecked party home in his car and Mr. Martin recovered his own machine the following day.

A Pioneer

Uncle Ezra Meeker, the old Oregon pioneer, who crossed the plains with his ox team in '52, drove his ancient prairie schooner into town Tuesday. Mr. Meeker has made several subsequent trips by ox team over the Oregon trail, at one time going as far as Washington, D. C. The last time Uncle Ezra was here he drove a fine team of steers which had hauled him across the plains in one of his famous journeys, but this time he drove just one ox, a magnificent red beast weighing 2,300 lbs.

Mr. Meeker is full of ancient reminiscences, and, besides being an interesting talker, is an author of no mean account, having written several books treating of early Oregon history. He is well acquainted with Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, our own historical writer who is famous on account of her history of Dr. John McLaughlin and Old Oregon, and other works.

Uncle Ezra was seen here at the Star theatre, where he lectured upon his travels and the thrilling adventures of the old Oregon days.

GLADSTONE PICNIC

(Continued from Page 1)

for their country should necessarily demand it.

About 3 o'clock Hon. J. H. Cary, the orator, began his speech on "Patriotism," which elicited much applause from his hearers, the great crowd listened with rapt attention. Even the children were patient and polite, although they were no doubt wishing he would get through so the fireworks could resume.

Following the speech came the ball game between the office and mill forces, and this was won as usual by the office athletes. The Spirit of Goodwill was the wisdom of the mill people in giving these annual picnics for their employees cannot be too highly praised, and it is certain that a more orderly and appreciative crowd never was assembled anywhere. It seems ridiculous to contrast such an occasion as this with the old fashioned "celebration," in which firecrackers and fireworks furnished the principal entertainment. The Spirit of Goodwill was the wisdom of the mill people in giving these annual picnics for their employees cannot be too highly praised, and it is certain that a more orderly and appreciative crowd never was assembled anywhere. It seems ridiculous to contrast such an occasion as this with the old fashioned "celebration," in which firecrackers and fireworks furnished the principal entertainment. The Spirit of Goodwill was the wisdom of the mill people in giving these annual picnics for their employees cannot be too highly praised, and it is certain that a more orderly and appreciative crowd never was assembled anywhere. It seems ridiculous to contrast such an occasion as this with the old fashioned "celebration," in which firecrackers and fireworks furnished the principal entertainment.

The bridge room has made his home in Oregon City for the past 25 years and is well known here. He is superintendent of the wood room of the Willamette Pulp and Paper Company and has been connected with that company for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Reddick will make their future home in Oregon City.

Miss Clara Fields, formerly of this city, but now of Portland, was united in marriage to Mr. Ben C. Wing of Portland, July 4th. The marriage ceremony was performed by Dr. Jonah B. Wise in Temple Beth Israel.

Advertisement for Adams Department Store featuring a large illustration of a woman in a dress and a list of furniture and clothing items. Text includes: "We Furnish the Home Complete", "FURNITURE BARGAINS", "CLOTHING", and "Ladies' Suits and Coats".

Legal notices and public information. Includes: "What A Farmer Thinks" (Continued from Page 1), "OREGON FIRE RELIEF ASSN.", "Strongest Mutual in the West", "GEO. W. MILLER, Agent", "MR. GUSTAV G. FLECHTNER", "Sheriff's Sale", and "Notice of Final Settlement of the Estate of Peter Roth, Deceased".