The matter of getting a satisfactory deed to the government has been hanging for three years. With this big work started on the locks and with the building of the new paper mill, there should be plenty of work in Oregon City for the next two or three years.

It is often said that a postoffice is a thermometer of a city's business. Thursday of last week an extra carrier was put out for the downtown district, and Postmaster Randall says the last quarterly report shows a general increase in all departments of the postoffice. Wonder if the Portland "wets" will put this on the bulletin boards of the city as showing the effects of a "dry" city.

The eight foot cement walk from Seventh street to the elevator approach is completed, and the walk to Sixth street will be a much shorter and less expensive job, as the ground is level and there is little excavating. This walk presents a magnificent view of the city, and when the guard pieted and the walk opened to the public, it will be a most popular promenade.

Wednesday John Moehnke of Willamette paid a year's subscription to the Courier with the statement that he had been a constant subscriber of the paper since it was founded, 32 years ago. This is the second subscription we have knowledge of who has taken the paper this length of time, and if there are any others we would like to know them. Mr. Moehnke says the Courier has changed editors, color and politics several times since he subscribed.

At the corner of Fourth and High streets, is a deep well, canted, curved and covered. A notice posted states the water has been analyzed and found pure. A weight attachment makes it easy to draw the water, and the owners of the well permit all to come there and help themselves. And for blocks around every night men, women and children go to this well and carry water to their homes in the northern part of the city. It is free from alum and hypo-chloride, cool and refreshing. And what a reflection on the city's water it is to see these people nightly come as far as six blocks to get good water, yet paying the price for good water at home. A spring near the Jones' rock crusher is another supply for many families who carry it for long distances.

Is a Powerful Chill Tonic and Liver Regulator.
It puts the liver in healthy, vigorous condition and cures the chills by destroying the disease germs which infest the system. Herbine is a fine anti-periodic medicine, more effective than the syrupy mixtures that sicken the stomach; because it not only kills the disease germs, but acts effectively in the liver, stomach and bowels, thus putting the system in condition to successfully resist the usual third or seventh day return of the chill. Herbine is a scientific and invigorating medicine for the whole body.

CITY WOULD BE RESPONSIBLE

If it Knows Water is Dangerous and Continues to Serve it to People

The question has been asked of the Courier that if the city water, analyzed by the state board of health, and found unsafe, yet was continued to be served to the families of the city and typhoid sickness or death should result, if the city would not be liable for the death, damages and expenses?

The matter was taken up with an attorney in this city, and he said the city would be responsible, if it could be established that the damage was the direct result of the water and that this would be a matter of proof. He was of the opinion that an isolated case of fever would have a hard time to establish the water as the cause, but that if an epidemic broke out, after the state board of health or any reputable chemist had shown the water was unsafe, it was his opinion it would be sufficient proof of the cause of sickness or death.

"But if there is or was any such condition of the water," said the attorney, and the state board of health knew it, it should take the matter in hand, order the service stopped and force the city to supply safe water to the people, after which the city would be clearly responsible for damages if it ignored the order of the board."

"But," the lawyer added, "the state board of health appears to be far more interested in removing Dr. van Brakle from office than in protecting the lives and health of the people."

ROBBERS TAKE THEIR TIME

Break Open P. O., Cart out Safe and Blow it at Their Leisure

One of the boldest robberies in this county for years occurred at Oregon Tuesday night, when safe blowers rode out in an auto from Portland, broke open the postoffice door, loaded a 1,000 pound safe on a truck taken from the depot, carted it out to a convenient place, blew it open with glycerine, took out about $800 in cash, got into their car and drove back to the city.

The sheriff's departments of both Clackamas and Multnomah counties have been hard at work on the case, but so far no trace of the three men has been found.

And when you think about it it is seldom that postoffice burglars are caught. It seems to be the safest crime proposition in the country.

Live Wires Ridicule Main Street

The first autumn session of the Live Wires was held at the commercial club parlors Tuesday noon, and Oregon City's main street served as the fun maker.

A miniature Main street was reproduced on the table, with the danger signs, the holes in the paving, etc., and O. D. Eby, the Main Frank, acted as safety man and guide, pointing out the safe paths through the city's main thoroughfare.

Next week Tuesday the initiative and referendum bills to be voted on next month will be taken up and discussed.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE

BIBLE STUDY ON WHAT DOETH JEHOVAH REQUIRE? Matthew 7:24-29—March 29.

"What doeth Jehovah require of thee, but to do justly and to love kindness, and to seek humbly with thy God?"—Micah 6:8.

JESUS sought to impress upon His hearers that it was not sufficient to hear that a Kingdom of God was coming to bring blessings to the world, and that a Kingdom class was being called to be Messiah's joint-heirs in that Kingdom. Action would be necessary on their part if they would attain this high privilege which God had granted them.

Jesus gave an illustration, saying that those who heard His Message and obeyed it would be like a wise man who built upon the rock, where rains would not wash away the foundation. The storms of life and the great crisis, death, are sure to come. And if at these trials there will be calmness, security and confidence for such as have accepted the Lord's arrangement and have walked to the best of their ability in Jesus' footsteps.

"Other Foundation Can No Man Lay." On the other hand, Jesus intimated that many who heard His words and expressed great appreciation of them, would fail to take the proper steps to attain the glorious Kingdom privileges which He presented. They would allow custom, habit, love of pleasure, love of ease, the spirit of the world, to hinder them, from making full devotion of themselves to God. Such did not build their faith upon the proper foundation.

Perhaps some built upon the Law, and thought to commend themselves to God by their own endeavors, without the imputation of Christ's merit. Such would be greatly mistaken. Other foundation can no man lay than that which God has laid—Jesus Christ. His death is our redemption-price; and His appearance in glory as our Advocate is to make good our unintentional shortcomings.

With all such, the day of trial will surely come; and their faith structure, being without proper foundation, will give way. They will suffer loss of all their hopes. This, however, does not signify, as many once supposed, that they will go to eternal torment. Evidently nearly all Christians, misled by the creeds of the Dark Ages, have read into God's Word things which it does not contain.

Compare St. Paul's Parable. The Apostle Paul used a similar illustration. Those building upon that foundation with the gold, silver and precious stones of Divine Truth—developing faith and character in harmony with the Divine requirements—will suffer no loss in the great trial day at the end of this Age. But others who build with the wood, hay and stubble of human tradition and self conceit, will have their entire faith structure consumed.—1 Corinthians 3:10-15.

Nevertheless the Apostle tells us that even these, if they have built upon Christ, will themselves be saved, yet so as by fire. They will be what is termed a tribulation class, described in Revelation 7:14-17. The class building with gold, silver and precious stones, will be a Little Flock, a Royal Priesthood.

The class building upon the Rock without proper materials will be the Great Company, the antitype of the Levites. They will serve God through the begetting of the Holy Spirit.

"The People Were Astonished." No wonder the people were astonished at such doctrines as Jesus set forth! His teachings had a positiveness quite different from the speculations and wonderings of the scribes and Pharisees. So it is always with the Truth. Wherever there is confusion and mystery, we may be sure that there is error and ignorance. Hence the necessity that all who preach Christ should have the anointing, or ordination to preach, which God alone gives through the begetting of the Holy Spirit.

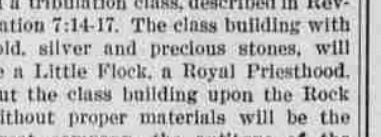

Our Golden Text. The Prophet Micah addressed our Golden Text to the people of Israel, and therefore his message was given from the standpoint of the Law. Nevertheless no Jew ever fulfilled the Law except Jesus, because all except Him were fallen and imperfect. He alone was "holy, harmless, undefiled and separate from sinners."

During Messiah's Millennial Kingdom, this same Law given to Israel through Moses will be given to the whole world of mankind through Messiah. The requirements will be to do justly, to love kindness, to walk humbly with God. The reason why Messiah's ministrations of this Law will be a success, while Moses' ministrations were a failure so far as bringing any one to perfection was concerned, is that Messiah's Kingdom will be fully prepared and authorized to forgive sinners and to help them back to the image and likeness of God, originally represented in Father Adam. The right to thus forgive sin and lift the sinner out of degradation, belongs to Messiah, by virtue of His sacrifice.

HOW CHILDREN GROW

Children grow by nourishment—not overloaded stomachs or rich foods but qualities that are readily converted into life-sustaining blood; too often their digestive powers cannot procure these quantities from ordinary foods which results in weakness, dullness and sickness.

If your children are under-size, underweight, catch cold easily, are languid, backward, pale or frail, give them Scott's Emulsion which is pure medicinal nourishment. It sharpens the appetite, builds healthy flesh, firm muscles and active brains. Scott's is growing-foot food for children. Refuse alcoholic substitutes.

"Saved So as by Fire."

No use to fuss and try to wear it out. It will wear you out instead. Take Dr. King's New Discovery, relief follows quickly. It checks your cold and soothes your cough away. Pleasant, Antiseptic and Healing. Children like it. Get a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and keep it in the house. "Our family Cough and Cold Doctor" writes Lewis Chamberlain, Manchester, Ohio. Money back if not satisfied, but it nearly always helps.
