VIOLA

Viola was well represented in Oregon City on Booster day, and all reported a good time. Some of them wondered where all the people came from.

J. Randolph spent last week in Portland looking after his property there.

A band of sheep have done quite a bit of damage here lately. The only way to keep them out of grain and gardens is to build a screen fence.

Wm. Heinbothem and family, and James and Wayne Craft, went to Portland on Monday.

Frank Gibb went to Portland to work Tuesday.

Frank Cummin and J. Sevier were in Oregon City on Tuesday.

Mr. Brash was out in Viola again lately, looking after his interests.

Well, we would like to see the sunshine again. The rain is spoiling the strawberry crop and the roads are bad to travel in the mud.

Tom Jubb has been papering the church here, which improves the looks of it very much. He may also do some painting on the inside of the church.

Tom Eaden is a busy man, as he makes a trip through the country buying eggs, and chickens, landing up in Portland the first of every week. On Fridays he goes to Oregon City. He is a jolly merchant, and is well liked by all of us.

We will soon have our young people at home again—those who have been attending the Estacada High School. They are Laura Cockerline, Lena and Janet Graham, Esther Myers and Worth Randolph.

Our school will close on Friday with a program and a dinner. We expect to have Miss Woodie back again in the fall to teach, which pleases the scholars and parents, as she is a splendid teacher.

CHERRYVILLE

And the next day it rained!

Two weeks of falling weather has surely soaked up the ground in good shape.

Over 1,000,000 steelhead salmon eggs have been taken at this dam this spring and artificially hatched. After the fish are a couple of inches long they are taken to the feeding ponds at Bull Run, where they are kept until fall, when they are released and make their journey to the ocean and return, so it is said, when four years old.

It must have been an edifying spectacle to see old Joe Cannon dance the Highland Fling at the San Francisco exposition lately. Uncle Joe may be a high kicker, but he never can jump as high in a thousand years as he helped boost the high tariff under the iniquitous Payne-Aldrich tariff law.

Edison says that in a hundred years the poorest person will enjoy luxuries and comforts now unknown to many of the rich and well-to-do. It's a long way to Tipperary, Mr. Edison!

Ted and Harry Moore returned home lately after a season of toil on a ranch near Molalla. They say the outlook for crops all kinds there is good.

Claude Woodie, the deputy assessor from Estacada, was in town lately and says the prospect for a good crop of fruit is the best in the past three years.

LOGAN

We got wet weather by continued washing and we will have to try watchful waiting for dry weather again.

The recent Lower Loga school entertainment was very successful, owing to the hard work of the many interested in making it go.

Our May cherries are a good crop and very early this year.

There is a poor prospect for a clover crop, probably on account of poor start last year; but maybe the worms have something to do with it.

Grain and potatoes ought to do well from present prospects.

Several Logan people attended the Grange picnic at Eagle Creek last Saturday, and enjoyed a fine program, having a good time in general.

Children's Day picnic, base ball and other games, a good program and a dinner to eat in the park if you bring it, on June 5th.

Rainy Sundays are discouraging to base ball fans and the games have to be called off. Logan's developing a good team again.

Clear Creek Creamery Co., received during April, 138,844 pounds of cream; 45,621 pounds butter fat, amounting to $12,321.36. The amount of butter made was 56,404 pounds, valued at $14,512.16. There seems to be some business back of those figures and new cream routes have to be refused though the capacity of the plant has been recently increased.

HIGHLAND

A. Coop was an Oregon City visitor Saturday.

Mrs. J. Cash, of Beaver Creek, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. Simms.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanhard spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rutherford gave a party at their home Thursday night, about twenty-five young people being present. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. M. Cramer and Mrs. C. C. Kandle visited last Thursday with Mrs. F. Grossmiller at Shubel.

Mrs. J. Wallace went to Oregon City Saturday to visit her sister, Miss Tillie Martin, who has been quite ill.

Thelma Simms visited last week with her aunt, Mrs. Cash, at Beaver Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kandle spent Monday and Tuesday at the Mountain Ranch looking after their cattle.

TWILIGHT

Continued showers greatly inspire the growth of vegetation, especially weeds.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Dadds entertained Portland friends over the Sabbath.

Booster Day claimed a large percentage of our inhabitants, many of them accompanied by a lunch basket.

A beetle of some sort is proving an injury to clover fields and such plant life as cabbage, kale and cauliflower, by stripping their roots of its small fibers so essential to a vigorous growth.

J. M. Jack exhibited Duroc Jerseys and Wm. Mc Cord represented our Jersey breeders at the Booster Day stock sale and show.

How easy it is to offer advice, not practiced by the expounder. Look around you and you will find a host of them.

B. L. Harvey spent Saturday and Sunday with Portland friends.

Von Jensen won the suit brought against him in Justice Siever's court by the horse trader, Case, in which an old span of grays were unloaded on the former at a good round price, and which proved their worthlessness at their first hitching.

Mr. and Mrs. Yeoman have exchanged their five acre home for residence property in Lents, and will soon remove to their former home in Olympia.

Keep your mouth shut! Seventy-two new dentists were recently released from the North Pacific Dental College.

Hood River strawberries on the Portland market sell at $2.00 and $2.25 a crate, while Willamette Valley berries go begging at a dollar. Query, what's in a name? Answer, $1.25.

The five-acre English walnut orchard set out recently by W. A. Snook is making a very gratifying growth.

The good book says that our Creator made all things that were made, yet when it comes to beetles, fleas and Johnson grass we find practitioners of that faith asserting the handiwork of Satan.

Miss Florence Weisenbeck is home from Portland for the summer.

The battle with water pulled off Booster Day indicated to the observers the need of more pressure.

EAGLE CREEK

M. C. Glover and wife attended the State Grange, which convened recently at Tillamook.

S. J. Eddy and wife, of Portland, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. Gibson Saturday and Sunday.

Eagle Creek Grange met last Wednesday, held a short meeting, and cleaned up the hall and grounds, preparing for the picnic, which occurred on Saturday.

There was a large crowd out to the picnic, though if there had been promise of more sunshine, there probably would have been a much larger attendance. A short but entertaining program was rendered. C. E. Spence, State Master, was present and gave an interesting address on grange work. C. Aue, of Springfield, rendered several vocal selections, which were much enjoyed. Music was furnished by the Garfield band. Altogether a pleasant day was spent, notwithstanding the shower that came in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass made a trip to Barton Sunday.

Ray Woodie and wife were the guests of Malcolm Woodie and wife, of Troutdale, Sunday.

Mrs. Viola Douglass, having quit working for Mrs. Howlett, the latter now has Mrs. Keith staying with her.

EAST CLACKAMAS

J. W. Bennett and son, Raymond, returned last week from a trip thru Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Hilmine, John Hilmine, and wife were visitors of J. Enghouse last week.

John Heinrich is sporting a new buggy.

East Clackamas drew quite a few blue ribbons at the Booster Day celebration at Oregon City last Saturday. J. W. Bennett won on a single driving horse, and Frank Haberlach won three on pedigreed Holstein cattle.

The following people spent Sunday at Cedar Springs ranch: Walter Munderhenke, wife and daughter, Mrs. Heinrich and son, John; Mr. and Mrs. A. Heinrich, A. Dane, of Logan, Alex Dane, wife and son; J. W. Bennett and family; F. S. Weir, of Clyde, Wn.; M. S. Shearer and wife.

HOMEDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Blackburn are building a new house and reports are in circulation that they intend to warm it.

We regret to say that sneak thieves again visited the Robbins Reds. This is the fourth time that they have lost chickens. It is about time that officers of the Law were doing something in order to run down these offenders.

Chris Muralt, as Aisle to the marshal on Booster Day, at Oregon City, was undoubtedly more impressive than the Marshal.

Hats off to Maple Lane Grange! First prize again, also Johnnie Kunzman with 51 out-of-town people on his wagon, among them some very pretty girls.

Mr. Curtis is willing to wager that he will split more wood with three wedges than the much-advertised wood splitter.

Our community was signally honored by royalty on Booster Day when their majesties the King and Queen, boarded the train at Robins.

Mrs. Gwelum, of Carus, will entertain the Homedale Card Club next Saturday evening.

SANDY

The old Cooperative Supply Co. of Portland has been heard from again, and aired in the circuit court of Clackamas county when Henry Perrett of Sandy, was made defendant in a suit brought against him by the Western Farquhar Machinery Co., of Portland on a note obtained through fraud and misrepresentation by the Cooperative Supply Co.

Mr. Perrett is to be commended on the stand he took in fighting the case to a finish.

The jury of twelve men good and true, brought in a unanimous verdict for the defendant, Perrett.

The Farquhar Machinery Co., were represented by Hall & Leper of Portland. The operations of this Co-operative Supply Co. will be remembered by most people, more especially by the farmers and those who were taken in.

There are thousands of dollars' worth of these notes obtained in all parts of the state by people, who in some cases were advised by their bankers to go into it. The majority of the notes are not paid and they never should be as long as the maker of the note can fight it.

Our new Corporation Law will help eliminate a lot of these wild cat schemers.

The Merchants Bank of Portland at one time held six thousand dollars' ($6,000.00) worth of these notes for collection and were offering them for sixteen hundred dollars, ($1,600.00.)

LIBERAL

The heavy rains are doing some damage to heavy fall wheat as the ground is thoroughly soaked and it is falling. Strawberries are rotting, but the grass is growing. Corn is turning yellow in the fields; spring grain is growing fast, especially late sown varieties. Early cherries are ripening.

The sign painter was out from Canby and put on the finishing touches on Vick's new store.

Dudley Boyles, of Molalla, was a visitor Sunday last.

Quite a few farmers are enjoying new potatoes. They are getting up-to-date on early varieties and culture as well.

Dock Saylor and Purdy, of Canby, have opened a pool room and billiard hall in the old store building vacated by Vick, also a confectionery and ice cream parlor. Dock Saylor has charge at present.

The dance at Vick's hall next Saturday night promises to be a grand affair.

Mrs. Lowery, of Canby, is visiting friends for a few days.

Glen Makinster is in poor health, we are sorry to say. They brought him home from Portland Tuesday. The emery dust proved bad for him, as he worked in the Vaughn's Motor Factory in Portland.

Pierce Wright is painting inside work for Dock Saylor.

RAILROAD MAN DIES

George Barr Succumbs to Injuries Received from Torpedo

George D. Barr, for over 20 years in the employ of the Southern Pacific railroad as a bridge carpenter, died at Canby Sunday as the result of burns received when his clothing caught fire from the explosion of torpedoes in his pocket Sunday afternoon. How the torpedoes became discharged is a mystery, as Mr. Barr was lying unconscious beside the track with his clothes on fire when he was found by fellow workmen.

In spite of medical aid given him, Mr. Barr passed away after a night of intense suffering. The body will be sent to Oakland, Oregon, for burial. Mr. Barr was 53 years old and is survived by his widow and two children. He was a native of Oregon having been born in Douglas county.

LOCAL BUTTER BEST

Oregon City Creamery Gets High Score in O. A. C. Test

A lead of 3 1/4 points over the average from the best creameries in the state was obtained by the Oregon City Creamery in its entry of butter in a statewide test held by the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis this year, the local creamery being given a score of 95 1/2 points, the very highest awarded. The lowest score made by any creamery was 89 points, and the average was 92 points.

The showing of the Oregon City Creamery is proof positive of the richness and purity of its product, and shows it to be technically the finest butter manufactured in the state. Sanitary surroundings, care in manufacture, and the use of only the best cream obtainable is responsible for this record; and shows that the local creamery is in every way a credit to the community.
