og Historical Soc. 207 Second St. Portland, Ore

OREGON CITY COURIER

work as a carpnter's helper. He had but merely as a "quitter"-and every livd in Seattle for ten years, and Amercan hates a quitter.

there had taken up the "detective businss on his own hook." He said he had worked for a year and a hnlf in New York as a custom's inspector under "Chief Miller," of the U. S. Customs service, had "inspected smuggled goods," and had received $135 a month.)

Berkeley, Pendleton, Baker City, La- since, Grande, Boise, Chicago and other casually that he had played one or of Elieno, Oklahoma; Mrs. Luci Ostwo thousand games of pool in the burn, Colorado; Clifford Guynup, play each game.

Carl Wilson, Bradley's partner, purchase of liquor in the pool hall, parlors. only differed from Bradley in saying that the liquor purchased on May 16 was procured by Myers from "some place in the rear fo the pool hall.

On cross examination Wilson got an unexpected grilling at the hands was 24 because he believed that a man ted a felony. had to be of age to be a detective, 28 or 24.

cause his mother had come up from L. Garrett and Charles Nebo. Seaside and asked him to be a man.' He admitted that he had gambled in craps at divers occasions, and once when he had been present in a Seagoing on "had beat it when a raid this week. was made and stayed away three or four months." Asked if he was well thought of in his home town he said

(Continued on page 8)

Exit William Jennings Bryan.

MRS. GUYNUP PASSES

Well Known Woman Dies at Advanced Age at Home in County Seat

Linn trial Bradley said he had been home with the C. A. Nash family gold-mounted fountain pens for its and said executive sessions were all a Secret Service operative in New in Oregon City, died Thursday even- own use, and finding they had too right. York for a year and had received ing at the age of 70. Born in New many, they distributed the balance

Bradley said he quit the New York schooner to Oklahoma when still a of the aldermen. job because he wanted to come west, young woman, and later moved to had gone to Seattle, Seaside, Astoria, Colorado; coming to Oregon City 15 a certain city official tendered his closed doors," said Mr. Mettzner. Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, years ago and residing here ever resignation the alderman asked him to purchase liquor; and mentioned following children: Mrs. Ella Mann, they are making." pool hall, paying five cents a cue Oregon City; Mrs. Ida Thiuston, of reach it ?" for each game, and had taken from Canby; Sidney Guynup, of Wyoming; three and a half to five minutes to Milton Guynup, of Ohio; and Bert Guynup, of Mexico.

The funeral was held from the

SUIT FOR SLANDER

they wanted. Talks Too Much About Things

Alleging that J. M. Steward told "solid nine" stood pat. defense, who got the witness to ad- had poisoned two of his dogs, Harms mit that he had sworn falsely as to has filed suit for slander against his name, that it was not Carl Wil- Steward and asks $5000 damages, some secret history about the Oregon as he had testified in other cases, but dog, and that as Steward accused that he would be 19 in August of this bim of poisoning canines, he virtu-Brownell and Sievers are attorand that he had told Bradley he was neys for the plaintiff, and the case ity. They got the "evidence" they is generally regarded as an unusual went after, and they've had it now

J. W. Bryant, of Clackamas, was then to be afraid to use it? his home town of Seaside, had shot in the county seat during the week.

Dr. James B. Bullitt, of Washington D. C., secretary of the Navy League, was in the county seat during the week.

meeting was held in the chapel of an ter for the city attorney." Noble, dictator; Ed Brady, vice dic-

Attorney Gordon E. Hayes said he tator; George Limber, prelate; H. undertaking parlor, and at this one would like to discuss the matter with A. Shandy, treasurer; F. L. McGareporter lay in an exhibition coffin. the council, and suggested that the huey, secretary; Ben Eby, inner while another crouched in the darkness of the morgue. Then the coun- body go into committee of the whole. guard: Al Richardson, outter guard: cil gave up its secret meetings, and Councilman Templeton protested Frank Busch, C. A. Stuart and Charlagainst going into executive session es Baker, trustees, and Justin Lagebrazened things out in public. New York used to have a bird of over the matter, and suggested that son, George Young and Ed Reckner, members of the old house committee. a council in the days before its con- representatives of the press be presfor this work $150 a month, which Mr. Miller paid him through his own has been staying with her son, C. board of alderman. One year the board of alderman. One year the personal checques. (At the West Guynup, who has been making his board of alderman bought nine dozen papers being "in" on the discussion,

> "The only trouble with executive York, she migrated by prairie between the reporters and the friends sessions is that they leak," comment- let go on their recognizance, promised City Engineer Miller.

"What's the use of going behind Monday. It was also in New York that when "Bill Long cuts no ice, he hates to of the council, to whom a compro- til the time when the persons using why he was quitting, and he answer-Mrs. Guynup was an energetic, ed: "Well, to be honest with you, know how Councilman Cox would the Moose lodge by Attorney Gorcities, there "detecting people who kindly, capable woman and had many gentlemen, it's because I'm afraid to vote if he was here; let's go ahead don E. Hayes, the lodge, Mr. Noble violated the liquor laws." In the friends in this locality. She was a stay on the job any longer. I want course of further cross examination faithful wife, and was deeply re- to be honest. Every man has his making fun of us now; if a Chinaman ing, and for the time being Mr. Brady Portland since coming to Oregon City maining to mourn her loss are the awfully near my price in the offers portance has to be prosecuted, we go will be chosen at the next regular the taxes required by statute." ahead with it, but in this case where meeting of the lodge. The old house

"Well, why don't you stay till they seems to make a difference. Let's sign, and a new house committee, settle it." Councilman Andrews echoed the and Councilman Hackett and Long Tacoma used to have a glorious ouncil, too. They had a "solid nine" plea for immediate action. Council- was elected. By this action the there, and the "solid nine" used to man Hackett moved that the council Moose desire to show their good inmeet before council was called to go into committee of the whole, tentions, and it is believed that the gave similar testimony regarding the Holman and Randall undertaking order and map out what they would Councilman Templeton moved an new house committee will see that do, and then they'd go into council amendment, so that a representative the municipal ordinances are obeyed. session and do it. There nobody went to council meeting—they used of the press might be included. On the vote, which was a rising one, old officers of the lodge was determto attend the preliminary meetings Councilmen Andrews, Hackett, and ined upon by City Attorney Schuebel H. D. Harms Thinks J. M. Steward of the "solid nine" and ask for what VanAuken voted against having the after a week had been spent in conpress present, and Councilmen Tem- sideration of the matter. The city

The chief difference between the pleton, Metzner and Meyer voted for attorney felt that the fact that the of Gordon E. Hayes, attorney for the a group of listeners that H. D. Harms five" in Oregon City was that the Mayor Jones cast the deciding vote to violating the laws showed conclus-

Speaking of standing pat, here is press. son, that he was not 24 years of age Harms says it is a felony to kill a City bunch. Two members of the into the anteroom, and at 9.34 they should also be punished. "solid five" dug into their jeans a came out, when Mr. Hackett moved Action in the case alleged to have short time ago and put up a fund for that action by the council be held in been found against a local pool hall > dence that would help them defeat ture date. the plans of the leader of the minor-Mr. Hackett moved adjournment.

During the secret session the council talked the matter over as formerry he had sworn to a lie," and said Edward Gibson, Lewis Gibson, Frank since the papers have refused to suggested compromises. Incidentally be features added to the regular lee- raine Lee, Helen Luella Meten, Jo- pany of Artists. that he was then 'telling the truth be- Wann, D. C. Harms, John Harms, R. touch it they seem to have lost their the secret session was enlivened by a tures. The summer school faculty seph George Schauble, Leonard Emnerve. Isn't that fine business-to tilt between Councilman Metzner and include educators from Princeton, erald Buuman, Francis Edward Hus- Lucky Number" at 2 o'clock, Friday, > tacular, though bloodless. And now it just occurs to us that Case Is Set maybe the council didn't meet Wed-The damage suit brought against J. A. Cresswell, of Portland, was nesday because some of its members the county seat for the death of side pool hall where gambling was in Oregon City on business early wanted to go down to Portland and Mary Oliver, who was killed last see the Rose Festival. They had summer in a fall from the sidewalk land, was in Oregon City Tuesday on next to the Estacada garden it out- known reader and entertainer, will nothing to do here but attend to city on High street, has been set for June business, making the trip in his new business, anyway. 30. J. W. Shea, contractor, is a co- Ford automobile. defendant with the city in the case, Remember the Courier is only which is brought by David Oliver, the $1.00 per year if paid in advance. young woman's father.

The former officer of the lodge appeared before Recorder Loder on Monday and asked for time in which to arrange their pleadings, and were ing to appear for arraignment next vote one way or the other. We all mise had been offered on behalf of trading stamps are required to make which will be the first of March. he denied that he had ever sent to spected by all who knew her. Re- price, and certain people are getting or some other person of slight im- will fill the office. A new dictator the amount of their business and pay audience with his superior eloquence.

To keep faith with the members in the way of enforcing the law un- Man."

says:

And then one of the aldermen said: there are a lot of people involved, it committee was also permitted to re- by law, is five percent of the gross Magic," will entertain the Chautauconsisting of Mayor Linn E. Jones, operating.

ary program.

Summer School Begins June 28

buy something for a purpose, and Attorney Hayes that was quit spec- Stanford, Clark, Wisconsin and else- ton. where, and about 25 University of Oregon faculty members.

Mr. S. Brown, proprietor of the school in their rural school garden, Ruthven MacDonald. Brown's Hat & Cap Works of Port- and experts who have seen it say that

Remember the Courier is only principal, who worked up much en-$1.00 per year if paid in advance. thusiasm among the children.

ty, lectures at 8:15 on "The Spirit Firms Using Green Stickers or Other of the Rockies," Mr. Franzke also speaks on July 9th at 2:15 on, "The Matchless Book." According to a communication re-W. C. Buckner's Southern Jubilee ceived from Attorney General Brown. sextette, is undoubtedly the finest there is grief ahead for such firms organization of its kind in the world. as may continue the use of the Buckner's troop has been engaged by bothersome "trading stamps" or other trade premiums prohibited by the Chautauqua to appear on Satur-a law enacted in the last session of day and Sunday, July 10th and 11th. day and Sunday, July 10th and 11th. Bringing one of the most stirring the legislature. While there is no messages of the decade, Senator E. immediate trouble ahead for such shop-keepers as defy thelaw, there is J. Burkett, note Nebraska orator, a big bunch of grief ready to drop will address the Chautauquians on on users of stamps next year. Com- July 10th at 8:15, and on July 11th menting on this the attorney general at 8:00; his subjects will be "Government Ownership of Railroads," and "The New Woman and the Young > W. H. Head, who is touring all the Coast Chautauquas in the roll of platform manager, will speak on Monday, July 12th, at 2 o'clock. Mr. Head is a lecturer of considerable fame, and never fails to sway his At 8 o'clock the same day The Floyds, quians.

In addition to this, the trading stamp companies are also required to pay a heavy tax for the privilege of Credits." At 2 o'clock on the same day Newell Dwight Hillis, the pastor of the Trinity Church, of Brooklyn, will speak on "John Ruskin's Message to the Twentieth Century." Large Class Receives Diplomas from In the evening at 8 o'clock the celebrated Schumann Quintette will appear. This will be one of the great public school, held elaborate gradua- Mr. A. C. Zehner, one of the most ion exercises last week. Wayne forceful women lecturers of the 'solid nine'' in Tacoma and the "solid the press. This constituting a tie, seward of the lodge pleaded guilty Hampton delivered the salutatory, the country, is the speaker at 2 o'clock, class history was read by Anna Gil- July 14th, on "American Ideals." The and barred the representatives of the ively that some of the officers, at more, Lorraine Lee delivered the vale- Saxony Opera Singers will also apleast, were cognizant of what was dictory, nd the class prophecy was pear on this day, and in the even-At 8:30 p. m. the council ducked going on, and believed that they by Muriel Bissell. Incidentally there ing at 8 o'clock Hon. Nels Darling was plenty of music and a good liter- will give his famous community talk on "Our Town," Those receiving diplomas were: Clackamas County day will be celyear. He said he had sworn that he ally accused him of having commit- the purpose of getting certain evi- abeyance until some indefinite fu- is reported elsewhere in these col- Wayne Edward Hampton, Violette ebrated on Thursday, July 15th. The Irene Evans, Clyde William Kendall, greatest musical attraction ever Joseph Joy Anderson, Muriel Maud Bissell, Jck Jones, Fay Arthur Hein, brought to the coast will be cele-brated on this day-Ciricillo's Italian The 11th annual session of the Mildred Lulene Munson, Kenneth Band with a well known troupe of Asked what he thought of a man one. Harms says that those who for pretty nearly two months, but ly, and finally decided not to advise State University summer school will Louis Hornig, Eddie Arnold Thomp- six grand opera singers-who will who went on the stand and swore heard Steward make the statement they are scared to use it. That is, the city attorney in the matter one open June 28, and will end August 6. son, Elma Evelyn Russell, Mabel Ida monopolize the day, and it is probto falsehoods, he said he "believed about slaughtering dogs is composed it appears that they are scared, way or another, though the majority A conference of Oregon educators Gribble, Ernestine Mary Smith, Roy able that a crowd of five thousand any man had a right to make excep- of George R. Sweetser, P. O. Stacy, They paid for it, got it, tried to stood for favoring a prosecution of and a conference of Oregon ministers David Zimmerman, Eva Adney Whip- will turn out to witness the famous tions." He added that he was "sor- Cirence Collins, George Southerland, peddle it to the newspapers-and all the lodge officers, regardless of without regard to denomination, will ple, Anna Lee Gilmore, Martha Lor- Italian Band Master and his com-

> Eugene Baker will lecture on "The July 16th. In the evening of the same day Father P. J. MacCorry will Considerable success has been ob- give his noted lecture, "The Story tained by the children of Harmony Beautiful," assisted by Mr. and Mrs.

> Della Crowder Miller, the well classes any in the county. Much give "Ben Hur" at 2 o'clock on Satcredit for the garden is due to the urday, July 17th. At 7:80 on the efforts of Miss Elizabeth Wagner, same day the Gallotta Trio, will ap-

> > (Continued on page 8)

The class of 1915, of the Canby days of the Chautauqua.

their reports and pay their taxes,

Bribes Face Heavy Cost

"There is nothing to do, however,

1916. Then all persons using trading stamps will be required to report receipts of companies using them.

CANBY GRADUATES MANY

Superintendent J. E. Calavan

The trading stamp tax, as fixed of Boston, known as the "Kings of