VIOLA

Mrs. Frank Gibb left for Butler, Indiana, Sunday, after receiving a telegram that her mother was very ill. Mr. Gibb went as far as Portland with his wife.

Wiley May dies not improve very much. Mrs. Stevens is also very ill. Mrs. Welsh entertained last Friday afternoon.

LOGAN

This week will wind up the threshing business, and from present prospects without anybody caught in the rain.

Henry Babler has returned from Oak Grove, and is finishing some late work. The Cromer machine has finished here and Edwin Gerber is in the Gresham district with his new 60-horsepower gasoline engine.

EAGLE CREEK

H. H. Hoffmeister made a trip to Portland the first of the week. A. D. McMillan's mother is a guest at his home.

Mrs. Beverlin is spending her vacation at Seaside, Ore. John Lewellen has added a new porch to his residence.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

Mrs. Dora Shelly returned home after a three months' visit in Seattle, Washington. Grandma Badger came from Denver, Colo., where she expected to remain indefinitely, but the pleasant climate of Oregon was too tempting.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards have moved into the Glover property on Molalla Avenue. Thomas Parish and family have moved to Mrs. Brown's property on Duane street.

LIBERAL

J. R. Cole is winding up the threshing in this section.

The bright hit the spring oats so the yield was cut shorter than was expected. The last few days of hot weather has hurt the corn crop as the ears will not fill out. S. Wright has one row of broom corn for trial purposes, and it is fine. Nearly everyone that can get away has gone to the hop fields.

predominated. Grace said that she didn't suppose it could rain cats and dogs, in the dry season at least! Forest fires are raging up around Clackamas Lake and Shell Rock, about 20 miles from here.

their platform and principles, and the mastery administration of President Wilson has got them guessing. Talk about luxury these hot days! Suppose you were up in the cool, high hills by the side of a cold, running stream with mountain trout, fresh venison, grouse and huckleberries, etc.

Grass is short, but with a good shower it will soon revive. Hay baling is progressing rapidly. Wheat and oats are going down in price, and no sales of importance.

Ex-president Taft—chief of all standpatters—was in Portland lately, with the same "shenanigan grin" and the same cheap line of talk—nothing, however, about relieving the hard condition of the poor.

Millions of gold are being dumped on our shores now. One vessel alone buying $52,000,000 for food and munitions of war. Money, mountains high all over the land and none for the poor or to help business of an honorable kind.

Ernest Gerber is in the Oregon City Hospital, preparing for an operation for appendicitis.

The Washington Post—one of the most firm-fixed standpat organs in this country—in a late issue says that the end of the war will witness a complete upheaval of many existing conditions, and mourns at the loss of many time-honored traditions.

Mr. Trueblood was baling hay in this neighborhood again last week. Mrs. John Young, of Greenwood, visited her daughter, Mrs. Seth Fawc, one day recently.

Summer days are nearly gone. Some of these joy riders are getting all the dirt and dust coming to them.

The first deer of the season was killed by Carl Raithel up above Brightwood. It was a surprisingly big fat buck.

E. J. Brown, of La Grande, who owns a fine farm west of Molalla, was here last week looking after his interests.

Hugh Cutting has returned from eastern Oregon, where he has been spending the summer. Mrs. Adah Rauscher and her daughter, Rozella, of Silverton, are visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Herman.

line of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company to wear silk stockings in order to "look well" when they ride on the cars.

FUSS OVER RANGE

George White, formerly a reporter on the Oregonian, and later "Sunday supplement editor" of that glorious sheet, and since the election of Governor Withycombe adjutant general of the state militia, breaks into print this week in the Oregonian with a "kick" against the government investigation of shortcomings that he alleges in former Adjutant General Finzer's management of affairs of the Clackamas rifle range.

All this because the Public Service Commission has ordered the street car company to lower the steps on the Oregon City cars, so that the bottom step shall not be more than 16 1/2 inches above the level of the rail.

Overworked, weak or diseased kidneys will often make a man or woman feel old before middle age. Rheumatism, aches and pains in back, puffiness under eyes, stiff joints and sore muscles, biliousness, headache and various other symptoms need help. Foley Kidney Pills bring a sound, healthy condition and help the kidneys eliminate uric acid and other poisons from the system, which, when permitted to remain, cause dangerous disease.—Jones Drug Co.

This means that gymnastics will no longer be necessary to get one upon the cars of the interurban line, and that with the full skirts that are now in vogue, any "perfect lady" can board a car for Portland without having to worry about what she has on.

His Rest was Broken O. D. Wright, Rosemont, Neb., writes: "For about six months I was bothered with shooting and continual pains in the region of my kidneys. My rest was broken nearly every night by frequent action of my kidneys. I was advised by my doctor to try Foley Kidney Pills and one 50 cent bottle made a well man of me. I can always recommend Foley Kidney Pills, for I know they are good." This splendid remedy for backache, rheumatism, sore muscles and swollen joints contains no habit forming drugs.—Jones Drug Co.
