for the sole care and custody of Young Men of the West Should be Given Recognition Here

The policy of "sending East" for men to fill responsible positions in the West is being scored once again-this the County of Clackamas, State of time as an aftermath of the appointment of an eastern man to fill a public position in Spokane. It is pointed out that the West has grown out of its swaddling clothes, and that it has developed many citizens who have all the qualifications necessary for executive leadership. To continue to "send East" for a man to take Attorney for Plaintiff, Portland, charge of any public enterprise is a direct slap at Western talent, and is also discouraging to the young men of this section.

Commenting on the "sending East" habit, the Spokesman-Review, Spokane, quotes Dr. H. E. Rhodehamel in part as follows:
