

The Winners

OUT in San Francisco at the great International Exposition, where the choicest products of every country were exhibited for award, Pyralin and Big Ben pulled down the highest honors in their respective classes.

They won on their merit—they were judged the best after being put to every test.

Pyralin ivory is the ideal toilet ware. The dainty cream-white of Pyralin blends in beautifully with any color combination, and makes it especially desirable for gifts when the giver does not know the room decorations.

Better drop in and let us show you what an extensive line of Pyralin we carry. We'll also demonstrate Big Ben if you say so.

Obituaries

Miss Lida Erickson, 18 years of age, died Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Erickson, in Falls View, Oregon City. Miss Erickson was born in Michigan, but came west with her parents when yet a young child, and has been a resident of Clackamas county for the past 11 years. The funeral was held at the Methodist church on Wednesday, with the Rev. John O'Connell, of Portland, officiating.

Mrs. E. M. Lockhart Formerly well known in Oregon City, where during pioneer days she was prominent in social affairs, Mrs. Esther M. Lockhart died Tuesday at her home at Marshfield. She was the first white woman to settle in Coos county, moving there from Oregon City with her husband. On her way West in pioneer days Mrs. Lockhart drove a team of oxen over the old Oregon trail, and en route saw many brushes between the immigrants and the Indians. After living in Oregon City for a short time she moved first to Roseburg and later to Coos Bay. Four children survive her, two in Marshfield, one in Oakland and one in California.

Portland Concern Opens Local Office with G. J. Hall in Charge The Portland Gas & Coke company's business in the county seat and in the smaller towns along the line of the interurban has increased so greatly during the past winter that a branch office has been opened in the county seat, at 718 Main street. George J. Hall, former manager of the Pacific Telephone company in Oregon City, has been placed in charge; and henceforth all local business, bill collections and new contracts will be handled from the Oregon City office.

The office will be executive headquarters for the Clackamas county division of the gas company. Mr. Hall's headquarters will be in the front part of the building occupied by the justice court, and the location is central and convenient.

"Sometimes only a few minutes after going to bed, I would have to get up, and I tried everything I heard of for the trouble. Finally I tried Foley Kidney Pills and after taking one bottle I believe I am entirely cured, and I sleep soundly all night." ### Saturday Shopping Hints for Home Shoppers

Readers of the Courier will find a varied assortment of bargains from which to choose in this week's advertisements. Wise shoppers will discover that it pays to read every line of each advertisement, for there are many good and timely chances to economize hidden away in the announcements of the merchants. And remember, when you note the good things offered, that by buying in your home store you can help the general prosperity of your town.

Adams department store is making a special showing of the well known Palmer garments this week, and every woman who is downtown shopping on Saturday or later should examine them. Spring styles and colors predominate.

Special bargains in mattresses—as well as a fine array of household goods—are offered by Frank Busch this week. A new mattress will make you sleep better, and the reduced prices will afford a fine opportunity to fit up the bed in the spare chamber.

At George W. Buck's new store near the elevator will be found a line of eye-openers in ivory enameled bedsteads that sell from $1.25 to $3. These beds are worth seven dollars and up, and ought to appeal to wise buyers.

Huntley Brothers are offering formaldehyde in safe and handy form for use as a fungicide with seed, grain and potatoes. There is nothing like prevention of pests with growing crops, and a little formaldehyde used now will be found worth far more than any amount of fight against pests later on.

Burmeister & Andresen are boosting Big Ben clocks and watches this week—the clocks guaranteed to get fishermen out early enough in the morning so that the "big ones" can be caught; and the watches being fine time-keepers.

MEMORIAL DAY PLANS

Civil War Veterans Appoint Committee to Arrange Details

Members of Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R. have appointed a committee consisting of Frank Moore, A. J. Roman, E. B. Grant, A. J. Sawyer, H. L. Hull, G. K. Harding and H. S. Clyde to arrange for the appropriate celebration of Memorial day this year, and tentative plans for the day have already been adopted. M. L. Pratt, of Portland, has been selected as orator of the day; and the Rev. T. J. Williams, of St. Paul's church has been selected to deliver the address at Mountain View cemetery.

According to preliminary plans, members of the post and of the Women's Relief Corps, will on Memorial day march in a body to the high school, headed by the Beach Boys' band. The Barclay school students will be escorted to Willamette hall, where they will then be conducted on the suspension bridge, where flowers will be scattered on the waters of the Willamette in memory of the sailor dead.

Exercises following those at the Willamette hall will probably be held in the new auditorium of the Oregon City high school, which seats 500 people. At Mountain View cemetery graves of the departed soldiers will be decorated.

HURT IN RUNAWAY

Beaver Creek Man and Friends Have Exciting Time on Hill

George Lammers, owner of the Beaver Creek mill, accompanied by his son Eugene and Miss Martha Eggenmann, a high school student, were victims of a runaway accident on the Seventh street hill Friday afternoon that came near being a very serious affair. The team which Mr. Lammers was driving became frightened at the top of Singer Hill, and bolted as far as Shively's hall before it was stopped.

Miss Eggenmann and Eugene Lammers were thrown from the carriage, but Mr. Lammers hung on to the reins until the team was brought to a standstill, and was seriously cut about the scalp. The other occupants of the vehicle were badly bruised and shaken up. Mr. Lammers and Miss Eggenmann were taken to the home of Fred McCausland, where they were given treatment by Dr. Guy Mount—several stitches being needed to close the wound in Mr. Lammers's scalp.

WIND DOES DAMAGE

Sunday Afternoon Gale is One of More than Usual Violence

Between half past five and six o'clock Sunday afternoon a "tempest" swept over the lower Willamette valley, accompanied by thunder and lightning, and did considerable damage in the western part of the county. The most spectacular freak of the storm occurred at the Hull avenue station of the interurban line, near Meldrum. Here the wind swept down a tall fir, which fell across the power and trolley wires, tearing both down, and putting the interurban out of commission for an hour and a half. The crews of five trains that were stalled at the block got out and chopped the tree away before a line-car crew arrived from Portland.

The gale also blew down signs and fences at Jennings Lodge, demolished a number of small trees in the neighborhood, and the torrents of rain that fell washed out roads and fields. Lightning struck in several places in the uplands; and in the Clackamas station district a number of barns were unroofed.

THE FASHIONS

If all predictions prove true the coming summer should be a most economical one for the family with daughters. Fashion says: "Sport clothes from dawn till dusk, and after dark, as simple or as elaborate an evening gown as fancy demands." Besides being decidedly practical and money-saving, this regime should be comforting and comfortable to a degree; just stop for a moment and consider how many puzzled moments will be saved, and how many times one will be spared that eternal question, "what shall I wear to-day?" A good supply of smart linen blouses, a sport skirt or two, with a chic sport coat and one's wardrobe troubles are solved during daylight hours; after, it is a simple matter to select a dainty dance or dinner dress of net, or one of the exquisite summer fabrics now in favor, and don it in perfect peace.

One must wonder at the sudden enthusiasm for out-of-door sports being shown by the American girl this season; we have been gradually coming to it, but this year it looks as if we were one and all to take up sport for all that it is worth, or at least to look as if we adored tennis, golf, boating, swimming, and the numberless other excuses for getting out-of-doors.

Some Charming Effects

We have been gradually accustoming ourselves to the vivid reds, yellows, greens, and the various startling plaids and stripes which blend so effectively and harmoniously with the blue skies, and green grass of the summer fields, the mountains and the shore, where some of us are fortunate enough to dream the summer through, and others are privileged to spend a playtime week or two.

Among the smartest of the new sport suits are many of silk jersey, or, as it is perhaps more generally known, Italian silk. These suits are often made with coat of a plain color, emerald green, for instance, worn with a smart, short skirt of black and white stripes. White or cream serge, too, is a favorite, combined with coat of scarlet, emerald, or bright blue. The coat is usually cuffed, collared and belted with the material of the skirt. Sometimes one sees a coat of stripes with skirt of plain material. The silk jersey coats and sport coats of other materials will be worn with all types of frock this summer; for in spite of the popularity of the plain blouse and skirt, there are any number of attractive tub frocks being shown just now, and I am quite sure that they will be worn quite as much as in seasons past, more perhaps, as

Muffins

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

When muffins are on the breakfast table, nobody cares for meat or eggs and they would be served more often if this meal were not prepared so hurriedly that there is no time to make them. If K. C. the double-race baking powder is used, the batter may be stirred up the night before, put in the pan ready for baking and nothing to do in the morning but bake them.

One-Egg Muffins

2 cups flour; 2 slightly rounded teaspoonfuls K. C. Baking Powder; 1 teaspoonful salt; 1 cup sugar; 2 cup melted butter or lard; 1 egg; 1 cup water or milk. Sift dry ingredients together three times. Add to this the unbeaten egg, melted shortening and water or milk. Then beat all together until perfectly smooth. Oil muffin or gem pans and have oven slow until the muffins come to the top of the pan, then increase the heat to bake. This recipe makes 12 large muffins. Raisins or currants may be added if desired.

Graham Muffins

1 cup graham flour; 1 cup pastry flour; 2 level teaspoonfuls K. C. Baking Powder; 1 to 2 level tablespoonfuls sugar; 2 teaspoonful salt; 1 egg; 1 cup milk or water; 2 to 3 tablespoonfuls melted butter; mix and bake as One-Egg Muffins. Graham batter should always be quite soft to insure light and moist muffins. To get 38 other recipes as good as these, send us the certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K. C. Baking Powder, and we will send you "The Cook's Book" by Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill. Handsomely illustrated. Jaques Mfg. Co., Chicago.

they are more fascinating than for many a year. This is another practical and economical notion.

Charming Sport Blouse Simplicity of cut, combined with the daintiest possible of linen, voile, organdy, or tub silk is the recipe for the most popular of the summer blouses, to wear with tailored suit, sport coat, or separate skirt. One of the prettiest I have seen this season was fashioned of a pale pink figured batiste having deep cuffs and sailor collar of white. It was made with open throat and was closed down the front with a white silk cord slipped under a tab on either side of the blouse. The colored lawn and organdy blouse is growing in favor, in fact the colored waist seems to be taking preference over the plain white waist to a marked degree. There is something particularly pleasing about a softly tinted blouse of crepe de Chine,orgette, or one of the new wash fabrics, combined with a tailored suit, that makes its appeal to all. Strictly tailored linen waists of white for morning or sports wear are unusually smart and much in vogue, but for the tailored suit and more dressy wear, the tinted blouse is the favorite. There are any number of attractive middie blouses for all sorts of summer daytime wear. Oftentimes these are made of the same material and color as the skirt, thereby forming a complete costume, and again they are of a contrasting color and material to wear with various skirts.

Attractive Hats

In compliance with Fashion's decree, that sport clothing be supremely favored, the hat shops are putting forth many attractive, severe little hats which may be appropriately worn with either tailored or sport suit. Many of these are hand-made fabric hats with just a bit of ribbon, a bow or ornament, by way of trimming. Some chic models of cretonne and others in ratine in soft colorings are essentially sport hats, but the plain henns, Milans and hand-sewn hats of braid may be worn with either tailored suit or sport costume. Angora braid is one of the most effective of the new braids, in white or a soft color, combined with hemp or Milan. The shiny braids are much in vogue for early tailored wear, in black or colors, trimmed with flowers or ribbon. Patent leather and varnished foliage is most effective for trimming these glazed hats.

Formaldehyde

For SEED, GRAIN and POTATOES

The cost of using formaldehyde as a germicide and fungicide for wheat and oats is so very small compared with the results obtained that every farmer should use it. 1 pint of formaldehyde, costing 50c will make a proper solution of 40 to 50 gallons. This will treat 40 to 50 bushels of wheat and insure freedom from smut.

For Potato Scab and Black-Leg, use one pint formaldehyde to 30 gallons of water. The potatoes should be soaked 2 hours in this solution.

Other uses of formaldehyde in the garden, and about the house as a disinfectant, are fully explained in a 30-page book, a copy of which we will gladly give to our customers as long as they last.

Pure Formaldehyde, 50c per pint, 90c per quart.

EDITOR TAYLOR TALKS

People at Clarkes Hear Interesting Talk on Feeding of Swine

Editor G. J. Taylor, of the Molalla Pioneer, was the "head liner" at the meeting of the Clarkes community club last Sunday, giving a most instructive talk on "Feeding Pigs."

Members of the Pioneer Quartette also sang, and there were informal talks and discussions that added to the success of the meeting.

Next Sunday George C. Brownell will be the principal speaker at the gathering, and will have for his subject: "Can a man be a Christian under the profit system?"

It is odd that the Oregonian formerly yelled for intervention in Mexico, and now that American troops are marching into the torn republic to the South it is howling about the way they are doing it.
