Autographic Kodak

At the time you "click" the shutter you know the Who? When? Why? or How? of a picture, but later—

Make sure. The Autographic Kodak enables you to write it on the film at the time you are in possession of all the facts.

The Autographic record may include valuable data or interesting information—always it will contain something that will add immeasurably to the point of the picture in the years to come.

We have a complete line of Autographic Kodaks.

Conserve Your Vision

When your eyes smart and burn in the sun or strong artificial light, it is nature's warning of Eye-strain.

Slightly colored glasses subdue the light and cut off the most injurious rays of the sun. I grind your correction in any color. The ones most satisfactory are: Amethyst, Amber, Chlorophyll and the new Crookes glass.

Come in and see me; you will be under no obligation.

Church Notes

First M. E. Church

Not in the memory of the oldest residents of Oregon City has there been a revival meeting of such long duration as that now on at the First Methodist Episcopal church. The special gospel effort was begun with a Watch Night service New Year's eve, and with the exception of one Saturday night a service has been held every night. No time has been fixed for the series to close, for the interest is growing and the results are most gratifying. The pastor is a firm believer in harnessing the spiritual energy generated by such a movement to practical undertakings. Twenty men will dine together at the close of morning service next Sunday, and at the conclusion of the meal will go out in groups of two, making an "every member visitation" to homes in the interest of promoting the world program of the church.

The following Sunday a men's Christian workers conference will be held for the organization of gospel teams, which will spread the "Glad Tidings" in school houses and at street meetings.

Every department of the work is alive and growing. Three great services with special music are being planned for Sunday, and a special effort will be made to welcome visitors and strangers.

Fierce Mustachios Failed to Get Youth of 17 into Marine Corps

When a false mustache, with five bristling points, worked loose on the upper lip of John Homer, an applicant for enlistment at the Houston United States Marine Corps recruiting station, it was discovered that Homer was a runaway 17 years of age, and had hit upon the mustache disguise to add age and dignity to his appearance.

But "cruel" Sergeant Robinson of the Marines shattered the boy's romance with the announcement that he'd have to wait until he was 21, or else get parents' consent, and now young Homer is inclined to the belief that there is little efficacy in the borrowed movie plot when applied to life's stern realities.

"I'll come back some day with a real mustache of my own and then you'll be glad to accept me as one of Uncle Sam's brave Marines," were Homer's parting words.
