on one thing, if on no other. They all prohibit the sale of alum baking powders.

There must be a good reason for this. It is because alum was found to be unhealthful.

Royal Baking Powder is made of cream of tartar, derived from grapes, a natural food product, and contains no alum nor other questionable ingredients.

HAZELIA

C. C. Borland, Chas. Larson, J. Fiala and J. Johnson, sold a carload of potatoes Friday and Saturday.

Orville Davidson was a business visitor in Oswego Friday.

The mock trial given by the Hazelia Literary and Debating Society Saturday evening, was well attended and all report an enjoyable time. The society will meet again in the near future, and have a literary program, followed by a debate. Miss Blanche Duncan and D. Long will be leaders.

The Rev. Mr. Coleman was a luncheon guest at the Childs' home Saturday evening.

Richard Ziney was an Oswego visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Boutz were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Borland Sunday.

Master Loring Thomas is quite ill with logrippe.

Mrs. H. F. Duncan transacted business in Oswego Friday.

Mrs. S. S. Boutz was in Portland Friday having dental work done.

Last Tuesday a couple of fellows were coming home from Hazelia when they lost control over their Ford and it turned over on them. Neither one was hurt. They just set it back and the little Ford chugged right along.

Theodore Steinhiller, one of Hazelia's most progressive farmers, was busy seeding oats last week.

When this great war is over the rich will be richer, the poor will be poorer, and those that are neither will be about the same.

A. Nelson was an Oswego visitor Friday.

Little Emil Ziney, who has been ill, is much improved at this writing.

Mr. Jim Finn was a social, as well as a business visitor, at several places in Hazelia Saturday.

Mrs. Richard Ziney and little daughter, Helen, were visitors at the F. Hultberg home Wednesday.

Thomas Steinhiller sold several fine dairy cows last week.

Mrs. Frank Childs was a dinner guest of her sister's, Mrs. Fred Lehman, Sunday.

Everybody came to the Easter exercises to be given by the Hazelia Sunday School.

Friday, April 21st, the Hazelia school closes. There will be an all-day picnic on the grounds. Everyone cordially invited to come, and remember to bring well filled lunch baskets.

Miss Imogen Jewell taught school Saturday to make up a day missed.

Andrew Neal, of Oswego, was working at this place last week.

George Nagles' new barn is rapidly nearing completion.

A. P. Mumber was canvassing this neighborhood with Ward's medicine recently.

BEAVER CREEK

Mrs. Olive Dunkin and sister, Miss Bella Davis of Portland, spent last week as the guests of W. F. Harris and family.

Mrs. O. H. Hughes, Alena and Emot Hughes, Ora Martin, Ellen Santesson and Walter Hehu, of Highland, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hughes Sunday.

Miss Blodwen Thomas, who is working in Portland, called on relatives and friends Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Thomas were hosts at a "500" party at their home Thursday evening. A dainty lunch was served later. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. W. Herman, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hughes, Mrs. Dan Martin, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Force, Master George Force, and Ivan Thomas, Miss M. Lewis, Coxie Thomas, W. Martin and Mr. and Mrs. W. Thomas.

Mrs. Inez Larkins and baby Dorothy, and Miss Mary Snodgrass, of Mulino, visited with their sister, Mrs. W. D. Herman, Saturday and Sunday.

In honor of Miss Elizabeth Watts' seventeenth birthday anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harris entertained with a surprise party at their home Tuesday evening. The time was made merry with various games and music. Refreshments were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. R. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. B. Santesson, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harris, Mrs. Olive Dunkin, Misses Bella Davis, Minnie Blum, Irene Henri, Jennie Jones, Arleta Harris, Rose, Violet and Elizabeth (Watts), Bertha and Amelia Egginann, Anna and Mary Bonsall; Messrs. Will Egginann, Fred Blum, Lloyd Henri, Willamette, David and Price Harris, Harry, Will and Arvon Parry, and Mrs. Harry Watts.

A large and appreciative audience enjoyed the band concert and entertainment at Beaver Creek Hall Saturday.

The pioneer quartet, Messrs. Milton Miller, "Hub" Stone, Ben and Herman Chingren, gave several selections and responded to numerous encores.

G. Taylor, of Molalla, gave a monologue, "Dad," which was exceptionally well rendered. The boys taking part in the band concert were: Albert Waggoner, Arnold Fischer, Ray Barney, Tommy and Winfield Parry, Bernard Berg, Ivan Menke, Alvin Heft, Walter Hehn, Arthur Lindsay, Lloyd Henri, Will and Arvon Madsen, Claude and Walter Henri, Will and Griff Roberts and Richard Bolander, Paul Prager, director. Much improvement in the playing of the boys was noticed by those who had heard the first concert they gave.

CHERRYVILLE

April weather, all right! Buds, blossoms and blossoms appear on every hand.

Although Easter is so very late, the season seems to be advancing rapidly. Mrs. J. H. Averill went to Logan last week to visit her daughter, Mrs. George Eaden, and expects to be gone until Good Friday.

The shingle mill here lately received an order for 400,000 shingles. The party who ordered them said they were the best shingles he ever saw and that he would take a million of them if they could get them out.

There are millions of feet of cedar logs and stumps lying on this railroad line in every direction, awaiting converting into cedar chests, coffins, shingles, sashes and doors; and they have been there, held out of use and doing no one any good, for 40 years, thanks—or rather, no thanks—to the corporations and the railroad lawyers, who have been sent to Congress and the Legislature to misrepresent us.

Mr. M. Keckinzie, of Portland, was in town recently and he and two of his friends think strongly of building three bungalows this season, out near Alder Creek, where Mr. Keckinzie owns over 200 acres of land. This is an ideal situation and camping outfits locate there every season.

Mrs. Viola Freil returned from visiting her sister at Bridal Veil lately, and says that on the Sunday she was there, automobiles on the Columbia Highway stretched as far as a person could see them.

Mrs. J. F. Freil has opened up a millinery shop in one of "Dad" Miller's store windows, and all our girls are looking with longing eyes at the fine display of Easter hats are exhibited.

R. C. Murray has gone to Bridal Veil, where he has secured employment, and S. C. Runyan has a job in Sandy at the new saw mill of Dixon & Keisecker's.

W. W. Watkins has rented a ranch near Aurora and has already gone to take possession, although his family will stay here until after school closes.

Mrs. Emilsback, of Portland, came down for the week end to visit with her friend, Mrs. Henry Berdenstein.

C. A. Weatherford who is employed on a ranch at Deer Island, came to visit his family over Sunday last.

Could Hardly Do Her Work

Housework is trying on health and strength. Women are as much inclined to kidney and bladder trouble as men. Symptoms of aching back, stiff and sore joints and muscles, blurred vision, puffiness under eyes, should be given prompt attention before they lead to chronic or more serious ailment.

Mrs. George Hauck, 955 Pearl St., Benton Harbor, Mich., writes: "I was awful bad, with such pain I could hardly do my work, and I am very thankful for Foley Kidney Pills."—Jones Drug Co.

REDLAND

Dr. Gardner, deputy State Veterinarian, is at Red Wing Farm testing the Hughes' Gunseys. Mrs. Hughes believes in giving them an annual test, thus being sure there is no diseased animal in their herd. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes have sold several head of young stock the past year; one yearling bull going to Tillamook the latter part of this month.

The Gunseys are surely picking up, as a year ago there was but one herd represented in the Cream Testing Association, while at present there are five.

Mr. Hughes is putting up a silo, "Oregon" make, 16 x 26 feet. Mr. Carlson also intends to put one up this season.

"The Old Maids' Convention" at Fir Grove school Saturday night was a howling success, and a good time enjoyed by a full house. The proceeds of $29.00, will go to furnish the school.

Mrs. Bargfeld has moved her household effects and is now living in Mrs. Leashe's house.

The Judge and Road Engineer were out some time ago, looking over our roads and ordered some work done.

Miss Hattie Gaskell fell and hurt her hip recently, and is now at the Good Samaritan hospital on the road to recovery.

Mr. Rosebrou, who has purchased the Powers' place, is settled in his new home and we wish him success.

A. L. Frink is breaking some new ground for a spud patch.

Wool buyers are around trying to contract at 32c per pound. If wool is going out of sight the farmer certainly is entitled to some of the raise.

Potato planting is now in order better than ever. An average acreage will be planted.

There will be a larger acreage of corn planted than usual, and those that will do so will not regret it if it is properly tended.

The annual meeting of the Clear Creek Mutual Telephone company will be held as usual on the first Monday in May at the customary place.

The "Sophies" of the Estacada high school will give a three-act comedy at the Logan Grange Hall on the evening of the 22d.

The Hon. George Brownell gave a very entertaining talk at the Grange Hall last Saturday.

CLARKES

Mrs. Fred Bauer, who has blood poisoning and is in the Oregon City hospital, is getting better.

The Colton high school had a party at the home of C. H. Bergman in Timber Grove, last Saturday, and there were about 30 students present.

Fred Bauer, of Colton, took a load of potatoes to town last week.

Last Sunday afternoon union meeting at Clarkes was the climax of a series of meetings of that nature, the program lasting over two hours, and about 250 people were present.

John Loder spoke on "Jonah," T. A. Burke on "The Boy," H. E. Cross on "Opportunities at Home," Mr. Olmsted on "Social Life." A special feature was the singing by a talented quartet and a number of selections by a full chorus. All religious denominations felt themselves at home, which was demonstrated by the hearty hand-shaking after the meeting.

Wm. M. Stone will speak next Sunday evening on "The Divorce Evil"

MOUNTAIN VIEW

Just see us grow—three new houses are looming up, and more to follow. Just give us a chance with a sewer system, electric lights in every home, and a good street car line, and we'll show you. Mountain View is already one of the prettiest spots in Oregon.

E. D. VanAuken has moved his residence farther east, and is building a modern bungalow where the former building stood.

Joe Garner is building a house on Hazel street.

A relative of Rev. Baker's has about completed a house near the tabernacle. Others are planning to build this summer in this part of the city.

Grandma Bocher is again at home after several weeks spent in the Oregon City hospital with a broken limb.

Mrs. Martin visited her son, Garrett Martin, out in the country several days last week.

The oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Scouton returned home last Tuesday after an absence of two years.

The firemen's banquet at Mountain View hose house was quite a success and largely attended. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Ray Welsh, Albert Estes, Ed Quinn, Walter Young and the two Elliotts, were the committee on entertainment and they surely knew just what to do.

The Union Sunday School of Mountain View church will hold Easter exercises at the little church next Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Let everybody come, for a nice little program will be rendered. Rev. Milliken will be present.

EAGLE CREEK

Mrs. J. P. Strahl, Mrs. R. Brash and Mrs. Lily Elmsen called on Mrs. Howlett one day last week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass, April 15th, a daughter.

Mrs. Katie Douglass was visiting at the home of Mrs. Hattie Clester on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Daus recently.

George Judd sold some seed potatoes to Mrs. Kitzmiller the other day.

A. W. Cooke and wife came up Saturday evening to see Mrs. Howlett, remaining with her until Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lena Cahill paid Mrs. Howlett a visit the other day.

Eagle Creek Grange met Saturday with about sixty-one people present, including visitors and children.

A rather short session was held, although the lecture hour was pleasantly and interestingly spent. The committee on picnic program made a partial report, but was a good report. There are to be some special and interesting features—so everyone come and find out for himself what they are. Remember the date—May 20th.

There were several visitors at the Grange meeting Saturday, among whom were Mrs. I. E. Hicks, Mrs. Herman Daus, Miss Grace Vancuren and Miss Annie Blaisdell.

HIGHLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell and Mr. Kandel went to Portland by auto one day last week, returning the next day.

The new telephone division has its line up and all in working order, and has already taken one new member; while there is a prospect of another new member.

These April showers are just fine to make grain, grass and weeds grow. Grain is about all planted and the wheat is up. It looks good.

There are some potatoes to put in yet and then the farmer can sit down and rest until harvest begins—or at least that is what some of the city people think.

It is reported that road work will begin on our county roads in this district, next week. Roads are badly needed here and we hope our new supervisor will have the best success with his work, although it is hard to improve roads to any extent with the limited means we have.

SOUTH HIGHLAND

A number of people from here attended the speaking exercises at the Grange Hall Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornwall and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kandle motored to Portland last Monday.

H. Fallons is working for Joe Wallace.
