FORCED To MOVE

We are forced to vacate the present location occupied by us for the last thirteen years and will be permanently located in the store now occupied by the P. R. L. & P. Co., just two doors south of where we now are. To facilitate moving we are going to reduce our stock as much as possible, and beginning Monday next, May 29th, put on one of the biggest ever held in Oregon City. Everything excepting contract goods will be sold at greatly reduced prices, some at actual cost, and many at less than cost.

After June 10th

On BOOSTER DAY we will still be at the old stand, where you are welcome as always to make our store your headquarters, use our telephone and make yourself at home. Our courteous clerks will be at your service.

We have a souvenir for the little ones and, incidentally one for you--useful and handy.

CHANGES APPROVED

Welfare Commission Is Praised by Employers

Proposed changes in the industrial welfare code, regulating the wages and hours of women workers of the state, have the inferred approval of employers and employees alike.

When the revision conference of the Industrial Welfare Commission met at Portland on Tuesday to hear protests against the new regulations, nobody appeared to protest.

The conference had given wide publicity to its proposed changes and had allowed two full weeks for interested persons to prepare their objections—if they had any objections.

It was an agreeable surprise to members of the conference, therefore when they opened the session and found no one there to voice disapproval of their work.

Contrariwise, they were greeted with words of praise and commendation. E. L. Thompson came personally to thank the conference for the consideration shown both employers and employes in drafting their code.

NEW BISHOP APPOINTED

Richard Cooke to be Relieved by Matt S. Hughes

The 25 bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church were assigned to their new Episcopal residences at a special meeting of the Episcopal committee of the general conference at Saratoga Springs this week. Although the assignments will not be announced until the conference until later in the week, it was learned that a large number of changes have been made, to be effective at the end of the conference after being ratified by the delegates. Bishop Richard J. Cooke, of Portland, has been transferred to Helena, Mont., and will be relieved in Portland by the newly elected bishop, Matt S. Hughes, of Pasadena, Cal. Bishop Hughes will have the same territory as did Bishop Cooke, and the Clackamas county churches are included in this.

The only interest shown in wheat at the present time is in the milling varieties, and this demand is not strong. There was a fair amount of buying of export wheat at the close of last week to fill in on cargoes, but this business has been concluded. New business is out of the question at the moment. The foreign markets were weaker yesterday and cables reported buyers holding off.

The visible wheat supply of the United Kingdom is 94,872,000 bushels, an increase for the week of 1,020,000 bushels.

Bradstreet's reports a decrease of 800,000 bushels in the visible wheat supply, a decrease of 1,601,000 bushels in corn and an increase of 2,249,000 bushels in oats.
