

NEWS OF THE COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Local and County Items of Interest to Courier Readers

HAZELIA

Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Silvers attended a concert at the Oaks Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Borland were dinner guests at the Charles Larson home Sunday.

Will MacVay left Saturday for Kansas City, Kan. He will visit his mother and sister, Miss Kate, and other relatives at various points in the east. His wife and children are at Duluth now and will all return home with him in the early fall.

Little Miss Margaret Silvers expects to spend the rest of the summer at the Wilson home at Hazelia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zivney motored to the Rose city in the former's auto Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. C. C. Borland has been entertaining her sister-in-law from Nebraska, this week.

Mrs. Silvers and little daughter, Margaret, formerly of England, but now of Portland, are house guests at the Wilson home.

Engils and Arence Johnson spent Sunday evening in Oswego.

Guy MacVay was entertained by relatives at Hazelia Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fiala entertained relatives from Portland Sunday evening.

Mr. Sargent is again at the Zivney farm baling hay.

Walter Borland was a caller at the home of his grandparents last week.

Master C. Antone and Shirley Boutz were entertained by the little Misses Harlan and Geraldine Zivney on Monday afternoon.

A. E. Thomas called on Joe Bauer Saturday evening.

Mr. Ackerson spent Wednesday in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Andrews, the postman of route 5, is back again after his vacation.

Lyle Tiedeman, of Stafford, spent a few days at Hazelia last week.

A. E. Thomas was a Stafford visitor Saturday.

Miss Harriet J. Duncan, who teaches the Star of Bethlehem class at Hazelia Sunday school, gave a picnic for her small charges Saturday afternoon. Luncheon was served to a large crowd of little tots and all report an enjoyable time. Miss Duncan is a very efficient school, as well as Sunday school teacher.

Mr. Hueter, of Hubbard, Ore., was visiting with various folk at Hazelia Monday.

Fred Lehman has finished baling his crop of hay.

The man who respects the rights of others experiences little difficulty in securing the consideration due him-self, but the wolf usually gets him due in time.

George Wilson, of this community, was in Portland Saturday.

Don't forget Sunday school in the school grove every Sunday at 10:30 a. m. When it is raining Sunday school will be held at the H. T. Dunn home. Everybody come, as we are studying the teaching of Paul, one of the greatest men of his day, and have very interesting, as well as instructive meetings.

Mrs. Shipley, of Oswego, is visiting her daughter, "Mrs. Fred Lehman. Mrs. Shipley formerly lived at Hazelia.

We are sorry indeed that little Robert R. Eastman is ill at his home here.

Joneth Johnson was a business visitor in the Rose City on Wednesday.

Miss Ida Scott, of Tualatin Meadows, was called on Mrs. S. S. Bouts Saturday afternoon.

Andrew Neal, of Oswego, was hauling wood from this vicinity last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Walling, of Portland, were dinner guests at the Childs' home Sunday. The Wallings were formerly residents of Hazelia, and they still own a nice farm here.

Mrs. George Wilson and daughter, Miss Mary, were guests of Mrs. S. S. Bouts Tuesday evening.

Jerry Fiala, a prominent dairy farmer of this place, was in Oswego Wednesday.

Miss Katherine and Beville Davis are visiting their cousin, Miss Ida Scott.

C. C. Borland was in Portland Wednesday.

Theodore Steinhiller, a prominent farmer of this place, was the guest of S. S. Bouts on Tuesday evening.

EAST CLACKAMAS

Raymond Bennett is home now nursing a sore finger, caused by being between two sticks of cord wood when they came together.

Our Line of

Stoves and Ranges

Is the BEST that Money Can Buy and the prices range from $20.00 to $25.00 on Stoves and from $27.50 to $75.00 on Ranges

Every STOVE and RANGE IS GUARANTEED

Quality First

Wilson & Cooke

Oregon City, Oregon

Mrs. K. Conroy and children are visiting with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. P. Deshields, during their vacation from their eastern Oregon home.

The tent meetings continue with a large attendance.

H. Vanwater and son, Raymond, were transacting business in Portland last Friday.

Earl Boyer is nursing an enlarged check this week.

W. F. Mundhenke is delivering hay to gardeners of southern Europe in Portland these days.

H. Blake is a very busy man now-a-days cutting grain for his neighbors.

G. Haberlach, Jr., is applying roof paint upon his house.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Adams have moved to Gladstone to make their future home.

Mrs. G. Haberlach, Sr., and Mrs. K. Dause were calling on Mrs. L. Parker, who is confined to her bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and son were out picking berries Wednesday evening at their ranch, recently purchased.

Allen Finzer and daughter, Velma, were callers at Cedar Springs ranch last Saturday.

The E. C. S. C. meets with Miss Doris Himmerick next Wednesday afternoon.

Arthur Rasmussen and Arthur Davidson say that scooping hay in eastern Oregon is no baby-play. They therefore resigned their positions and set sail for old webfoot, none the worse for their experience.

We are glad to announce that the grading is going on on the Eighty-second street road leading into Portland. Some day we will have smooth sailing thereon.

While in Portland last Friday we noticed the Ewbank electric motor in its old berth, so we presume the P. & O. C. Ry. has discontinued its use on the run from Portland to Milwaukee.

Mrs. L. M. Haworth's sister and family, of Donald, Oregon, motored down for visit last Sunday.

S. S. Urfer, wife and son, Donald, were honored guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Finzer Sunday. Mr. Urfer and Mr. Finzer had not met since Mr. Finzer left his native state, Ohio, 26 years ago. S. S. Urfer is a successful merchant of New Philadelphia, Ohio.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Finzer on Sunday. Salads, pickles, sandwiches, ice cream, cake and other things too numerous to mention composed the lunch. Picture taking, music and visiting consumed the afternoon. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Urfer, and son, Donald, of New Philadelphia, Ohio; Gen. W. E. Finzer, Mrs. W. E. Finzer and son, Marvin; Dr. E. W. Finzer and Mrs. E. W. Finzer; Miss Beatrice Finzer, Donald Finzer, Laura Finzer, Malcolm Finzer, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Finzer, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Eaton, James Eaton, Helene Eaton, Mrs. Anna B. Cummings, Mrs. William Bush, all of Portland, and other relatives.

R. L. Holman, Leading Undertaker, Fifth and Main St.; Telephones: Pacific 415-J; Home B-18.

WILSONVILLE

Mrs. Masters and daughter visited their home in Portland Saturday and Sunday, after having spent a month in camp with the husband and brothers at Graham's Ferry. They returned Monday to remain for another month in camp.

Mrs. Ed Baker will entertain the ladies of Correll Creek Thursday afternoon.

Quite a number of Wilsonville "ites" motored down the Columbia highway Sunday, having dinner and supper en route, and enjoying a splendid time.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Young, accompanied by Lewis Young and Elmer Todd and the young men's lady friends, of Newberg, made the Columbia highway trip to several miles beyond The Dalles on Sunday and enjoyed the trip immensely. None of the party had ever made the trip before.

Mrs. Eddie Wagner's baby is quite well again.

Little Miss Virginia Graham, of Portland, is spending the week with her cousin, Helen Graham, at Graham's Ferry.

The ladies of Hood View, Wilsonville and Correll Creek met at the home of Mrs. Arnold Clutter Thursday afternoon for the express purpose of organizing a Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which they did, with Mrs. Horning as their president.

Raymond Bennett is home now nursing a sore finger, caused by being between two sticks of cord wood when they came together.

C. C. Borland was in Portland Wednesday.

Theodore Steinhiller, a prominent farmer of this place, was the guest of S. S. Bouts on Tuesday evening.

NOT ENOUGH CHILDREN

ever receive the proper balance of food and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It makes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

Scott & Bowes, Bloomfield, N.J.

Miss Laura Parks of Mt. Hood street started Tuesday for La Harpe, Kansas, her former home, for a three months' visit with relatives and friends.

Claude Van Hoy is in eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Ross Clarke moved her household goods to Woodside last Saturday.

Ancil Badger came home from California last week very much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Beverlin are the owners of a new Ford auto.

Mrs. Cromer and daughter, of Lents, visited Mrs. Levelllyn last Sunday.

"Grandma" Bullard continues very feeble.

Mrs. Jennie Miller of Sellwood visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley May, last Tuesday.

Mr. Fisher moved in the little house of Mr. Van Anken last week.

Mrs. R. M. C. Brown, accompanied by Wanda Hickman, left for Seaside Wednesday, where they will spend several days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wallingford of Woodlawn, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. James McEwen of southern California, visited Mr. and Mrs. Van Hay last week. They have been taking an auto trip along the coast.

Mrs. Retha Grant is visiting her mother at Louisville, Oregon.

Miss Edith Bullard is at Wilhoit Springs for a few days.

The Sunday school and Ladies' Aid of Mountain View will have a picnic at Canemah park on August 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Hay visited their daughter, Mrs. Jennings, at Portland last Wednesday.

STONE

Yes, here we are, as live as ever, and we want the good people of Oregon to hear about us and our country, where no one need suffer if he will work. This is the land of plenty and all with a climate that is perfection itself.

Some big crops have apparently been raised, but we will wait until they have been threshed and then count the bushels. That will not be very long, for some wheat will be threshed before this appears in print.

Late seeding seems to have the advantage this year and such oats certainly looks fine.

The Logan hay balers have all been baling out of the field. Henry Thun, E. C. Gerber, Kohl brothers and C. A. Kirchen have each done some work in that line. E. C. Gerber baled about 30 tons of mixed hay for F. E. Anderson, on the Thompson place.

Several Logan grangers attended the Damascus grange picnic at Carver on the fifth and enjoyed it immensely. Some of them were surprised to hear it decided that the wheelbarrow is more useful than the automobile. It is expected that the discussion will effect the sale of that useful machine.

The Clear Creek creamery ball team defeated the Meier and Frank team for the second time last Sunday, the score being 9 to 2. The C. C. C. boys have been fortunate in their contests with metropolitan teams and have only been defeated once.

The correspondent put together some scraps of railroad information which did not fit. However, Mr. Carter has stated that he intends to extend his line up Clear Creek this season and will build the piers for the Clackamas bridge during low water, so our enthusiasm may not have been wasted.

We are still plagued with picture agents occasionally. An agent with a new line of talk was about last week and because of his talk took several orders.

A crew of men is at work in Jackson's park and is making the place very attractive.

The creamy company is planning the erection of a new building to house its butter making equipment.

Hundreds of pleasure seekers visited this vicinity on Sunday, bringing picnic lunches and fishing outfits. The place is certainly lively on Sunday.

Miss Elva Watts is spending her vacation at her home here. Miss Watts will return to Gladstone to teach this fall where she was last year.

Miss G. Chambers is visiting here before beginning her school work. She taught here the last two terms.

Praeching services are to be held at Stone on Sunday with a student from Eugene in the pulpit. The community has been invited to the service.

It is John Staats dead that we do not hear from him? Surely not! If he were dead we would be hearing of the good he had done.

A mountaineer has named his twin boys Theodore and Steveore. He says what one knocks down the other can drag out. This combination ought to suit the standpatters.

A smoke was seen issuing from Mt. Hood lately and some thought there was danger of an eruption but, it was found to be "Lige" Coalman getting supper at his high house for some Mazama girls who had climbed the mountain. "Lige" says they dined "al fresco" and had snow-shoe bracel, fricassee and snowball frappe, with ice water on the side.

The society event of the week was the wedding of C. W. (Dad) Miller, our merchant, to Mrs. E. L. Banta, both of this place. The newly-weds are not strangers to matrimonial life as they both have been married before, but they are both suited in age and in every respect for this added experience and both have the best wishes of all for good fortune and good health. They were married at Vancouver, Wash., and upon their return were treated to a great blowout that made the hills and canyons resound with the joyous shouts of the "natives."

Mr. Pridmore, the proprietor at Government Camp, has a hidden lake, from which he gets big trout whenever he needs them for his hungry guests. This lake was supposed, by him, to be a secret, but Verne Rogers, a famous fisherman from Sandy, who it is said, can smell fish (when they are frying) four miles, ran onto this lake and didn't do a thing but return to camp with a fine string of big fellows. When asked where he got them he said he ran them down and kicked them to death. Another fish-story.

HIGHLAND

Haying is on full last in this neighborhood and the weather is all one could wish for. It looks as though there would be a good crop of grain and potatoes this year. On account of the late rains pasture has been very good and stock of all kinds is looking well.

Miss Estella Ingals, after visiting in Portland the past week, returned home on Sunday.

Mr. Hanhart is housekeeper at present, while his better half is under the dentist's care in Portland.

The Grange intends to give a basket social and dance on Saturday evening, August 19, for the benefit of Jack Ringo. It is intended to use the proceeds of the evening to purchase a wheel chair for him. Mr. Ringo has been unable to walk for a long time and his friends wish to show their esteem and sympathy for him. All ladies are asked to bring baskets and men folks their pocket books. Good music is assured.

Some of the neighbors called upon

Mr. Mason last Friday evening, among those present being Mr. Simms and family, Mr. Caldwell and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kandel, Mr. and Mrs. Mat Kandel, Miss Lucy Simms, Mrs. Joe Wallace, Lida Martin, Edna Vohs, Chever Sullivan, Nora Pullen, and Elsie Schram.