

NEWS OF THE COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Local and County Items of Interest to Courier Readers

HAZELIA

Mrs. Geo. Wilson and daughters, Misses Jean and Mary, spent a very pleasant afternoon at the Frank Puybroeck home Thursday.

C. C. and H. M. Borland were in the county seat Tuesday.

Mr. Richard Zivney called on S. S. Boutz Friday.

Miss Janette Raicy, a prominent young lady of this place, is spending a few days at the coast.

Mr. Wilson and family spent a pleasant evening in Portland Wednesday.

Arthur Borland, up-to-date progressive farmer, of Tualatin Meadows, is building a fine new house and has the basement finished at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Nagl spent Sunday near Stafford.

A man dresses to please himself; likewise a girl dresses to please herself, to hear the old bachelor tell it.

Mrs. Geo. Wilson and daughter, Miss Jean, called on Mrs. S. S. Boutz Thursday evening.

Among the few things: a mother admitting her baby is homely.

Miss Emma Hedge of Hoxie, Kan., writes that wheat and all other grains there have thrashed out a very good yield and they are getting top prices for their grain, too. But she adds they are having sweltering hot weather there. Miss Hedge visited at the S. S. Boutz home last winter while on a tour of the Pacific coast.

Never take a man at his word. A fellow told us just last week that his was a medical profession; we heard afterward that he was an undertaker.

Mr. C. C. Borland is bailing hay for Mr. Joneth Johnson.

We never could understand why the number of hours a fellow worked should be placed to his credit until he could show results, which a great many are unable to do.

Mr. J. Johnson, one of the pioneer citizens of this burg, was mingling with the crowd in Oswego Thursday.

I always believed in paying my debts, but I do object to a measly mosquito hovering around my writing paper and insisting on presenting his bill.

Mrs. Bradley and family of Portland were guests at the Wilson home Sunday.

Miss Marian Eastman, a prominent young lady of Maple Knoll Farm, spent the fore part of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Max McMahan.

The little Misses Cecil and Maxine Eccles were pleasant callers of Mrs. A. S. Thomas Sunday.

Several from Hazelia attended the funeral of the late Michael Schaeffer at Stafford cemetery Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Thomas and son Loving were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Borland Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Eccles and little daughters, who have been visiting at the Raicy home for some time expect to return to their home at Baker, Ore., on Monday.

The Misses Puybroeck, Jean and Mary Wilson and Miss Marian Eastman were those from here who attended the picnic at Sucker Lake Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Raicy and daughter returned from the coast last week.

S. S. Boutz is helping Chas. Larson bale hay.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zivney and daughter Geraldine were in Oswego Sunday.

Several from here attended Grange meeting at Oswego Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eastman entertained friends from Portland Sunday.

What's the matter with those Hazelia school water works? Mr. Bowman gets water out of the creek to mix cement with for the new school house.

The Misses H. Jean and M. Lucille Duncan, local school ma'ams, attended the teachers' picnic on the Columbia highway Friday, and report a very interesting time.

Miss Hazel Bushbaum was the guest of Mrs. Chas. Larson Monday afternoon.

R. L. Holman, Leading Undertaker, Fifth and Main St.; Telephones: Pacific 415-J; Home B-18.

CLARKES

Mrs. Gladys Smith was visiting her sister, Mrs. H. C. Kleinsmith, for a short time but went home again last week.

Ed Grace baled hay for Mrs. Lizzie Ringo last week.

Sam Elmer purchased a Ford last week.

Miss Marie Kenton is visiting her mother, Mrs. George Rogers, and family for a short time.

Jason Clarke cut some wheat for Christ Zwahlen last week.

Miss Hazel Ringo visited her cousin, Miss Veda Ringo, last Sunday.

There was a party given at the home of George Rogers Saturday evening, August 12. Among those present were: Misses Dora Marquardt, Mary Bottmiller, Ruby Gard, Bernice Gard, Agnes Nelson, Marie Henton, May Rogers, Alice Rogers; Messrs. Ben Staats, Edwin Bottmiller, Rupert Marquardt, Alva Gard, Arthur Henton, Walter Kleinsmith, Walter Lee, Raymond Ginther, Charles Nelson, Claudius Bottmiller, Charles Gasser, George Gasser, Henry Grossmiller, Elmer Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers. Refreshments were served and the evening was spent in playing games. Everybody had a good time.

The Clarkes Gospel team held a meeting at Schubel last Sunday.

Miss Ruby Gard, who is taking teachers' training in Oregon City, was home over Saturday and Sunday.

Sam Elmer is hauling in his hay.

Rev. Hawkins and family from Oregon City are camping out here during his vacation.

Rupert Marquardt went to town on his bicycle last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gasser from Portland were visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gasser, and family.

Miss Engla Bergman from Portland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bergman, and family last Sunday.

Mr. Albert Buol, Jr., from Oregon City, is staying with his brothers, Ed and John Buol, for a short time.

Rev. J. O. Staats and daughter Esther were in town last Sunday.

Jake Elmer and daughter, Pearl, and Miss Ruth Leeny of Portland are visiting their friends and relatives for a short time.

Mrs. Shoemaker of Portland is visiting Sam Elmer and family for a short time.

Mrs. Hannah Frazy and children and Miss Ella Schiewe were down at Schubel with the Gospel team Sunday.

On their way home the horse was frightened and tipped over the buggy. Miss Schiewe was hurt in the neck and Mrs. Frazy was only slightly hurt.

Misses Bernice Gard and Agnes

Nelson spent Sunday with Miss Edith Stout.

Rev. Hawkins and daughters, Ruth and Dorothy, and Miss Elizabeth Marshall went on a trip to Hot Springs last week.

G. W. Foster is in the Oregon City hospital.

REDLAND

Yes, our population is increasing. A new arrival at Mr. and Mrs. Coop's some time ago brought much joy. All are doing well.

F. S. Sprague lost five sheep recently at one time by the coyote route. The boys say there were six old coyotes and a number of young ones.

Ethel Frink spent a week in Portland recently.

Mrs. Estes, of Portland, was a week-end visitor at Mr. and Mrs. L. Frink's. Walter Frink went back with her to take in the town.

Miss Marguerite Alderman has returned to her home at Dayton.

D. C. Fouts is digging a well, being assisted by A. L. Frink.

F. T. Fullam has started excavating for his new home.

Mr. Frager has been through here clearing up what sheep there were in this neighborhood.

Parties having a good Cotswold buck will do well to let L. Frink know about same, as he can place 20 more.

Amos Leek had the misfortune to lose his left eye while trying to break off a saw tooth with a monkey wrench. The tooth popped off and struck his left eye. Mr. Leek will be 80 years old in October.

The owners of Red Wing farm have sold Governor, their senior Guernsey bull, to one of the best herds in the state. Governor at one time was grand champion at the state fair, but last year "Katona," of the same farm, took the grand sweepstakes.

Kromer brothers, of upper Logan, have purchased a new separator.

The Portland Seed company has rented of James Tracy, and sowed to white clover about 40 acres on the Clackamas bottom, which they intend to thresh for seed. Owing to the war the price of such seed has gone out of sight. They claim to have a good stand.

Redland Literary society gave an entertainment and ice cream social Saturday night. A good program was rendered and a quilt was sold by votes to the most popular young lady. The quilt went to Clara Fullam. It will come in good play this winter, Clara. The proceeds will go to supply sewing material for the sewing club, which consists mostly of young girls. We like the spirit of the young folks of that community in doing these things for the benefit of its young folks, and it is an example other communities could well profit by.

The grain is now ready for the reaper and W. H. Bonney is getting his machine in shape for threshing.

EAST CLACKAMAS

Raymond Bennett left for Maupin, Ore., to accept a position as fireman on a donkey engine working on the irrigation ditch.

Jack Welch was transacting business in Portland last Friday.

Herman Gerhardus and wife were Portland goers last Friday.

Charles Lischke has now moved camp back to his old place after being absent nearly all summer.

M. Himmerick is going to build a new barn soon, having finished the excavating for a basement.

Mrs. Vest, of Bloomington, Ill., is visiting her brother, mother and sister of the east side. She says the weather here is great compared to what it is in Illinois.

Mrs. Clara Strunk and son, Arthur Davidson of Portland, were visitors at the home of A. Getz last Sunday.

J. W. Bennett will move into the Wade home as soon as it is vacated. The Wades are moving south of Oregon City, on the Kelnhofer property.

Edna Boyer is spending the week visiting with Bernice Gottberg of Oregon City.

Mrs. A. Enghouse and H. Vanwater were visitors at Cedar Springs ranch Sunday.

The ladies of the E. C. S. C., who met with Miss Dora Himmerick last Wednesday, report a very nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Heinrich visited old friends at Firwood Sunday.

The tent meetings, that have been going on for three weeks, closed last Monday night. Rev. Duff moved the tent to Clackamas and will preach there for a while.

Mrs. Helen Bennett was a caller at Cedar Springs ranch last Saturday.

The E. C. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. R. Boyer next Wednesday and all members are requested to be present.

Raymond Boyer, of McCoy, Ore., was a visitor with the Dawalls last Saturday and Sunday.

G. Haberland is ornamenting his barn with a coat of paint.

We were over to visit the Kelnhofer chicken ranch last Sunday and we must acknowledge it to be the largest bunch of chickens we ever saw at one time, there being 1,100 in one house and 400 in the other—all being white leghorns.

Miss Lucille Bennett was a caller at Cedar Springs ranch last Tuesday, and also called on Miss Arlene Harworth.

J. W. Bennett was a Portland goer Tuesday.

W. F. Mundehenne was an Oregon City visitor last Saturday.

WILHOIT

Sunday, August 12, was a big gala day at Wilhoit. Hon. Geo. C. Brownell and the Oregon City Boys' Band were the entertaining features. The day was ideal for the occasion. At 2 o'clock sharp Judge Darcy of Salem introduced George C. on the hurricane deck of an automobile in the Grove. For one hour and forty minutes George held his audience spell-bound. He tore the mask completely off of some of the graft and rot perpetrated on the citizens of this fair land. His talk had effect and the effect will have results this fall. The band boys were given due credit for their excellent music; they are a good jolly gentlemanly bunch of boys.

Geo. A. Harding and wife of Oregon City are registered at the Bungalow.

Jack Tobin was at the Springs Sunday. Other Oregon City people, too numerous to mention, are guests at the famous resort.

Ed Fortune is manager of the sporting houses at Wilhoit.

The large gasoline combine threshing outfit owned and operated by Vorheis, Olson, Bird, Sharp & Co., will soon start threshing.

Miss Marie Barstow was visiting relatives on Rock creek last week.

Joe Brosig is a frequent visitor at Sis Crouses' these days.

Monroe Groshong's genial countenance was visible at the springs a Sunday ago.

Supervisor Shanks is working on the Rock creek and Molalla roads with a small crew of men.

EAGLE CREEK

J. P. Strahl and son, Leslie, and Pete Menace started for eastern Oregon last week, going by wagon across the mountains.

Miss Helen Clester returned home last week from Molalla.

Walter Douglass left for eastern Oregon last Friday, going over the Columbia highway with George Douglass and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Moehne were recently guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Roy Douglass.

Claude Woodie and wife called on Mrs. S. F. Howlett Saturday.

Mrs. Updegrave and Mrs. Birch Roberts called on Mrs. Viola Douglass last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson were dinner guests at the home of J. P. Woodie Sunday.

Mrs. Hester Githens, Mrs. Judd, J. P. Woodie and wife, Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister, daughter, Myrtle, and son, Victor, were calling on Mrs. Howlett last Thursday.

Mrs. Walter Douglass called on Mrs. R. Brash Sunday.

Mrs. E. Naylor entertained at dinner Sunday Mrs. Will Douglass, Mrs. Sweeney and daughter, Della.

John Henkle, one of the merchants of Eagle Creek, has gone to the coast to spend his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Orke spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Hollander.

H. S. Gibson and Charley Sweeney were Barton visitors Monday.

LOGAN

A number of Logan people went to Corvallis on the 14th to attend the funeral of Bites C. Hawley, an old resident of Logan. Mr. Hawley leaves a daughter and two sons. His wife died here several years ago. He was born in Michigan and was about 85 years old. He was a moulder and before settling down to farming worked for several years in the foundry of D. Monastes in Portland. He was a member and past master of Harding Grange. He was a genial, hospitable neighbor and had a wide circle of friends.

Henry Babler has threshed some wheat for J. C. Kirchem and others, and E. C. Gerber has threshed for himself and Gerber Bros. Good yields are reported.

Mrs. A. Bosworth and Stella Gerber of Portland have been visiting relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Ward of Central Oregon report the birth of a son.

The steel work of the Clear Creek Bridge at Stone has received a needed coat of paint. The Fischer bridge has been in similar need but whether it has received treatment or not we cannot say.

MULINO

The Harvest Moon is here and farmers are all engaged in cutting their grain.

The new residence of our merchant, Mr. Danielson, is about completed, this making the fifth dwelling house built in Mulino for the first half of 1916.

The new cow-barn of C. T. Howard is finished and has been painted the usual red color.

Oscar Daniels and wife are rejoicing in the arrival of a son, August 5.

Miss Ruth Porter, of Canby, a former resident of our town, was visiting Mrs. Howes and others here recently.

R. G. Ashby is reported quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony, of Molalla, have moved to Mulino and Mr. Anthony will drive a team for C. T. Howard.

Mrs. Alice Davis has gone to Tillamook to pay a visit to her parents.

Clarence Mallett has moved back to Mulino from Tillamook.

C. A. Wallace has built a new porch on the front of his residence.

GREENWOOD

Haying is over in this vicinity and harvest is well under way.

The Thompson boys started out with their threshing outfit on Tuesday of this week.

A number of people of this neighborhood went to Wilhoit Sunday.

New Fall Shoes Here

If you want the very latest in Footwear come to our

Shoe Department

We have just placed in stock a shipment of New Fall Shoes; Button and Lace Styles

Blue Kid, Grey Kid, White Kid

You will see at a glance the beauty of these Classy Shoes—OUR PRICES are LOWER!

We Carry Narrow and Wide Widths

and can fit any foot. If you have FOOT TROUBLES COME HERE. FIT GUARANTEED

ADAMS DEPT. STORE

OREGON CITY'S BUSY STORE

The Talk Highways Of The Land

Millions of miles of long distance wire stretch out from your telephone to practically every city and town in Oregon, Washington, California and parts of Idaho and Nevada.

When you must have quick action, remember that a word to the operator will clear the track, two miles or two thousand, day or night. Prompt, reliable long distance service.

Consult the list of toll rates to cities hereabouts; it's in the front of your Bell Directory.

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

August, who is in the employ of the Honeyman Hardware company, of Portland.

W. R. Allen and family went over the Columbia highway last Sunday and say that the trip was a delightful one and the scenery just grand. It was estimated that over 3,000 autos went over this world-famous route last Sunday.

Oat harvesting has begun—mostly for hay—and the crop is one of the best ever known here. One rancher says that he is satisfied that his field will yield over four tons to the acre. At $15 a ton this makes an ample return on the investment.

The County Court

(Continued from Last Week)

DISTRICT NO. 31—G. G. Peters, $7.75; Amour Myers, $1.00; H. Peters, $2.00; W. S. Sharp, $2.00.

DISTRICT NO. 32—Howard-Cooper Corp., $25.50; Peters Hdwe. Co., $47.60; Tappendorf Lumber Co., $61.22; Harry Jost, $65.80; Elmer Todd, $28.00; Emery Raphaelson, $25.25; Elmer Jones, $25.00; Wm. Baker, $24.00; Roy Baker, $10.00; Glen Baker, $6.00; J. C. Snyder, $4.50; Hugh Iler, $5.05; Ed. Herman, $2.00; E. L. Baker, $14.50; A. A. Woods, $16.00; Lloyd Jones, $10.00; Henry Reiser, $16.00; Allison Baker, $8.00; Darrell Kelley, $7.00; Geo. Todd, $4.00; Jack Heister, $4.00; H. J. Flick, $14.00; Curt Hess, $10.00; A. Talley, $6.00; J. C. Chalupsky, $4.00.

DISTRICT NO. 33—C. C. Miller, $12.65; Cascade Garage, $6.83; Floyd Spurlin, $7.10; Wilber Wade, $43.00; Harry Shaw, $11.50; August Genseroski, $8.00; J. E. Schenk, $13.00; Julius Reichel, $12.50; John Schenk, $13.00; Frank Smith, $13.00; Jas. Clossner, $13.00; Ulric Dorais, $8.00; John Moger, $9.00; O. Hendren, $13.00; Vernon Schmidt, $6.00; W. W. Tucker, $19.50; Amos Millard, $9.00; Harry Spear, $13.00; Press Howell, $14.50; N. Christensen, $13.00; S. Tucker, $6.50; Frank Howell, $42.25; W. Hendren, $5.00; Frank Millard, $12.00; J. H. Spear, $30.00; W. A. Bard, $32.00.

DISTRICT NO. 34—Cash & Hoults, $5.25; John McKenzie, $34.50; E. L. Fish, $4.00; Otis Engle, $4.00; S. R. Taylor, $4.00; Albert Pederson, $20.00; Omer Hastie, $1.00; F. M. Linville, $1.00.

(Continued on page 7)

Farmers—

☞ We pay particular attention to farmers' accounts, and will be pleased to have you handle your transactions through this bank.

☞ We have Safety Deposit boxes for rent in our vault at $1.00 per year and up, where you can keep your deeds, insurance policies, etc., in a secure place and you carry the key.

☞ We have funds to make desirable farm loans and will give prompt attention to applications for loans upon well improved farms in this vicinity.

LEROY D. WALKER,
President.

THOS. F. RYAN,
Vice President.

JOHN R. HUMPHREYS,
Cashier.

Our Line of Stoves and Ranges

Is the BEST that Money Can Buy and the prices range from $20.00 to $25.00 on Stoves and from $27.50 to $75.00 on Ranges

Every