THE FASHIONS

No doubt, most of us are feeling that our summer wardrobes are beginning to look a little the worse for wear. It is invariably the case when August comes! The dainty voiles and organdies that were so crisp and fresh at the beginning of June and July when we started the season with them, are looking limp and faded since they have been pressed into service all through the warm weather. While it may seem rather late in the season to start getting new summer things, just now the stores are full of wonderful bargains in dainty summer frocks, and this is the opportunity for those who have to be economical. Lovely dresses and blouses in voiles, linens, crepes and other sheer fabrics can be picked up for a song, as the saying goes, and it is well worth getting them for the remainder of the season.

But you will make no mistake in having one of the simple silk dresses that are so much in vogue. They are wonderful for filling in the gap between the seasons—and not only that, they are going to be very good for fall. They will be quite comfortable with a top coat, if the weather demands it, or with a fur cape or scarf. The warm weather has not at all dampened the enthusiasm for fur capes and scarfs. It is such a common sight to see them worn on days when the mercury rises to great heights that one almost feels that one has been laboring under a delusion all along to believe that furs could be anything but cool!

Taffeta the Leading Silk

By far the most popular silks for dresses just now are the taffetas. They are especially smart in self tones and in the many striped, checked and blocked effects seen. Navy blue and rich, dark tones predominate. In some very striking designs both checks and stripes are combined. Following closely in the lead of taffeta are messaline, faille, figured and dotted foulard, crepe de Chine, silk voile, chiffon crepe and Georgette crepe.

The two illustrations shown here are typical of the simplicity of the present styles. The dress of checked taffeta has a gored skirt with panel front and back, and of course, it would not be complete without the large patch pockets on either side of the front, for pockets are as popular as ever in spite of their having been in fashion so long. In the waist, the panel gradually tapers up toward the neck, where it is met by a collar of Georgette crepe, which ripples at the back, though the front is quite flat. Chiffon, net or organdie is often substituted for Georgette crepe in fashioning collars for this type of dress. The only trimming in this model is seen in the buttons on either side of the panel. The color harmonizes with the dress.

That the vogue for combining plain and figured materials has not by any means diminished, is shown in the dress of plain and figured foulard recently seen on the avenue. It is trimmed with ribbon arranged in bands on the underskirt ad cuffs, and in plaiting, which finishes the neck and hem. Note the gathered pockets and the straight tunic plaited at the top. These are two prominent style features of the season. This model is one which at first sight may seem intricate, but on closer inspection one discovers that the novel touches which make it so very chic are, in reality, easily carried out.

Editor is Candidate for Matrimony Says Own Announcement

Dear Editor: I gather from his little 2x4 sheet that Ham Kautzman, who edits satirically, yet capably, the Columbia Herald at Houlton—which should be St. Helens—is one of these independent candidates. I am K. announces himself as the Ladies' choice for the Legislature and Ladies' choice for Matrimony.

Ham likewise appears to be somewhat of a fighter. His little sheet is crowded to the edge with fight and he holds his everlasting cigar between determined teeth.

That isn't the point. Ham, of course, is too big a man for a dinky town, and his platform will prove it. He has some high-falutin' ideas as to legislation and the cure thereof that mark him a candidate among candidates, and one who should draw an overwhelming vote from the fair sex.

Pardon me for mentioning Ham to you, dear editor, for he is an egotistic individual and can't be elected anyhow. Here's his platform, which was what I wanted to have printed in the first place:

"Abolishment of the Oregon Senate, with penalty of felony for corporation lobbyists attempting to influence the legislature by intrigue.

"One session of the legislature devoted to the repeal of superfluous freak laws and the enactment and enforcement of the Golden Rule.

"An act to compel butchers to sell boneloss meat, and to keep their hands off the scales while weighing.

"A law confiscating motor vehicles when driver exceeds the speed limit, selling the same and placing the proceeds in the road fund of the county in which the crime is committed.

"A law making it a misdemeanor for women to allow bachelor editors to run single during leap year—and some other good laws I haven't thought of yet."

PRO BONO PUBLICO, first cousin to that other imbecile, Constant Reader.

THOUGHTS FER THE DISCOURAGED FARMER

By James Whitcomb Riley

The summer winds is sniffin' round the bloomin' locust trees; And the clover in the pastur' is a big day fer the bees, And they been a-swigin' honey, aboveboard and on the sly, Tel they stutter in their buzzin' and stagger as they fly. The flicker on the fence-rail 'pears to jest spit on his wings And roll up his feathers by the sassy way he sings; And the hossfly is awethin' up his forelegs fer biz, And the off mare is aswitchin' all her tale they is.

You can hear the blackbirds jawin' as they foller up the plow— Oh, they bound to git their breakfast and they not acarin' how; So they quarrel in the furries, and they quarrel on the wing— But they peaceablar in potpies than any other thing; And it's when I git my shotgun drawed up in stiddy rest, She's as full of tribulation as a yell-jacket's nest; And a few shots before dinner, when the sun's ashinin' right, Seems to kindo—sorto' sharpen up a feller's appetite!

They's been a heap o' rain, but the sun's out to-day, And the clouds of the wet spell is all cleared away, And the woods is all the greener, and the grass is greener still; It may rain again to-morry, but I don't think it will. Some says the crops is ruined, and the corn's drowned out, And prophesy the wheat will be a failure, without doubt; But the kind Providence that has never failed us yet Will be on hands onc' more at the 'leveenth hour, I bet! A HEAVY BURDEN

A Bad Back Makes Life Miserable for Many Oregon City People

A bad back is a heavy burden. A burden at night when bedtime comes.

Just as bothersome in the morning. Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it?

Know they are for kidney backache—and for other kidney ills? If you don't, some Oregon City people do.

Read a case of it: Mrs. A. M. White, 1310 Center street, Oregon City, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are all that is claimed of them and when I can recommend them to others for backache or kidney disorders, I don't hesitate to do so. After I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills a few days, I feel as well as ever."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. White had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SANDY SQUABBLE AIRED

Injunction Suit Stops Distribution of 73,000 Brick

As an outgrowth of a suit in Judge Pomeroy's court at Sandy, an injunction was granted by Judge Campbell Monday, preventing the further sale, transfer or distribution of some 73,000 brick loaded on a siding at Hoover Station, preparatory to shipment.

The brick are being sold on execution growing out of a judgment obtained in Justice Pomeroy's court by B. F. Hoover against the Unique Brick & Tile company. Hoover sued for his son's wages, the son being a minor, and a judgment was obtained from which execution followed. The tile company filed an injunction suit Monday alleging that the execution was illegally levied and charging that F. M. Morgan who made the attachment as constable, was in fact not a constable at all, charging that he had failed to take oath of office and file his bond as by law required. Morgan, with Milo C. King, the attorney and Justice Pomeroy are made joint defendants with Hoover. A further ground for the injunction was set up to the effect that Hoover senior had never been appointed guardian ad litem for his son and hence had no power to sue.

Judge Campbell granted the injunction, temporarily stopping the sale of the brick, pending appeal to his court from the justice court and ordering the justice court to prepare the transcript of appeal, which the complaint alleged, had been formerly denied.

HARRY WORSWICK BACK

County Paving Superintendent Up from Border on Business Trip

Tanned to a nice brown, Harry Worswick, county superintendent of paving, arrived from the Mexican border Monday on a 30-day lay-off during which he will look after paving matters.

Worswick, a private in the local company, was called out when the Oregon City boys left for the front. He was forced to leave his position as county superintendent of paving operations, just as he was completing the stretch of hard surface between Oregon City and Parkplace. The work has gone on in his absence, the county completing the Sellwood-Milwaukie strip, and then taking up the East 82nd strip road from a point about 2 miles beyond Clackamas and working toward the Multnomah county line. The work has been done under the supervision of Mr. Worswick's father-in-law and the county roadmaster, Tom Roots.

Mr. Worswick reports things in comfortable shape along the border. Sanitary conditions at the local boys' camp are good, and to date there has been no sickness to speak of. Mr. Worswick is captain of the company's baseball team, which has made an enviable record in the regiment. Food is good, the boys are all happy, if not prosperous, according to Mr. Worswick, and there is no way of estimating the length of time they will be on duty on the border line. Mr. Worswick must report again September 4th. He has a wife and family in Oregon City.

A Woman's Helpful Advice

Mrs. G. H. Eveland, Duncan Mills, Ill., writes: "I was stricken with lumbago, unable to turn myself in bed. A neighbor brought me Foley Kidney Pills. Said she had been similarly afflicted and they cured her. I tried them and was completely cured by three bottles." Mrs. Eveland heartily recommends Foley Kidney Pills for kidney trouble. When the kidneys are not functioning properly, impurities left in the blood cause rheumatism, lame back, aches and pains.—Jones Drug Co.

ROB CLACKAMAS FARMERS

Youthful Trio of Portland Make Sensational Raid and Escape

August Perry, Hugh Conroy and Ray Pietzold live in Portland, they say. The three were Clackamas county visitors for a few hours last Saturday afternoon, and in that short time made a record for themselves which though not exactly enviable, was certainly spectacular.

The three rented a team and wagon. They drove from Portland to the Clackamas community and then began a systematic raid upon the farmers of the community, taking whatever they could lay hands on and loading up the wagon with various and sundry articles. The rig was pretty well filled up with two sets of harness, a hammer, an axe, a big bale of chicken wire, three suits of clothes, a frying pan, a shovel and other articles too numerous to mention, and the boys were embarking on the return trip when Sheriff Wilson butted in and spoiled their plans. Pietzold was captured and has confessed to District Attorney Hedges, it is understood. The other two youths made their escape when they realized they were being pursued, and warrants are now out for their arrest. The three are under 21 years of age. Pietzold was given a preliminary hearing and was bound over under $200 bail which to date he has not raised.

CITROLAX

Best thing for constipation, sour stomach, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Stops a sick headache almost at once. Gives a most thorough and satisfactory flushing—no pain, no nausea. Does not gripe—no unpleasant after-effects."—Jones Drug Co.

NEW DISTRICT TO BUILD

School House for Echodell Started Following Suit Settlement

Following the amicable settlement between the land owners and the school board of directors of district No. 126 relative to the purchase price of a 2-acre school site out along the Abernethy, work on a handsome new school building was begun early this week. The structure will be modern throughout and will cost $1100.00.

The new district is the northern extremity of the old Maple Lane district and is known as Echodell. For several weeks negotiations have been pending between the officers of the district and the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Rev. E. C. Oakley, formerly of Oregon City, but now of Mill Valley, California. Unable to reach an agreement, District Attorney Hedges had prepared condemnation proceedings for the land desired and the suit would have been filed Saturday afternoon. A compromise price was arranged between the parties, through S. D. Barney, a member of the board, Mr. Hedges and Attorney C. H. Dye, the latter representing the Oakleys, and the parties wisely avoided litigation and resultant expenses. It is thought the new building will be in tip-top shape for the opening of the new school year in the district.

GLYCERINE AND BARK PREVENT APPENDICITIS

The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-ika, astonishes Oregon City people. Because Adler-ika acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour stomach or gas. It removes such surprising foul matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-ika is astonishing.—The Jones Drug Co.

NO "FOR RENT" SIGNS HERE

Oregon City Water Men Find But Two Vacant Houses in City

Oregon City at present enjoys the enviable distinction of having no vacant houses.

A survey just completed by the city water commission among 1200 water consumers of the city resulted in finding but two vacant houses among the total number of local consumers. Particularly one of these places had been vacated to make way for the extensive building operations of the Hawley mill. The other home was vacated last week, and new tenants are to move in right away, the survey having reached the house during the interim. There are not over fifty homes within the corporate boundary lines of Oregon City which do not use the famous South Fork water, declares A. C. Howland, city water collector, and in the work of checking up the users, there was not a single "For Rent" sign noticed among the homes which do not use the water.

This is a most remarkable record for the mill town and certainly is indicative of the general prosperity we are undergoing at the present time. It is said that there are hundreds upon hundreds of "For Rent" signs decorating homes in all parts of Portland at the present time.

NEEDY RANCHER HELD

Statutory Charge Preferred by 13-Year Old Niece

A serious statutory charge has been placed against M. H. Herbaugh, a married man of the Needy district, by Lulu Hondrick, his 13-year old niece. The man was arrested by Sheriff Wilson and Constable D. E. Frost and is being held under $3000 in the county jail. The arrest was made Saturday, while Herbaugh was working on a hay-bailer in the Needy country.

The charge was filed by District Attorney Gilbert Hedges, following a conference with the complaining witness last Friday. Herbaugh was arraigned before Judge Sievers and through his attorney, Geo. C. Brownell, waived his preliminary, the court fixing his bail at $3000. Herbaugh has made several attempts to raise the amount, but has been unable to do so. He is a married man and has a family of five children.

The district attorney's office has been working on the case for some time and, it is understood, has strong evidence against Herbaugh.

FROST ATTENDS CONCLAVE

Well Known Constable Takes Active Part at Redmen Grand Lodge

D. E. (Jack) Frost attended the Redmen Grand lodge conclave in Portland this week. Mr. Frost is a member of the grand lodge of governing body of the Redmen for the state of Oregon and took an active part in the session Tuesday. Mr. Frost reports a splendid session and a wonderful growth in the organization during the past year. Jack was unable to remain throughout the entire session, on account of the press of business duties.
