HAZELIA

Mrs. Fred Lehman spent a pleasant afternoon visiting with the Hazelia school the latter part of the week.

Master C. Antone and Shirley Boutz spent Monday afternoon with Jerry Fiala, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Max McMahan and sons, Jack and Clark, were guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. James Eastman and Mr. and Mrs. James McMahan of Maple Knoll farm.

Miss M. Lucile Duncan was a visitor in Oswego Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pollard, formerly of Hazelia but now of Oswego, have rented a farm near the Glen Morris road and will move on to it soon.

Mrs. Fred Lehman called on Mrs. Fiala Thursday.

C. E. Bolds of Portland was in the neighborhood Monday.

Mrs. Ed Pollard, Mrs. S. Simenson, Mrs. S. S. Boutz and little Miss Josephine Pollard spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. James Tiedeman on Valentine's day.

Mrs. Embry was visiting in Oswego Wednesday afternoon.

Max McMahan is on the sick list.

Have you had the chicken-pox? Oswego school closed for two weeks Thursday on account of there being several cases of chicken pox.

Lubricating oil took a jump recently and if things keep on going up, all a person can do is to quit riding in style and go back to old Dobbin.

Mrs. Fred Lehman called on Mrs. C. C. Borland Thursday.

Every individual builds his own monument and suggests the epitaph. Everyone should be careful in the material to be used.

George Wilson has purchased a new Ford automobile.

Mrs. F. W. Lehman is busy having dental work done.

I surely believe that idleness is the nursery of crime, but none should get too busy with anything that does not concern their own individual interests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Zivney and sons, Donald, David, Emil and Henry, motored to the Rose City Thursday and spent a pleasant afternoon.

C. C. Borland, who is serving on the U. S. grand jury in Portland, spent Thursday night with his family at Hazelia.

Let's not any of us advocate war, unless we really want to shoot someone and if we want to really do that, let's go out behind some object and shoot ourselves.

James Tiedeman, formerly of Hazelia but now of Oswego, expects to begin soon to erect a modern new house in Oswego. Mr. and Mrs. Tiedeman have many friends at this place. They also own a fine farm here.

When a fellow boasts that he is working for the government, you should be pardoned for mentally dropping the "for."

The Hon. H. S. Anderson of Oregon City and the county commissioners were out viewing some of the new roads in this vicinity.

This pleasant weather just suits we Hazelians. Plowing and gardening are the order of the day.

H. M. Borland was in Oswego Friday morning.

We are in favor of the bone-dry bill or any other bill that stops the use of alcohol as a beverage. But if it has any medicinal value (which I doubt) it looks like the science of medicine should profit by its use.

Viewing it from the moral standpoint we can't take very much stock in the manhood of the fellow who has to be quarantined from booze to make him a decent citizen. Government by force is not our ideal by any means.

Joneth Johnson and son, Ingvall, were business visitors in the Rose City Friday.

Garton Eastman was a visitor Friday in the Tualatin Meadows neighborhood.

Agnes Lehman was shopping in Portland Saturday.

The Misses Lena and Leona Pymbroeck spent a pleasant evening in Portland Saturday.

Mrs. Sarah Childs, Mrs. A. Worthington and Mrs. Frank Childs are on the sick list.

Albert R. Boutz attended a banquet in Oswego Saturday evening, given by the Artisans.

The Hazelia Literary and Debating society met Saturday evening with a large crowd in attendance. A short program was given, followed by a spelling match, Miss Blanche Duncan's side being the winner.

The losing side will treat the winners to a banquet at the next meeting. Besides there will be a mock marriage.

Remember preaching services at Hazelia Sunday at five o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The new road that is being built from Stafford through Hazelia to Oswego is sure a fine one and the neighborhood is some proud of it. A good road was badly needed. Mr. Kiser is supervising it and he is very efficient in the work.

EAST CLACKAMAS

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kelnhofer were visitors at Cedar Springs ranch last Sunday evening.

G. Haberlach is thinking some of applying to some metropolitan newspaper for a position as editor, as he has been practicing on the literary newspaper.

Raymond Bennett and Henry Klinkey are going to be some auto experts in time, as they are taking lessons in Portland. So when you want your magneto timed just wait for the boys, because one wants to patronize home industries as much as possible. Do you get the drift or must we show again?

M. S. Shearer expects to move some of his personal effects to his newly acquired ranch in Clarke county, Wash., this week. He says he is going to a place where he can raise something besides trouble. Good for you, old sport.

The ladies of the E. C. S. C. were entertained by Mrs. G. Haberlach, Jr., last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. L. Kelnhofer and son, Edward, have been on the sick list the past week and are reported on the mend at present.

Mrs. L. Rasmussen and daughter, Meta, were on a shopping tour in Portland last Saturday.

Elmer Shearer says he is entertained enough to suit him just at present. He is nursing a felon on his finger and a boil on his neck.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kelnhofer were motoring in the Carus country last Sunday.

We notice the Stone squib is very enthusiastic about the growth of Carver, but fails to state whether one can live on scenery or not.

Mrs. Frank Haberlach took dinner with her sister, Mrs. G. Haberlach, Jr., last Wednesday.

Edna Boyer spent the week-end visiting Bernice Gottberg at Oregon City.

We want all the pie faces in the country to come to the pie social at the school house March 3, also bring well filled purses as there is going to be a pie-eating contest between Clackamas and East Clackamas and all ladies must be sure and bring big fat pies. The proceeds go to fill the empty treasury of the literary.

Last Saturday night was the banner night for attendance at the literary. The good program and debate was greeted with a full house.

The debate was between a team from Clackamas and East Clackamas and the judges' decision was in favor of the East Clackamas team.

FOR SALE—Lots or acreage. I will sell from one lot to 14 acres, all in one tract; in Oregon City, 3/4 mile from courthouse, jitney service, in city limits; city water and electric lights. Some of these lots face Mollala avenue and some face on Mt. Hood street. If you are thinking of establishing a permanent residence in Oregon City you cannot afford to pass up this opportunity. Price right.—D. Grady, 515 Mt. Hood street, Oregon City.

CHERRYVILLE

(Delayed Correspondence)

St. Valentine's day was all that loving hearts could wish.

Fay Shank has gone to Astoria, where he will join in bridge gang work with the O. W. R. & N. Co.

Mrs. Shank went to Vancouver last Saturday to attend a re-union of the Baty family.

Frank Stone is quite poorly at this writing and but little hope is held out for his recovery.

Recent papers contain an account of the work of Prof. Zinters in the state of Washington in clearing off logged-off land by means of a retort and reducing the stump top and second growth fir into creosote, turpentine, sulphuric acid and charcoal. He gets enough from this waste material to more than pay the cost of clearing the land. This is the biggest problem before the people of the Pacific coast and this method offers a solution of this most difficult problem. Prof. Zinters was a former student of Professor Cooper of this place at the state agricultural college at Bozeman, Mont.

Deputy Game Warden Kitzmiller of Dover made an unsuccessful raid on our town last week and returned without any incriminating evidence against anyone. At the hotel Mrs. Friel told him she had some "dear" meat all right, the "dearest" she ever had and she wished he would get after the fellows that made it "dear" meat. The deputy next endeavored to search the premises of J. T. Friel, Sr., but he refused him admittance, as his papers were not made out right. Mr. Friel showed him, however, a very fine otter skin which his son Jerry had caught, but told him his son had a license to trap as well as hunt and fish. In conclusion he searched the premises of George Odell, but no luck.

The people of this neighborhood, under the direction of Prof. Cooper, got out and made a crossing at the postoffice and improved the sidewalk across the swamp toward the school house, so that people can go dryshod across a muddy stretch of road.

At the lyceum last week it was decided we had the potential possibilities of a thriving community here with co-operation and better transportation.

EAGLE CREEK

M. Dhulst enjoyed a visit from his brother, Charles Dhulst, one day recently.

Mrs. George Judd very pleasantly entertained the Helping Hand last Wednesday afternoon. There were five visitors present: Mesdames Anderson, Bravender, Rocliffe, Longwell and Wilcox. After the serving of a dainty luncheon the meeting adjourned. The club will meet with Mrs. M. E. Judd February 28.

The regular session of Eagle Creek grange was held Saturday with 38 patrons, including visitors, in attendance. A short business meeting was held before noon when an intermission was given for the purpose of partaking of an excellent dinner. After dining work was resumed. An interesting program was rendered, a part of which was patriotic, several selections relating to the life of George Washington being given.

The entertainment which the grange has planned to give will be held at Wilbern's hall, Eagle Creek, March 10. Everybody welcome. At the close of the entertainment a plate supper will be served.

T. C. Mackay was a Portland visitor recently.

Charles Murphey took some potatoes to the Estacada market Saturday.

Mr. Bow of Portland was a visitor at the home of Mr. Hill Sunday.

A number of people called at the home of H. H. Hoffmeister Sunday, among whom was F. W. Bates of Garfield.

Little Georgie Baker had his adenoids removed last week, Dr. Brown of Portland performing the operation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Priester and children and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Benson and children, of Logan, were entertained at dinner Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass.

Will Douglass and wife and Charles Sweeney took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy Sunday.

VIOLA

We are having a touch of winter again, the ground being covered with snow. But we hope to see the sun shine and spring days arrive soon now.

C. C. Miller of Estacada is about to sell his 40 acres of timber here at Viola.

J. Ficken has sold his timber to the Horner Brothers of Springwater, who are putting up a sawmill near the Viola hill road.

Ray Mattoon, Clarence Jubb and Tom Jubb have brought a saw mill near Redland and expect to be sawing soon.

There will be an entertainment at the school house on Friday evening, the 23rd. Ice cream and candy will be sold. The money raised is to buy more books for the library.

C. Landers, who has been in Portland the past six weeks taking treatments, is improving slowly. We hope he may soon return to his home cured.

Frank Gibb was in Portland two days last week.

Mrs. J. Randolph, Mrs. F. Cummin and Mrs. M. L. Sevier were in Portland shopping recently.

Ray Miller and family and Mrs. John Hamilton and two children were shopping in Oregon City on Saturday.

Miss Julia Hughes of Bethel made a short visit with her cousins here on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hicinbotham and daughter, Alice, from River Mill, were here on Sunday to visit with their relatives.

John Hamilton, Sr., Ed Miller, T. Jackson and Frank Cummin went to Oregon City with Will Hicinbotham on Tuesday.

Frank Cummin is about to trade his property in Montana for property at Gladstone.

HIGHLAND

Mr. and Mrs. L. Buckner and children, of Carus, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. L. Rath.

O. B. Caldwell and Fred Hettman were Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Kirk, who has been visiting at the home of T. Kirk, returned to their home at Crescent Saturday.

Miss Ethel Frost of Oregon City spent Thursday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. C. C. Kandle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hanhart entertained at dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Caldwell and children.

Mr. Barrett of Portland was visiting old friends here last week.

Mr. Smith left for Portland the fore part of the week to visit friends and relatives.

We are very sorry to lose one of our best neighbors, O. B. Caldwell, and family, who have traded their ranch for land at Bend, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallace entertained at dinner Monday evening in honor of "Grandpa" Wallace's 82nd birthday anniversary. Present were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kandle, Mrs. L. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Mason and children; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kandle, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Caldwell and children; Albert, Sam, Willie and August Martin; Miss Tillie Martin and Miss Grace Mann.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark and Mr. Jensen of Bee Hill called on Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kandle Thursday.

R. B. Mason is improving the looks of his ranch by building a new fence.

CHERRYVILLE

Winter is giving us a farewell visit. Louis Dippold of Portland was here last week looking over the shingle proposition. He says there are millions of feet of cedar in sight and thinks more than likely he will locate here in the spring. He will operate on a big scale.

There will be three saw-mills above us this season by the present outlook. Nelson and Mickleson will move over from Marmot and Jonsrud and Meinig will run as usual at Brightwood, while Jarl and Nelson, of Kelso, talk of starting up. The three mills will work in unison on a big tie contract and float them down the Sandy to the dam, where they will send them through the tunnel to the Little Sandy and Bull Run.

The funeral of Frances M. Stone was held at the church on Sunday of this week. The neighbors and friends turned out from far and near to pay their last tribute of respect to one of their number. The services were conducted by W. J. Wirtz of Sandy, assisted by Rev. Mr. Miner of the same place. The deceased was born near Eagle Creek in 1874 and leaves three brothers, Henry, Tom and Robert, and a sister living in the state of Washington.

The Electric Chafing Dish

When Unexpected
Guests Arrive

The Electric Chafing Dish is the hostess' friend when unexpected guests arrive. Dainty sweets are easily prepared with this convenient device. It affords all the advantages of easy operation—the turn of a switch and it begins to work. Any electric lamp socket can be used for supplying the Electric Chafing Dish with current. In addition to the advantages of quick service and cleanliness, the operation of the Electric Chafing Dish is not confined to one part of the house, it can be used wherever a lamp socket is available—the hostess need not leave her guests, to prepare the dish she wishes to serve.

An Electric Chafing costs little to operate and can be secured in various sizes
