NEWS OF THE COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Local and County Items of Interest to Courier Readers

EAST CLACKAMAS

Mrs. Grace Gottberg and Mrs. W. Henderson of Oregon City took dinner and spent the afternoon at Cedar Springs last Wednesday.

Leona and Arnold Daue of Logan were week-end visitors with relatives. | improving. Mrs. Edwin Daue and Emma Haberlach were Portland shoppers last

Miss Gladys Rypczynski is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. L. Kelnhofer.

Miss Elsie Vanwater, who is attending high school at Milwaukie, spent the week-end visiting home folks last

Mrs. H. Sandstone and friend, of Portland, were visitors with Mrs. L. M. Haworth last Saturday and Sun-

Mrs. Helen Victor and daughter were visitors at the Haworth ranch from Saturday till Monday.

Last Friday was visiting day at the school and the event was fairly well attended. Mr. Tong is a busy man these days with his gasoline wood saw. Henry Koch, until recently conductor on the P. & O. C. railway, has purchased the Ike Johnson eightacre place in Clackamas and will move there about May.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Shearer and son took dinner with Mr. and Mrs.

Enghouse last Sunday. E. R. Boyer, wife, son, Ralph, and daughter, Edna, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. A. Kelnhofer Sunday

George R. Boyer, wife and daughter, of Farmington, Wash., who have been spending the past two months in southern California, stopped on their way home to visit with E. R. Boyer and family a few days last week.

The pie social at the school house for the benefit of the literary was quite a success financially; the pies brought a very good price. The highest went to $2.60, netting a total of $16.10. In the pie eating contest Arthur Johnston won over J. Shop-

The E. C. S. C. held its semimonthly meeting at the home of Mrs. E. R. Boyer last Wednesday. The honored guests were Mrs. Grace Gottberg, Mrs. W. Henderson, Miss Gladys Rypczynski, Mrs. M. S. Shearer, Mrs. M. Tong, Mrs. J. Welch. Music was furnished by Mrs. Gottberg. The meeting next time is with Mrs. Franz

FOR SALE-Lots or acreage. I will sell from one lot to 14 acres, all in one tract; in Oregon City, % mile from courthouse, jitney service, in city limits; city water and electric lights. Some of these lots face Molalla avenue and some face on Mt. Hood street. If you are thinking of establishing a permanentreside nce in Oregon City you cannot afford to pass up this opportunity. Price right.— D. Grady, 515 Mt. Hood street, Ore-

REDLAND

J. T. Fullam is able to be up after a siege of the measles.

Mr. Renner of Oregon City, who has been building Mr. Fullam's house, has completed his job and gone home. Walter Gruell, wife and son, of Montana, are visiting relatives and friends while Mr. Gruell is foreclosing his mortgage against the Northwest Fruit association

Mr. Johnson found F. Sprague's missing hound in the Abernathy creek last week. Last Sunday Frank's hounds chased a coyote over Carus way, where the animal took refuge in a barn and was killed by Frank thinks they landed another Monday as the dogs did not get back until Thursday. This makes nine coyotes captured around here this winter. There were so many last year that it did not pay to raise sheep.

F. Schwartz has about concluded to shut down his mill and spend the summer milling in Washington. W. H. Bonney is at home on a pair

that this is a Bank

where they feel at home of crutches, having cut his knee with

Lee Kirchem, while working around on oil stove, spilt hot water on the side of his face and neck and scalded himself. He has been at Oregon City under the doctor's care and is now

Aside from Mr. Fullam's holding, spuds are about cleaned up. He has a choice lot of seed and About one hundred sacks left.

Mr. Neufer took twenty sacks of spuds to Portland last week, for which he received eighty-four dollars. That easier than raising hogs.

While L. Funk was coming home from Oregon City last week he was thrown out of the wagon seat twice and suffered a bruised finger. He says he wishes it had been the fellow who is responsible for the condition of the road.

What fall wheat was sown does not look very encouraging, as the cold weather injured it considerable.

Owing to the hay crop being damaged last summer stock is not doing as well as usual and hay has to be be supplemented with grain. L. Funk has raised 100 per cent of his lamb crop this year, but warmer weather would be appreciated. The Live Wires of Oregon City have been invited to Harding Grange B. R. Smith has purchased the J. hall for a banquet Friday night, if E. Searles place, we presume to pasture those blooded Jersey cows on.

possible. We suppose they will tell us why we should vote that $6,000,000 bond for the Pacific highway while we farmers can't get to market with our produce.

Auction Sale

C. M. Davis will hold an auction sale on the Kandle place at Springwater, 14 mile east of the store, on March 10, 1917. The sale will consist of horses, cattle, some machin-

HAZELIA

A. E. Thomas and family, formerly of Hazelia, have moved to Oswego. A. R. Boutz was a business visitor Oswego Monday.

John Bigham was a visitor in Portland Monday and Tuesday. Andrew Neal of Oswego was hauling hay from Hazelia Monday.

H. M. and C. C. Borland were transacting business in Oswego Wednes-

William Dyer of Oswego was in this neighborhood Thursday. C. N. Rosenstretor's new Ford was making grocery deliveries in Hazelia

Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Milton Shipley and son, Lowell, of Oswego, spent several days the latter part of the week at the Fred Lehman home Hazelia Literary and Debating society met Saturday evening with a large and interested crowd in attend-A short program was given, followed by a mock wedding. Then the groom auctioned off all the wedding presents, which brought thirteen dollars to go to the piano fund. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Remember preaching services by the Rev. Mr. Coleman Sunday afternoon at five. A cordial invitation is

Those from Oswego who attended the Literary society Saturday evening were: Misses Florence Brumbaugh, Bertha Worthington, Edna Porter, Mrs. Milton Shipley and son, Lowell, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Mc-

Mahan. Albert R. Boutz was pleasantly entertained by the Artisans in Oswego Saturday evening

Jerry Fiala, Sr., was a business visitor in Tualatin Meadows Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Max McMahan and children, Jack and Clark, of Oswego, spent the week-end at the Eastman and McMahan home at Hazelia.

Elmer Shipley, formerly of Hazelia, but now of Oswego, was initiated into the Artisan lodge Saturday night. Richard J. Zivney motored to Portland Saturday in his new Hudson au-

Fred Lehman was a business vistor in Portland Satu-'ny. Remember the basket social Saturday evening at Hazelia. An excellent program is being arranged and

WILSONVILLE

The Parent-Teacher association of this place met in the school house Friday, March 2, that being their regular meeting day, to celebrate par-ents' day. The Women's Christian Temperance union met with them and presented the school with a framed picture of Frances Willard, in honor of Frances Willard day. The children had their usual annual exhibit on and a splendid program was rendered from 2 to 3 p. m. Then the picture was presented by Mrs. Horn-ung, president of the W. C. T. U., who gave quite an interesting talk on the lifee of this great woman. Mrs. Hornung is a pleasing speaker and all enjoyed her talk, which touched heavily on the white ribbon work being done in this state and many others. From 3 to 4 guests examined the exhibits, then the P. T. A. convened. Business was run through in a hurry and the subject discussed by many. The subject was, "Children's Read-The daily newspapers of toing." day, with all their sensational tragedies, and moving picture plays are spring quite a problem for parents to con-front with the child of from 10 to 15 We certainly as a P. T. A. deem it a great honor to have had our school chosen to receive the Frances Willard picture. The presenting gon City visitor on Monday. of this much esteemed woman's picture has become a fixed program in are rapidly filling up, after an epithe W. C. T. U. work annually. Miss Scollard, our principal, gave the response and we all join in thanks to the W. C. T. U. Light refreshments were served to forty as a number of ladies had to go home, as the hour was getting late and it was nearly six when the social function was over. The play, "Fun on the Podunk Limited," given under the auspices of our P. T. A. in the A. O. U. W. hall netted us $87, which is quite a nest egg toward the cause. It was started for "cement sidewalk" from the O. E. depot to our school house and chances are good for another play just as good in the near future for the same purpose. We are now walking in the middle of the gravel road in preference to a mud "cow trail,"

CLARKES

Mrs. Jason Clarke is visiting her relatives in Portland for a short time. B. Sullivan was in Portland last Sunday to visit his family. Mr. Shell and daughter, Lillian, and family last week. The Clarkes Willing Workers class had a meeting at the home of George | Heights was out visiting her parents, Eberly last Thursday evening and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar May, at Lone Oak everybody had a good time. G. Marquardt was in town last week on business. Rupert Marquardt was in town last

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bottemiller were in town last Saturday. The Clarkes school had parent's day, shuh last Friday and a nice program was given by the pupils. B. Sullivan has purchased four inlot of chickens this year. Fred Bauer of Colton hauled a load and able to sit up for an hour every phone poles for division 14. A party was given at the home of

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton White Satur- days on account of the illness of the day evening and the Clarkes orchestra furnished the music. Among those present were: Misses Dora Marquardt, Mary Bottemiller, Bernice alt and Miss Lulu Hornshuh, last Gard, Agnes Nelson, Florence Kleinsmith, Esther Staats, Hazel Ringo, Ruby Gard, Adeline Swift, Ethel Notter, Rupert Marquardt, Walter Lee, Claudus Bottemiller, Alva Gard, Arthus Henton, Henry Nelson, Charles Nelson, Clifford Cook, Elmer Kleinsmith, Athie Olds, Walter Kleinsmith, Floyde Eberly, Henry Ginther, Clyde Ringo, Clifford Spencer, William Spencer, Walter White, Albert Steg-Refreshments were served and the evening was spent by playing games and music.

JENNINGS LODGE

Parents' day was observed at the Jennings Lodge school house on Friday evening, when a splendid display of the pupils' work was on exhibition The school was taxed to its capacity with the patrons and pupils, all en-joying a talk given by Carl Stacker about the flowers and shrubs easily grown in Oregon. A candy booth presided over by Mesdames Roberts, Bertha Hart and Kennedy netted $8. In the cake baking contest Harold Heathman and Otis Grant received the prizes awarded, while Virginia Ostrom and Ruby Trant had the honor of winning in the pie baking con-

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association will be held at the school house on the afternoon of March 9. Mrs. W. T. Milliken of Oregon City will give a paper on of the county.

A very impressive and pretty affair was held at the church at Jennings Lodge on Sunday evening, when Mrs. Harriet Robinson, Mrs. C. P. Morse and Miss Ethel Hart completed the teacher training course and were presented by Mrs. H. N. Smith, head of this department and awarded di-plomas. Rev. A. J. Sullens gave the address. Beautiful flowers were presented to the graduates and the pretty decorations of carnations and chrysanthemums lent charm to the affair

As Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are soon to leave for their new home in Seattle, the members of her Sunday school class presented her with a huge clusters of carnations and the members of the Parent-Teachers association gave her a beautiful piece of at his residence half a mile north of silver. The community presented in writing its best wishes, which were bound together with satin ribbon and will be read after their arrival in their

GLEN ECHO

Mrs. C. G. Fields, who has been very ill with a complication of diseases, has gone to the Dalles and Bend, Ore., where she is rapidly re-

Mr. Rawlins of Meldrum is ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eades. The Ladies' Aid met in an all-day ession with Mrs. G. E. Taber on last Thursday. The ladies are planning an Easter bazaar to be held in the near future.

Mrs. M. E. Walker has recovered from a serious illness, which has kept her confined to her home for veral weeks.

Everyone is busy plowing and seeding, and a great many are setting out young orchards.

We expect to have a great deal of improvement on our roads this spring, when our streets are perfected we will have one of the prettiest little burgs between Portland and Oregon

City.

Master Marion Miller has been suffering from a severe case of measles. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gray have taken into their home a sweet little girl of about three years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meldrum are both quite ill, Mrs. Meldrum being sick in Portland at the home of Mrs.

G. E. Taber is making many improvements around his home this

Master Dwight Hedges and Master Gene Hendry of Oregon City rode down in their bicycles and visited on Saturday with Master Marion Miller. Mrs. Will Henderson was an Ore-

The ranks of the Gladstone school demic of measles and whooping cough.

HOMEDALE

A number of Mrs. Lindley's friends gathered at her home Friday ofternoon in honor of her birthday. After spending a very enjoyable ofternoon, refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Miller of Needy spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henrici. Miss Irene Henrici spent a few days in Oregon City last week visiting her sister, Mrs. George Eggiman. Mr. and Mrs. F. Henrici entertained the Card club Saturday night, 500 being played. The prizes were awarded to the following: Mrs. Splinter and F. Henrici, first, and Mrs. Thompson and Mr. Olaf, boobies. Six new members were taken in. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lammers, March 24.

Mrs. William Eggiman, who has been ill the past two weeks, is able to be out again.

David Scheruble of Clairmont visited his sister, Mrs. George Eberly, butchered hogs foor G. Bluhm last Mrs. F. Ferguson of Clackamas > farm last week. Mrs. William Lindau entertained a number of her relatives Friday in honor of her birthday. Those present were Mrs. Muralt, Mrs. Oswald, Mrs.

D. Moehnke, Mrs. H. Hettman, Mrs. Alvin Hornshuh and Miss Lulu Horn-News was received that Frankie Eggiman, formerly of this burg but now of Oregon City, who for the past cubators. He is going to raise a big six weeks has been confined to his bed with St. Vitus dance, is improving

ARREST STATE OF THE STATE OF TH of potatoes to Beaver Creek last week.
D. A. Maxson is putting up telework going. We miss your smiling face out here. School has been closed for a few

Mrs. David Moehnke of Molalla was visiting her sisters, Mrs. C. Mur-

MOUNT PLEASANT

We think all who want war should be made to go first in case there is trouble. My, what a lot of cripples and old stagers they would be. Nobody else wants trouble.

The young people had a very good time Friday evening at a dance at man and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton White. the Commercial hall. Several out-oftown visitors were there.

Last Tuesday evening at the good roads meeting, A. W. Roots and G. B. Dimick were conspicuous. It was decided to try to raise money to rock the Portland and Howland road. About $1000 was promised. G. B. Dimick and C. H. Rider each gave $100 and will give more if necessary. The work will cost about $2500 and the county pays one half.

The farmers have lots of money now-just sold some potatoes. They have one on the city brothers. The Parent-Teachers had their usual meeting Friday. The Mount Pleasant basket ball team had a pleasant time Saturday

Chris Naegeli has disposed of his interest in the Oregon City milk depot to Mr. Hartke, who is conducting the business. Mr. Naegeli will still keep his dairy here.

George Lazelle has sold his dairy at auction. He said it was too much work. He had one of the good dairies

Miss Ethel Holmes, who was operated on Friday at the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland, is doing

The ladies of the Guild a few days ago had a silver tea at Mrs. W. B. Lawton's and report a most enjoyable time.

Let's all put our shoulders to the wheel and down those road bonds. Old Clackamas did her duty once and snowed them under about eight to one.

CHERRYVILLE

A wild rough March is a pretty good indication of good crops-especially fruit.

The fiftieth anniversary of the birth of Prof. Cooper was celebrated town on Wednesday of this week. His birthday is the last day of February, but owing to the bad weather was postponed one week.

Give Texas, New Mexico and Ari-

The Coleman Gasoline Vapor Lamp

300 Candle Power No Wicks to Trim

The Softest Lamp Ever Made

Busch's Lime & Sulphur Spray

Price per 50 Gallon Barrel, - $8.50

Price per 5 Gallon Can, - - - $1.25 Price per Gallon, - - - -

Bring Your Can

Busch's 26-inch Hog Fence

A High Grade Fence for All Purposes Price per Rod, 27c

FRANK BUSCH

A CONTRACTOR OF THE CONTRACTOR

zona to old Mexico if she would pitch himself and his constituents in the into Uncle Sam. It is to laught last legislature with his rotten bill Zimmerman, the imperial secretary of in the interest of the Southern Paforeign affairs of Germany, ought to cific railroad, was said to be white have another iron cross and a leather with anger in his efforts to benefit a medal besides for this brilliant move. selfish corporation to the injury of Texas alone can clean out Mexico and the people of Oregon. He will be blue not half try. Germany is on its last with despair when he reads the relegs after the desperate and foolish turns of the special election on June

A. B. Brooke was here the first of the week on his way to Hood River, where he has bought another tract of orchard land. He got this tract for less than it would cost to clear it and set out to trees. A good many in interest and attendance. One of people lost out in the boom times by buying at boom prices, thinking to at the noon hour, and the literary unload at still higher prices and when feast was varied and interesting. the bottom fell out they went on the There were select readings as usual rocks. People-some of them-are and instrumental music by Mr. and

Beon, the legislator who disgraced

LOGAN The March meeting of Harding grange was at least up to the mark the long dining tables was nearly full like cattle in a stampede; they run Mrs. A. L. Funk and a song by Henwild and jump high and are apt to ry Egger. A roll call brought out a full list of devices for farm and seven founders of the order now occupies a prominent place on the wall. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Ward and Wasco county after a visit with W. P. Kirchem and family. Henry Swales and Samuel Gerber ran down and killed a silver gray fox recently as a variation of the coyote family have returned to their home in

Some of the mud roads are getting to be remarkable for depth and even a Ford has to take a hop, skip and a jump to clear some of the places.

There are at least a few who are patriotic enough to agree with Senator Lane and W. J. Bryan that it is not worth a war to protect war profit seeking ships and foolhardy Americans that will travel in the face of danger. It is time to wipe the duelist's code of honor off the interna-

(Continued on page 9)

If you have not tasted 'electric coffee" you have one pleasure in store for you, which will go far towards completing the ### satisfaction assured by electrically prepared food. G-E Electric Coffee Percolators make perfect coffee by providing the proper heat for extracting only the delicate aroma and retaining the delightful flavor of the bean.

Portland Railway Light @ Power Company

The Electric Store

Phones—Home A-229 Pacific-Main 115 Andresen Bldg. 619 Main St.

they are interested.

Probably it is this great desire on the part of our organization to please that makes it worth your while to open an account here.

Many of our customers have said

T IS true that we endeavor to render 100 per cent service to all our clients, whether their deposits are large or small, or regardless of the branch of banking in which

Four Per Cent Interest Allowed on Savings Accounts