

PLAN GREATER CITY

Water Board Completes Data, Will Submit Question to People

The city water board yesterday completed plans for the incorporation of all territory south of Jennings Lodge to the south line of Canemah and east to Clackamas Heights and Mount Pleasant within the boundaries of Oregon City.

The water board's plan is the result of requests from most of this territory asking water service from the Oregon City system. If the incorporation is successful Oregon City will be practically doubled in population and will increase in assessed valuation to more than $3,870,000.

While Oregon City has been planning for this incorporation an enthusiastic movement has gained headway in all the territory between Milwaukie and Gladstone for an incorporation for water purposes only, whereby each community could retain its separate identity, but would combine to secure water service from the Portland system.

WOMEN'S NERVES

Women, more than men, have excitable nerves, because tiring work and physical strain tax their more delicate nervous systems and bring premature age and chronic weakness—unless treated intelligently.

Drug-laden pills and alcoholic concoctions cannot build up a woman's strength, but the concentrated medicinal food properties in build strength from its very source and are helping thousands of women to gain control of their nerve power—overcome tiredness, nervousness, impatience and irritability.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Many Presidents Left It Without a Pang of Regret.

GLAD TO ESCAPE ITS CARES.

Jefferson, With Tears in His Eyes, Voiced His Joy in Returning to His Clover Fields—Johnson Also Departed With Feelings of Deep Relief.

The varied circumstances under which presidents of the United States left Washington following the ending of their terms of office is interesting, for no two followed exactly the same course. Each president's manner of farewell depended upon his temperament or upon his success in office.

John Quincy Adams, like his father before him, did not wait to witness the inauguration of his successor. Thomas Jefferson, after two terms in the White House, said, with tears in his eyes, that he was glad beyond expression to return to the "clover fields of his farm at Monticello."

President Van Buren left the White House on foot, becoming thus of a sudden once more an ordinary citizen, the transition taking place with as much apparent indifference as was his coming to the White House.

President Tyler, before leaving the White House, engaged quarters at a Washington hotel and, after welcoming his successor, President Polk, drove to his temporary home with Mrs. Tyler. President Johnson, beset by enemies whose attacks had continued to harass him all during his term of office, left the White House with feelings of deep relief.

When President Hayes took his departure from the White House he remained for a short time in Washington as the guest of Senator Sherman, secretary of the treasury, and of Mr. Sutton. The evening before President Harrison's leaving taking his daughter, Mrs. McKee, held a farewell reception. The majority of the presidents have accompanied their successors to the capitol to be sworn in, departing afterward in their own private carriages.

While President McKinley was the tenant of the White House he was one day approached by one of the ushers, who said: "Mr. President, ex-President Harrison is in the east room just to look around and says not to disturb you."

Our National Hymn. Why not, in all civil service and professional tests, make the ability to repeat the "Star Spangled Banner" from memory required? Not one person in a hundred can repeat this hymn from the beginning to the end.

Sabbath Day Point. Sabbath Day point, on Lake George, is supposed to have been given the name from the fact that General Abercrombie embarked from this point on Sunday, July 8, 1758, for his disastrous attack of Fort Ticonderoga.

NEW GAME RULES

Fishing and Hunting Licenses Will Cost More After May 1

Fishermen and hunters may save fifty cents on each license by buying them before May 21, as on that date the law passed at the recent session of the legislature goes into effect increasing the price of hunting and angling licenses from $1 to $1.50, and a combination license from $2 to $3.

Free running dogs, or dogs following upon the track of any game animal, may be declared a nuisance after notification in writing to the owner of dogs, and the animals may then be killed without any criminal or civil liability on the part of the person killing the same.

Women are exempt from purchasing angling licenses, but must obtain a hunting license if they desire to hunt for any of the game birds and game animals of the state.

The deer season for district No. 1, which is western Oregon, has been shortened two weeks and will hereafter open on August 15 and close on October 15.

In game district No. 2, the open deer season begins on September 1 and will close on October 31, with the exception of Klamath, Malheur and Harney counties, where the season will be the same as in district No. 1.

The open season on migratory birds throughout the state will be from October 1 to January 15, with the exception of Malheur and Harney counties, where the season will be from September 16 to December 31.

All over the state the bag limit on trout has been reduced from 75 to 50 trout, or 35 pounds in any one day. The open season on six-inch trout begins April 1 and sportsmen are urged to purchase their licenses and carry them on their person as strict orders have been given deputies to check up anglers found fishing in the streams.

HONOR GUARDS MEET

Guard and Naval Officers Talk Patriotism. Work is Started

A large number of the 70 young women, who have become members of the Girls' Honor guard since it was organized here recently, attended a meeting at the Commercial club Tuesday night and heard talks by Captain L. A. Blanchard of the Oregon national guard and Lieutenant Jett, of the naval militia. The officers made patriotic talks and elicited from the young women promises to enlist two men each for the naval militia, which hopes to recruit a branch organization here.

The first corps of the honor guard will start first aid training this week under Dr. Frank Mount, Dr. O. A. Welsh, Dr. W. E. Hempstead and Drs. Ruth and Ross Eaton. The third corps will be divided into two classes, the first to be trained in mechanical work by the Oregon City garage and the second by the Pacific Highway garage.

SPRING HAS COME

Buds, Blossoms and Bees Will Soon Cavort Merrily O'er the Land

Glad tidings! Spring has come! Of course, you didn't know it, and we didn't either before we looked in our almanac. But spring is here just the same. It came with the rain yesterday and we don't doubt that the beautiful spring is here simply because we didn't see it.

That entrancing period known as the vernal equinox came upon us yesterday while we were least expecting it. Old Sol crossed the equator yesterday—the almanac says so—and divided the days and the nights into periods of equal length.

And the almanac bravely faces those who doubt that spring has come and says boldly that the days will grow longer and warmer from now on and the nights will grow shorter and sleep sweeter. Local merchants assure us, too, that spring has come.

Why Do Our $2 Blouses Sell So Well?

Just Because Women Appreciate

Good Values

Every time $2.00 is spent here for a Blouse, we know it buys far more in real Blouse value than the same sum will ordinarily obtain

The fact is that when any woman becomes familiar with the high character of the Blouses we sell at this price—she would hardly think of going elsewhere for a Blouse of the same character, for she knows she did, it would cost her considerably more.

The co-operative plan under which they are made and sold, and the vast scale on which they are produced, is what counts for such unusual values.

New Styles in the Welworth Blouse Go on Sale Tomorrow

They are universally conceded to be the Best Blouses Selling at $2.00

They Are Sold Here Exclusively

because their Easter goods have arrived and are being displayed. Another sure sign, if we don't accept the almanac's word for it, is nature's sign. The buds are bursting and the crows has come out of its little hole in the ground to seek the spring sunshine that isn't here. Then, too, a tramp came north yesterday—an infallible sign. He mistook the fact that spring was expected for a promise of good weather. Next week, maybe, good weather will arrive.

In the Divorce Court Gladys W. Brock charges Roy C. Brock with desertion in a divorce complaint filed here Tuesday and asks $20 monthly for the support of two minor children. The couple was married at Hood River on December 2, 1902, and Mr. Brock left his wife in September, 1914, according to the complaint.

Ordered to Settle Claim Peter Westberg was Tuesday ordered to settle a claim brought in the circuit court by Claus Bloom for $1535. According to Bloom's evidence, Westberg had not completed payment on property which he bought several years ago. Judge Campbell ordered payment made to Bloom within 30 days under penalty of losing his equity in the property.
