A great many huckleberry pickers were up on Wild Cat mountain last week. It is estimated that over 500 people were gathering this luscious fruit last week. The berries are very abundant and some of them very large. One outfit in two or three visits secured 70 gallons. The big patches at the Plaza and around Square mountain are yet ungathered and a great many are still in the mountains. The scarcity of other fruit has made the huckleberries in great demand this year.

The big auto truck, which was to deliver plank along our road here, threw up the job and the contract has been given to Carl Alt and a crew of men will soon be busy laying plank on the main auto road. It is intended to make a good winter road.

A Bank

for the people, of the people and by the people—The Bank of Commerce—because it is purely a Clackamas county institution, its stockholders, officers and directors all being residents of the county. Its growth has been the reward of consistent banking and the facilities to properly care for the wants of its customers.
