

NEWS OF THE COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Local and County Items of Interest to Courier Readers

PARKPLACE

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Rivers moved last week to Centralia, Wash., where Mr. Rivers has been working for several weeks.

Mrs. Myrtle Purdy, from California, made Mrs. Brayton a visit of a few hours last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vallet moved to the Lester Brunner farm recently, where Mr. Vallet will do fall plowing.

The Sunday school and grammar school are going to join efforts to prepare a splendid program for Christmas.

The Red Cross met last week and made plans for turning out a great deal of work.

DAMASCUS

A patriotic meeting will be held at the school house Saturday evening.

The Red Cross meets at Mrs. J. C. Elliott's home Wednesday, to sew for hospitals and soldiers.

Misses Julia and Louie Kroetz were visiting at the Burr home Sunday.

Mr. Carlson motored to Portland Sunday and visited Mr. Breeder's family.

Sawing cord wood is the principle industry of the community. One does not need any fire to keep warm while sawing cord wood.

Several of the school children are absent from school on account of chicken pox.

The principal of our school, who was invited to attend a ball at Corvallis, missed the train and sent her regrets instead.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

Mr. and Mrs. William Beard of Sellwood, visited their son, Frank Beard, and family last week. They were former residents of this place and have a host of friends here.

Lawrence Mudgett has been quite sick with pneumonia at the home of his mother, Dr. O. A. Welsh is attending him.

Mrs. S. V. Francis was called to Napperville, Wash., last Wednesday by the serious illness of her mother, who has been in feeble health for some time.

Another of our girls has left us for the state of matrimony. Miss Pearl Francis, who was born and reared in our city, was a graduate from our schools and also a graduate nurse, was married last Monday to Dr. William Mott of Stevenson, Wash., and has gone there to reside. The many wish them a long and happy life.

The Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Frank Beard last Wednesday. Quite an interest is being taken in this work, and the drive for membership next week will find no "slackers" here.

Mrs. E. D. VanAuken visited friends in Portland last Friday and Saturday.

HIGHLAND

The folks from here who attended the surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Cota at Lower Highland, were: Mr. and Mrs. B. Rambo and children; Sam, August and William Martin, and Willie Schmidt.

W. Kandle of Meda, Ore., returned home after a few days' visit with his brother, M. E. Kandle.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Nicholas visited on Sunday at the home of C. Larkins at Clarkes.

Earl Mason is visiting his sister, Mrs. C. Wright, at Oregon City.

Miss Annie Schmidt left Friday for Portland, where she will visit a few weeks.

Mrs. L. Martin was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kandle went to Portland the latter part of last week.

William McMaugh and J. Smith were Oregon City visitors last Friday.

Mrs. Albert Martin and Miss Tillie Martin spent Sunday and Monday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Baurer of Colton.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kandle went to Oregon City Friday to attend the funeral of the latter's cousin, Mrs. R. Wilson.

R. B. Mason is on the sick list. Lieutenant H. Fellows is home from California for a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Fellows.

Archibald Rath was an Oregon City visitor Saturday and Sunday.

F. Mayfield was here on business Thursday.

EAGLE CREEK

Mrs. Walter Douglass returned home last Tuesday evening and is remaining at home for a time.

The Helping Hand was pleasantly entertained by Mrs. R. M. Brash last Wednesday afternoon and the time was spent in making comfort pillows for the soldiers. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex Baker and the field secretary of the Portland chapter, American Red Cross, Mrs. J. G. Gillingham, is expected to meet with the ladies and organize a Red Cross auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodlee were Portland visitors the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass motored to Viola last Thursday, stopping at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. George Preister, of Logan, on their return home and bringing her home with them. She was their guest until Sunday evening.

R. B. Gibson and wife were calling at the home of Henry Udell of Dover, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodlee and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodlee were the dinner guests of Malcolm Woodlee and wife last Tuesday. The dinner was served in honor of Mr. Malcolm Woodlee, whose birthday it was.

Mr. and Mrs. George Preister and Mrs. R. B. Gibson were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass Sunday.

Ward Douglass and wife have been staying at their Eagle Creek home for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Baker made a business trip to Estacada Monday.

H. S. Gibson sold a couple of cows to the Walter Givens company recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Baker and daughter, Lola, and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Douglass and children were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Alex Baker Sunday.

TWILIGHT

A school program will be the only Christmas entertainment given this year.

The Literary society included a "lap" lunch in its Saturday night exercises, with pleasing results.

Mr. and Mrs. Moynach enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. George DeBok at their home in Willamette, last Sunday. They report an unusually pleasant visit.

Never mix in other people's quarrels is good advice, and if heeded, will relieve one of numerous disagreeable situations.

Tom Kelland is laying cement walks around his premises, adding materially to appearances.

Mrs. Curtis Dodds is expected home from her eastern trip within the next few days.

George Turner, a paper mill striker, has accepted a position in Seattle and has been joined by his wife and little son.

The departure of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner nee McCord, for Seattle leaves Mr. and Mrs. William McCord alone for the first time since their first child was born to them and yet they are not old people.

John Bradt broke an axle on his "Tin Lizzie" one day last week, with no accompanying discomfort aside from that suffered by his purse.

Mrs. A. H. Harvey visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith of Mulino Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Peck dined at the Moynach home Sunday.

The weather has been extremely favorable for fall plowing the past week and a number of our agriculturists have taken advantage of the conditions.

Dennis Hylton of Mulino, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in this neighborhood.

Adjacent property owners are making quite an improvement to the side road leading west from the schoolhouse. Henry Schue, Cal Swick and Mr. Nash are leaders in the enterprise.

An unusual scene for these war times is an occasional man looking for employment. Possibly the paper mill labor troubles account for it.

With Ben Staats, the industrious city farmer, in our midst, we ranchers, who better appreciate a cozy fire these cold days, stand little show for praise from the housewife.

STAFFORD

Stafford is rejoicing over the rain which has soaked the sod ground so it can be plowed, although a fair acreage of stubble ground has been plowed and seeded, and made ready for this rain to bring it up.

Miss Rande, principal of our school, and her aunt, Mrs. Stark, went to Milwaukie to attend a reunion on Thanksgiving.

The primary teacher, Miss Davis, went home for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. Holton and daughter went to Tualatin on Sunday of last week.

Mr. Weddle motored out towards Logan on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas have a small niece and nephew to care for, the mother having died and the father, in poor health, being obliged to go to a sanitarium, procured homes for his five children until he could be able to return and claim them. He has kept them with him since the death of his wife two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Milem have moved into their new home.

A young lady resident has an aluminum teakettle in her possession, therefore the community conserves its rice and old shoes and polishes its shot guns and tin cans.

Mrs. Lucile Snell returned to her home in Astoria on last Saturday after a week's stay with her mother, Mrs. Holton.

CANBY

Harry Cochran has been clearing on his place lately.

Mr. Grimes was in Canby on Saturday.

George Mitts has been plowing on the Lents place the last few days.

William Draper is still working for Mr. Mace.

Mrs. Clark called on Mrs. Wallace on Saturday.

Charley Wallace has put new curbing on his well.

Mr. Bolsby and son moved to their new home in Canby on Thanksgiving day.

Bert Rape and family were visiting his parents here last Sunday. They now live near Mount Pleasant, to which place they moved a short time ago.

Harry Smith brought a load of produce to Canby on Saturday.

Mr. Deeken has his wheat sowed on the Morley Mack place.

The potato market is dull at present in Canby.

William Kendall is doing very well so far, at peddling beef.

Mr. Rosencrans, of Portland, was in Canby on Saturday.

Herman Hiram of Macksburg, was in town on Saturday.

Mr. Heater, who has been living on the Fleming place for some time, has moved away.

George Hardesty is working in the Lucke warehouse.

Mr. Deeken butchered two fine hogs one day last week.

Alfred Robins has been staying with his brother for some time. The brother lives near the Adkins saw mill site.

John Bang, who has been working down the Columbia for some time, has returned to his home near Canby.

Bob Hilton is working on his bottom-land farm.

Very little land is being cleared in this vicinity at present, as the owners do not offer enough per acre. Everything one buys is so high that men cannot clear land as cheaply as they could a few years ago.

REDLAND

The Red Cross branch held a meeting this week and two dozen pair of bed sox, two pair of knit sox and one sweater were turned in.

Mrs. A. M. Kirchem reported having knit sixteen pair of sox for the soldiers.

Mr. Burbank is plowing the D. H. Mosher place.

Tom Allen, who has been on survey work all summer, came home Saturday, much improved in health. Tom went to enlist Monday.

G. J. Taylor preached at Bethel last Sunday and the girls' quartet of the Baptist church of Oregon City furnished the vocal music.

F. Sprague has been out several times with his dogs, but coyotes seem to be scarce. About all the dogs find are skunks or coons.

There evidently is a loose-fingered "gent" in the community, or near here, as every little while something has a habit of disappearing. The latest are a plow, a stove and a phone from the Courtright place.

Mr. Carlson, who had been furnishing milk to N. H. Smith, has gone back to selling cream.

"Billy" Wilson was out last week serving papers.

We wish to make a correction. It was a bull calf the Guernsey association presented to Mrs. Hughes, which she values at $500, instead of $500 cash as stated.

The 20th is the evening set for the big "doins" at Bethel church for the Red Cross. A dance and Christmas tree sociable will be combined, at which time a drive will be made to renew membership in the Red Cross. Supper will be served, cafeteria style. All ladies are invited to bring sandwiches, pies, cakes or whatever they have good to eat. The title of the drama will be "Why the Chimes Ring." The principle actors are Mr. Rugg, Milfred and Lucine Kock, Clara Fullam, Jessie Bonney, Richard Hinkle, Alvin Bonney, Miss Oliver, Miss Altman and Mr. Armstrong.

CHERRYVILLE

In the middle west and further east they are having some "fierce" weather, while here no one wears furs or overcoats.

Good for the Courier! The people who are making big money out of the war, like the Dupont Powder company, U. S. Steel, munition makers and Standard Oil, ought to pay the bigger share of the war tax.

Herman Johnson, the U. S. senator and live wire from California, says the west is practically unanimous for taxing the big war millionaires heavy for running this war.

A rancher, while going to his work early one morning, saw a doe and fawn in a lane. The doe cleared the fence but the fawn jumped into the wire fence and became injured so badly that it was killed to keep the meat from spoiling. By the same token it was mighty good meat, just the same. Like the fellow with his dog, who said his dog would have died if he hadn't cut off his head.

The writer is a great reader and admirer of Charles Dickens and Victor Hugo, both master intellects of the age in which they lived. But neither one of them had anything on President Wilson when it comes to writing choice language in the greatest kind of literary style and finish. He is very near the most perfect literary man of any time or nationality, and scholars and statesmen the world over acknowledge it.

While some hardy lumber jacks were working on a boom at the dam to loosen up the ties in a jam, the boom began to break and had not a man been on the bank felling a tree in the river for them to climb out on, they would have been carried over the dam and probably buried in an avalanche of ties, as the boom broke just as they got ashore. It was a narrow escape.

FIRWOOD

Lloyd Corey and Robert Pashual went to Portland the first of the week to enlist in the army.

Fred, Walter and Dewey Alt returned home from southern Oregon last week. They have been helping to survey railroad land over different sections of the state for several months.

Granville Cooper, who is now working for the General Electric company of Portland, crushed part of his foot last week by dropping a box of freight onto it.

A. J. Morrison's daughter, Mrs. Edna Tom, of Portland, is spending the winter with him, as her husband has accepted a position as boat engineer from New York to some foreign port.

Heine Fitzgerald has sold his farm of 43 acres to Edward G. Stauber and wife. Mr. Fitzgerald has lived on this farm for many years and has been considered a very good farmer, but he is unable to run the farm alone on account of his age.

A large coyote sneaked into a flock of sheep belonging to Mrs. William Updegrave and stole a fat twin lamb and had it about devoured before it was discovered. Mrs. Updegrave phoned to several of her neighbors for help to shoot it, but before they were able to get there it was scared away.

Will Alt was down from Salmon River last week and spent a few days at his home.

A representative of the ship yards of Portland has been trying to buy timber that will square 28 or 29 inches for 100 feet, but has had some trouble finding it, and also trouble in getting people to sell.

Mr. Karo, who lives on the Smith place, met with a rather serious accident while working at Dixon's mill Monday. While chopping a limb from a tree he stuck his ax into the tree and, slipping, fell upon the ax, cutting his knee through the cap. He was taken to the doctor at Sandy.

EAST CLACKAMAS

The way the meadow larks were singing last week one would think it was spring, but this week they will have to give way to the sea gull. Let it rain—it will be good for the ducks.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman, of Milton, who have been visiting with their daughter, Mrs. A. C. Kelnhofer, departed last Tuesday morning for California, to spend the winter for the benefit of Mr. Herman's health.

Mrs. L. Rasmussen and daughter, Meta, went to Portland last Saturday to do some shopping and to see Santa Claus show off.

"Grandma" Kelnhofer and Charles Lischke were visitors at Cedar Springs ranch last Sunday.

Emma Haberlach was a Portland visitor last Saturday.

H. Klinkey was a Portland visitor last Saturday and transacted business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelnhofer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Herman took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Hughes in Portland Sunday.

W. F. Mundeheke and family and Mrs. M. Heinrich were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. M. Heinrich Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Kelnhofer and son were Sunday evening visitors at the Riverdale farm.

Mrs. J. W. Bennett and daughter were Portland visitors Tuesday of last week.

East Clackamas was pretty well represented in Oregon City last Monday. The following persons were there: Mrs. H. Heinrich, John Heinrich, Raymond Bennett, and Alex Dau and family.

Raymond Boyer was a Portland visitor last Saturday.

Henry Klinkey visited a dear friend and home folks last Saturday. The ladies of the E. C. S. C. gave a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Kelnhofer last Saturday evening, with the following persons present: Mr. and Mrs. Herman, of Milton;

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Boyer, Mrs. H. Klinkey, Otto Klinkey, Emelia Klinkey, Augusta Klinkey, Mr. and Mrs. G. Haberlach and family; Mrs. G. Haberlach Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Daue and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. L. Kelnhofer and son; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bennet, W. F. Mundeheke, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mundeheke and family; Raymond Boyer and F. Wade.

BEAVER CREEK

Miss Johanna Walters and sister, Tresa, of Portland, were visiting friends and also attended the program at the hall Saturday evening.

Mrs. A. Gross was quite ill, but is now improving.

Mrs. R. L. Badger called on Mrs. B. Santesson Saturday afternoon.

Humphrey Parry returned Thursday after several months spent in eastern Oregon working on a large wheat ranch.

Abe Thomas and Ted Hughes are getting out knees for Portland ship yards on O. H. Hughes' farm.

Mrs. Annie Berg of Alberta, attended the program at the hall Saturday evening, and also made a short call on Mrs. Arthur Gross.

Rev. E. Berthold of Sherwood, visited with Mrs. C. Fisher, Sr., on Saturday, and on Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fischer.

George Watts, who is the first volunteer from Beaver Creek to join either the army or navy, is home on a very short furlough. Mr. Watts is stationed at Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Edwards are at home to their friends in the David Moeckle cottage, at Shubel.

Max Hollmann, one of our popular farmers who was drafted in the army, arrived safe at American Lake. Mr. Hollmann writes that the camp where he is stationed, is being quarantined because of the many cases of measles. Mrs. Hollmann, who was Miss Rothenberg of Macksburg, is at present living with Mr. Hollmann's parents.

A large crowd was out Saturday evening to hear the excellent program given by these school children under the direction of their teacher, Robert Ginther. Many people from other communities also were in attendance.

Lloyd Schram, former auto truck driver for Hoff brothers, is reported to have enlisted in the aviation corps stationed at Vancouver. Mr. Schram is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Schram of Highland.

On Sunday afternoon, Rev. E. Berthold, Lutheran pastor of Sherwood, christened the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Hughes. Lillian Alene and Vivian Gladys were the names given the little Misses Hughes. John Hohn, Mrs. O. H. Hughes and Miss Alena Hughes were sponsors. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fischer.

David Harris and Humphrey Parry made a business call to Portland Monday.

LOGAN

A banquet was given at the church on the evening of December 4, and those fortunate enough to be present report a very pleasant and profitable affair. Tables were improvised and were loaded with good things to eat, as 65 persons will testify. Rev. Mr. Seaman preached the sermon and is described as an eloquent speaker. Vocal music added to the pleasure of the occasion.

The O. A. C. extension lectures on December 7 at the Grange hall, were highly appreciated. Prof. Larsen talked on the subject of soils and branching out into tillage, drainage, liming for acidity, etc. He answered many questions and gave his talk a patriotic flavor. He used the acid test on several samples of soil, all of which showed considerable acid, except one of subsoil from the farm of F. S. Hutchins. The county agricultural agent was present and endeavored to interest the boys in catching moles and promised to sell the skins for them at a good price. There was a lecture on domestic science, in which a mere man is not supposed to be interested. Miss Lorene Parker of the O. A. C., addressed the women. At the close of the speaking, a Red Cross auxiliary was formed, with nearly a score of members.

L. H. Kirchem is in Logan, having returned from the Ogle Mountain mines.

Earl and Albert Gerber loaded a car with straw at Barton, the price being $11, which is "some" price for straw. The writer once sold baled hay in Portland for $6.

George N. Gill, the new manager for the telephone company, was in Logan getting the lay of the land preparatory to active work.

Henry Swales' son, Leland, was taken to the Oregon City hospital last week, suffering from acute appendicitis.

Clear Creek is reported to be lively with salmon.

M. H. Riehoff has sold his farm and he and his wife have gone to California with the hope for improvement of Mrs. Riehoff's health.

A lady teacher, of German parentage and a student of German history, has no sympathy with the attempt to kaiserize the world. She says the Kaiser's ancestors were brigands, who gradually spread their influence by terrorism.

Gerber brothers went to Rock Creek on the 10th to witness a drainage demonstration arranged by the county agricultural agent.

The aforesaid agricultural agent thinks that in the fullness of time we will be supplied with agricultural lime at $4 per ton, meaning, of course, ground limestone. Let us hope his thoughts will materialize, as cheap lime is sorely needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerber are now in Portland.

The butchers are still "honking" around, though it seems to take considerable "honking" to sell a little meat.

Mr. Moser is clearing some of his slashing.

R. M. Tracy is making some improvement on his barn.

W. M. Kirchem is getting his garage ready for use.

W. P. Kirchem is having a new roof put on his barn.

Some Logan young folks went to a dance at Damascus on the eighth.

CLARKES

B. Sullivan was in Portland Sunday and visited his folks.

Fred Zwahlen, from Hillsdale, attended the wedding of his sister, Miss Ida Zwahlen, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Frank Mueller is very ill. She is paralyzed on the right side, and can only talk a little bit.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stromgren and daughter, Florence, of Colton, were in Oregon City on business Saturday.

Miss Olga Murait of Portland, attended the wedding of Miss Ida Zwahlen Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wettlaufer were in Oregon City Saturday on business.

Miss Dora Marquardt was in Portland last week. She also visited her sister, Miss Elda Marquardt, at Oregon City for a few days.

Walter Kleinsmith came home from Woodburn last week after visiting his sister, Mrs. Frank Corbett, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kleinsmith visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Christena Kleinsmith, and family, Sunday.

The Timber Grove school intends to give a "shadow" sociable on Friday evening, December 21.

Mrs. Lizzie Ringo and daughter, Hazel, visited her son, Clyde Ringo, and wife Sunday.

John Buol took Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kleinsmith to Oregon City on Monday.

Frank Zwahlen took his brother, Fred, to Oregon City Friday evening and Fred left for his home at Hillsdale the same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kleinsmith were in Oregon City Saturday.

A. F. Buche was in Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bottemiller and Misses Florence and Elsie Kleinsmith were in Oregon City on Wednesday.

Quite a few young people from Clarkes attended the basket sociable held by the Beaver Creek school Saturday evening. Everybody had a good time.

W. H. Bottemiller went to Beaver Creek to attend the telephone company meeting Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. Bristol and son were in Clarkes Sunday morning, where the minister preached.

Ed Grace and Wilfred Cogar were in Oregon City last week.

Jay Dix moved some things to his saw mill last week and Harry Bauer accompanied him.

Mrs. Odin Andersen's sister and father visited her over Sunday.

Mrs. C. H. Bergman was in Oregon City last week.

John Buol is working for Robert Schuebel on the rock crusher.

A charavari on Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kleinsmith was an event of Friday evening. A delicious lunch was served. Those present were: Misses Florence Kleinsmith, Elsie Kleinsmith, Mary Bottemiller; Messrs. John Buol, Theodore Marshall, Wilfred Marshall, Oliver Marshall, Wesley Lindau, Bennie Lindau, Rupert Marquardt, Alexander Nelson, Henry Nelson, Charles Nelson, Harvey Nelson, Alva Gard, Arthur Henton, Walter Lee, Walter Kleinsmith, Charles Gasser, Leo Gasser, Claudus Bottemiller, and Walter Zwahlen.

The Clarkes school is to give a Christmas program Friday afternoon, December 21.

Frank Corbett returned to his home in Woodburn last week.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Zwahlen on Thursday evening, when their youngest daughter, Miss Ida Zwahlen, became the wife of Elmer Kleinsmith, son of Mrs. Christena Kleinsmith of Mulino. Rev. G. Kleinbach, pastor of the German Methodist church, officiated in the presence of immediate relatives and intimate friends of the couple.

The bridesmaid was Miss Florence Kleinsmith, sister of the bridegroom, and the best man was Fred Zwahlen, brother of the bride.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white net and lace and wore a long white net veil, a wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was dressed in white also. The Zwahlen home was prettily decorated with white chrysanthemums and colors, intermingled with hemlock and ferns and an arch of Oregon grape.

After the ceremony a luncheon was served by the bride's girl friends.

The bride is one of Clarkes well-known young women and the groom is a popular young man of Clarkes. Among those who attended were: Rev. and Mrs. G. Kleinbach and son, Alfred; C. Zwahlen, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bottemiller, Mrs. Christena Kleinsmith, Eugene Kleinsmith, Mr. and Mrs. S. Elmer, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Buol and daughters, Lina and Ruth; Misses Mary Bottemiller, Florence Kleinsmith, Elsie Kleinsmith, Olga and Esther Elmer, Dora Marquardt and Olga Murait of Portland; Messrs. Fred Zwahlen, Walter Zwahlen, Frank Zwahlen, Claudus Bottemiller, Kenneth Bottemiller, Fritz Kleinsmith, John Buol, Bennie Elmer. Mr. and Mrs. Kleinsmith left this week for eastern Oregon, where they will make their home.

W. H. Wettlaufer is hauling cream to the Clarkes store on account of a piece of bad road. The Clear Creek creamery calls for the cream with its big auto truck.

Henry Kleinsmith is working at the rock crusher for Shubel.

The Courier's Christmas gift—a merchandise order—is redeemable at any store in Oregon City represented as an advertiser in The Courier.

We Invite You and Your Friends to Enroll in Our

CHRISTMAS CLUB

Which Provides the Easiest, Simplest and Surest Plan to Save Money

FOR CHRISTMAS

We want you to save those little coins--the pennies, nickles, dimes--yes, the dollars also, that you take little or no account of, and let them accumulate into a fund that will pay for presents and help out in many other ways at Christmas time.

ASK US ABOUT IT

Bank of Commerce

Owled, Operated and Controlled by Clackamas County People

THOS. F. RYAN, President. DR. H. S. MOUNT, Vice President. JOHN R. HUMPHREYS, Cashier.