

NEWS OF THE COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Local and County Items of Interest to Courier Readers

EAST COLTON

J. Ritter made a business trip to Portland last week. D. Stahlnecker made a trip to Estacada for a load of tile and brick Friday. George Granatki had the misfortune to cut his thumb off one day last week. Mrs. Jelmur Osterud is staying at the home of her uncle, M. Park, of Estacada, while recovering from a recent illness. M. Park hauled oats from the farm of J. Ritter in Springwater, last week. W. Cox was a business visitor in Estacada Thursday. Mrs. L. P. Elliott was suffering from an attack of a gripe last week.

EAGLE CREEK

About a dozen ladies met at the Upper Eagle Creek Red Cross headquarters last Wednesday and made comfort pillows, wash cloths, etc. Harvey Gibson was up on the hill recently helping to cruise timber on Will Douglas's place. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Baker were Estacada visitors last Thursday. Mrs. H. S. Jones was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Viola Douglas, during the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodle and Mrs. R. B. Gibson made a trip to Estacada last Thursday. Mrs. Woodle and Mrs. Gibson attended the W. C. T. U. meeting while there. Several from over this way attended the Baby bond and Thrift stamp meeting at Estacada last Friday. Roy Douglass made a business trip to Logan on Friday. Mrs. R. B. Gibson was an Oregon City and Portland visitor Saturday. Mrs. Everett Beckett is the guest of her husband's mother, Mrs. Annie Beckett.

MACKSBURG

Miss Lydia Kummer was visiting with relatives and friends in Oregon City the past week. Mrs. Eby, of Liberal, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Harry Sherwood. Erich Boeche, who has been working in the Oregon City mills, spent a few hours with his folks here Friday. The LaMour brothers were transacting business in Canby one day last week. Mrs. Rudolph Klaus spent Sunday with Mrs. F. J. Kraxberger. Services were held at the Macksburg Lutheran church on Sunday. Carl Kalb of Oregon City, spent Sunday visiting with his folks. Rev. Theodore Lucas was in Aurora on business Tuesday. John Zeuger visited with friends in Oregon City on Sunday and Monday. The Macksburg school is now preparing a program for the basket social, which is to take place on February 23. All girls are cordially invited to take baskets and the boys will do the rest.

DAMASCUS

Spring weather again! Frank Krotch is busy hauling hay to town. No Norter and Noah Rogers were sawing stove wood in the neighborhood last week. The patriotic meeting at the school house was well attended last Saturday evening. Mr. Brownell was the speaker of the evening. There have been many flattering comments made on Mr. Brownell's speech. Will Hastie, who enlisted in the navy, was visiting at the Carlson home last week. Henry Burr and wife from Coos county, were visiting at the Burr home for a few days. Henry Burr answered the call for men and is now working in the ship yards. Albert Wolfhagen has purchased a car and is going to drive the stage between Damascus and Lents. Johnnie DeYoung and Wilbur Bro-

SOUTH HIGHLAND

Chevo Sullivan of Portland, was out visiting at the Kandle home Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. McNaught and daughter, Mae, motored to Oregon City, Saturday. W. Schmidt returned to Portland Sunday after a few days visit with his parents. Mrs. R. B. Mason and son, George, Mrs. T. Smith and children and Mrs. Brady Rambo called on Mrs. C. C. Kandle last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. L. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Martin, Sam, John and Tillie Martin were Oregon City visitors on Monday. Joe Wallace, who has been in Oregon City under the doctor's care the past 10 days, returned home Saturday. A most delightful time was spent at the home of Joe Smith on Saturday evening, February 2, when Miss McNaught entertained about 30 of her friends in honor of her 17th birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in games and music. Supper was served at midnight. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. McNaught, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kandle, Mr. and Mrs. B. Rambo, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kandle, Mrs. Kinder and children; Mrs. Smith, Mrs. F. Rambo, Mrs. Meeker, Mrs. Hinkson, Misses Tillie Martin, Esther Martin, Blanch Rogers, Crystal Rath, C. Rambo, Mae McNaught, and the Messrs. Joe Smith, Sam Martin, Willie Martin and Jesse Dennison, Earl Sweeker, Woodrow Rambo, Archie Rath and John Martin. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kandle, Miss Jane Cornwell and John Schram went to Oregon City Monday. Lloyd Schram of Vancouver, Wash, spent a few days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schram. There will be a drama given by the local talent of school district number 111 on Saturday evening, February 16, after which baskets will be sold to the highest bidders. If you want to know something of the social conditions of the laborers and want to have a good laugh, you don't want to miss this opportunity. The proceeds of the evening will go to the benefit of the school. Ladies are requested to bring baskets and gentlemen their pocketbooks. The entertainment will be held in the church near the school house. All are invited to attend. Mr. and Mrs. J. Rutherford called on Mr. and Mrs. McNaught Friday. James Hanhart, who is attending a Portland high school, spent the week-end visiting his parents. A surprise party was given at John Schram's house on Saturday evening and one of those really enjoyable times was had. There were about 43 present. Dan Fellows and wife led with the card playing; Mr. MacNaught was the clown; Mrs. B. W. Rambo took the prize for dancing; Mr. Rambo was the most expert accountant; Mrs. C. C. Kandle had charge of the culinary department and dished up a fine lunch at midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford and Master Earl Meaker furnished the music; Lloyd Schram of Vancouver, and also Miss Letta Flynn, of Michigan, were present. If anyone failed to have a good time we didn't see them.

HIGHLAND

(Too Late for Last Week) Miss Ethel Mason spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends at Oregon City. Mr. Cornwell, who has been visiting his brother, F. Cornwell, returned to his home at Jackson, Mich., last Thursday. Albert Burner spent a few days in Portland visiting his sister and brother. Joe Smith, C. C. Kandle and William McNaught were business visitors at Oregon City Friday. R. Simms was a Beaver Creek visitor Tuesday. Mrs. Rambo, Mrs. Kinder and Mrs. Smith, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rambo, returned to Portland Monday. Mr. Johnson and Mr. McNaught were business visitors at Beaver Creek Saturday. Mrs. L. Martin and daughter, Tillie, and Mrs. C. C. Kandle, were Portland visitors Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Meeker and son, Earl, were Beaver Creek visitors on Tuesday. F. Cornwell, who has been critically ill the past few weeks, is very much improved. A most delightful time was spent at the Smith home on Saturday evening when Miss Mae McNaught entertained about 30 of her friends in honor of her 17th birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. M. Kandle, Mrs. B. Rambo, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Kinder and children; Mr. and Mrs. C. Kandle; Misses Tillie Martin, Blanch Rogers, Esther Martin, Crystal Rath, Mae Maught; Messrs. C. Rambo, Joe Smith, Jesse Dennison, Sam Martin, William Martin, A. Rath, Woodrow Rambo, John Martin, Earl Meeker.

REDLAND

Word has been received that Herbert Oldheim, a brother of Mrs. L. Schwartz, died somewhere in France of pneumonia. Ethel Funk came from Portland and spent the week-end at home. Mrs. N. H. Smith, who is taking chiropractic treatment in Portland, is reported much improved. N. H. Smith has lost one of his high-testing Jerseys by milk fever. Our Red Cross work is going along nicely. At the last meeting Mr. Allen had his car loaded with supplies. Miss Clara Fullam gave a party to a number of her friends last week. Alice Funk entertained a few of her girl friends in honor of her birthday anniversary. Mrs. R. C. Brown has moved back onto the ranch. Mr. Brown expects to live at home, making the trip in a runabout. Mr. Farmer, what are you going to do about producing hog feed for

CLARKES

(Too Late for Last Week) Miss Elizabeth Marshall of Oregon City, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marshall, over Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wettlaufer went to Oregon City last week. Ed Grace went to Portland last week and visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Grace, for a few days. Miss Pearl Stromgreen from Oregon City, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Stromgreen, for a few days last week. B. Sullivan went to Oregon City last week on business. W. H. Bottemiller hauled some things for B. Sullivan from Beaver Creek last week. William Clarke visited in Oregon City last week. Fred Zwahlen went to Portland last Monday to be examined for the next army draft. Mr. Nelson, from Colton, bought some hay from J. D. Marshall last week. John Buol went to Oregon City recently. Dave Moehne was in Clarkes looking over some timber. He intends to put up a sawmill. J. T. Grace of Portland, is visiting his son, Ed Grace, for a short time. William Clarke went to Portland last Sunday. Sam Elmer butchered two hogs last Monday. Mr. Barton went to Beaver Creek last Monday. Robert Zwahlen went to Oregon City last Monday. A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ringo Saturday evening, February 2. Those present were the Misses Iva, Catherine and Emma Cogar, Mary Bottemiller, Bernice Gard, Hazel Bullard, Elizabeth Marshall, Hazel Bullard, Florence Kleinsmith and the Messrs. Wilford Cogar, Ed Grace, Claudius Bottemiller, Rupert Marquardt, Alva Gard, Alexander Nelson, Charles Nelson, Harry Henton, Ernest Berger, Walter Kleinsmith, Arthur Pack, Theodore, Wilford and Oliver Marshall, Clifford Cook, William Haxby, Mr. and Mrs. Odin Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ringo. Refreshments were served and the evening was spent playing games. Everybody had a good time.

CANBY

Mr. Lucke of Canby, was loading a car with baled straw one day last week. Mrs. Kelly, who is staying with Mrs. Rape, has gone to Oregon City for a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace's children have the whooping cough at present. Earl Bowlsby moved a family to Portland in his auto truck one day last week. Max Bowman was in Canby last Saturday. There was a speaker at the band hall in Canby last week, who gave the school children a lecture on "How to Trap Gophers and Moles." William Draper is working at present for the S. P. company at Roseburg. Charles Thomas and Claude Torgenson have been repairing the bridge at the old Corbett place across the ditch that runs to the former's house. Thomas Blanchard and wife were in Canby trading last week. They live at Central Point. Mr. and Mrs. Mitts and Mrs. Hart visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton last Sunday. Horace Patch is putting a new coat of paint on his house at present. Mr. Schoubel is going to have a butcher shop in Canby in the near future. The man that bought Mr. Henriksen out some time ago is doing some clearing on his place at present. George Henriksen of Needy, was in Canby on Saturday. Mrs. Griffin was visiting Mrs. Clark a few days ago. Mr. Beaty, who has been working over on the coast for the government for some time, is home again. Several years ago the people would say that if we had lots of rain in the winter season that we would have good crops. If that is the case, we should have good crops this year as we have had the rain. John Marks of Marks' Prairie, was in Canby trading Saturday. Milo Lee is going to carry the mail out of Canby on route one. He takes the place of Mr. Waite, who has been carrying the mail for some time. Nelson Bowers of Macksburg, was in Canby last week to hear the lecture on "How to Trap Moles and Gophers." Rollins Porter, who used to live in Canby, is at present living at Eugene.

SOUTH HIGHLAND

CLARKES

the place of Mr. Waite, who has been carrying the mail for some time. Nelson Bowers of Macksburg, was in Canby last week to hear the lecture on "How to Trap Moles and Gophers." Rollins Porter, who used to live in Canby, is at present living at Eugene.

EAST CLACKAMAS

S. Kelnhofer is on the sick list just at present. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haberlach and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. Tinnerlet motored to Colton last Sunday to visit old friends there, as that was their home in days gone by. Now they reside in balmy old Tillamook. Mr. and Mrs. John Heinrich have moved to Oregon City, where Mr. Heinrich has a position with the Hawley Pulp & Paper company. Quite a few of the farmers of this neck of the woods attended the lecture on the lowly mole at Clackamas Thursday of last week, and we think Miss Mole will find she has much less a chance to exist than here-tobefore. B. R. Smith lost a valuable cow last week. We did not learn details. Grandma Kelnhofer is on the sick list these days. Old man LaGrippe has got "a-holt" of several of our neighbors lately. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bennett and family have taken up their residence at Portland. G. Haberlach and Mrs. G. Haberlach Sr. were Portland goers last Friday. Mrs. Schwaren of Portland, visited with her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Blake, over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. J. Enghouse, who were on the sick list, are improving at present. The Sunset Limited on the P. & O. C. railroad, which passes our berg

YOU COOK YOUR FOOD - WHY NOT YOUR TOBACCO?

YOU know what broiling does to steak, baking to a potato—and toasting to bread. In each case flavor is brought out by cooking—by "toasting." So you can imagine how toasting improves the flavor of the Burley tobacco used in the Lucky Strike Cigarette.

Guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co.

at sunset or thereabouts, was towing the hand car to its destination, separated here, but we suppose the hand car knew where to head in because the last we saw of it, it was doing its best to get there O. K. Miss Dora Heimrich was a weekend visitor with her sister, Mrs. G. Haberlach. Charles Lischke went to Portland to hear Harry Lauder last Wednesday on his farewell tour of the U. S. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Boyer celebrated their 25th anniversary last Sunday, receiving many beautiful presents. The following persons were in attendance: Mrs. Grace Gottberg, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Scripture, Mr. and Mrs. S. Baron, Drs. W. Ross and Ruth Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Green and Margaret Green, and Glyde Schuebel, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Hackett, all of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. C. Roll and family of Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Cross and two daughters, Misses Tillie and Clara Hinkson, and Miss Ethel Sandstone of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. James Johnston and Arlene Hawthorn of Clackamas; Miss Dora Heimrich, Mr. and Mrs. L. Rasmussen and daughter, Meta; Mr. and Mrs. G. Haberlach Jr., and son; Emma Haberlach, Mrs. L. Erickson, Vernie and Alice

The Brunswick ALL PHONOGRAPHS IN ONE

Give Your Family An All-Record Phonograph

The any-record Brunswick opens a broader field of music—all limitations are removed. Buy any record you wish—whatever make—whatever artist. Play it on The Brunswick to gain a new appreciation of tonal values.

For the Brunswick is equipped with two reproducers. Use any needle you like—jewel point, steel, sapphire ball, etc. A reproducer is provided for the world-famous Pathe records—hitherto barred from many American homes. All without extra cost. Small Deposit Convenient Terms All the New 1918 Designs and Finishes

Jones Drug Co.

Protect Your Earnings

Having ready cash for sudden emergencies is possible only when you have saved a part of your salary or wages. Start with a small deposit if necessary. Increase it as you can and soon you will have a substantial interest bearing account, and a feeling of safety, contentment, pride and independence.

Bank of Commerce SAFETY COURTESY SERVICE WE PAY 4 PER CENT ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS THOS. F. RYAN, DR. H. S. MOHNT, JOHN R. HUMPHREYS, President, Vice President, Cashier.

Don't Suffer with Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, and all their attendant discomfort

DR. CALDWELL'S Syrup Pepsin The Perfect Laxative

is a combination of simple Laxative Herbs with Pepsin, mild and gentle in its action and relieves constipation quickly, without griping or other pain or discomfort. It is especially recommended for children. Sold by Druggists Everywhere 50 cts. (1/2 doz) $1.00