ALTHOUGH THERE ARE

MANY DEVICES for the reproduction of sound, only one is identified with a name which is eminent in the realm of scientific discovery. That one is the NEW EDISON, "the phonograph with a soul." This wonderful instrument is the product of the greatest inventive brain of our times. The famous tone tests have established its pre-eminence beyond question. Call at our store for a demonstration.

Mr. Quinn agreed to prepare the soil for seeding, and will set aside two lots for the boys' division and two for the girls'. The lots are nicely located on Center street, and their use will be highly acceptable to the young war workers.

Burmeister & Andresen have secured the services of an expert for their line of musical instruments in the person of Charles Schoenheinz, who has severed his connection with the Schoenborn grocery store on upper Seventh street. Mr. Schoenheinz is a musician of high standing, and is thoroughly familiar with the line of work undertaken. He succeeds Lyle MacCoy, who recently enlisted.

The Hinchman family is moving to Sellwood, although Miss Delia will remain with friends here until the completion of her present term in high school. All three young ladies are talented vocalists, and their departure will leave a void in local musical circles that will be difficult to fill.

The recent high school play attracted a large audience, which found the press agent's predictions fulfilled. The playlets and tableaux the students, accompanied by their splendid orchestra, made a good impression on the gathering.

Mrs. Stafford, of Halsey, visited recently at the home of her brother, C. O. Duden, in this city. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Dryden, Mrs. St. Clair, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. They also took the opportunity to watch the smelt fishing in the Sandy, which was at its height at that time.

The scarcity of available vacant houses in Oregon City is becoming more acute each week. While several new houses are being constructed, the present shortage eclipses any in the history of the city. Newcomers to our city must await their turn to secure satisfactory housing.

WHEAT-CORN YEAST BREAD.

Wheat-corn bread is more nutritious than bread baked with wheat flour alone. Thousands of American families today are using this mixed flour bread, and in so doing are enabling America to provide more wheat flour for the allies. Here's a tested recipe for this bread: Take one and a half cups of milk, water or a mixture of the two; one-half cup compressed yeast, one and a half teaspoons salt, one tablespoon sugar, one tablespoon of fat if desired, one cup cornmeal and two cups wheat flour.

Put one and a half cups of water, the cornmeal, salt, sugar and fat (if used) into a double boiler and cook twenty minutes. The water is sufficient only to soften the meal a little. Allow the meal to cool to about the temperature of the room and add the flour and yeast mixed with the rest of the water. Knead thoroughly, make into loaf, place in pan of standard size, allow to rise until nearly fills the pan and bake 45 or 50 minutes. It is hardly practicable to use a greater percentage of cornmeal than this even in emergencies, for bread so made differs very little from baked cornmeal. Less cornmeal can be used and in such a case the general method given above may be followed.

It is possible to make a yeast raised corn bread without first cooking the cornmeal. In this case not more than one cupful of meal should be used to four cupfuls of flour. In other respects the bread is mixed and baked as in the above recipe.

Mortgage Is Foreclosed
By decree of Circuit Judge Campbell, handed down last week, James Tracy, Sr., secures a mortgage foreclosure against D. O. Smith in the sum of $1964.06, with interest since the first of this month at 8%, and with $100 added attorney's fees. The mortgage is secured by considerable farm machinery and a number of implements. The Portland Seed company, who were held jointly by the plaintiff for the sum due, was released from the obligation upon order of the court, as it had been shown they had made some substantial payments.

Thrift is a habit. Like all habits, it's easy to acquire. Just buy a Thrift stamp every day, or every day you can, and you'll soon have the habit. Then you'll be lending your savings to Uncle Sam for the sake of the boys "over there." Uncle Sam will pay you 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly, until a time when you'll need it more than he does. Can you beat that?

THE GREAT WAR HAS MADE CIGARETTES A NECESSITY.

"Our boys must have their smokes. Send them cigarettes!" This is a familiar appeal now to all of us.

Among those most in demand is the now famous "toasted" cigarette—LUCKY STRIKE. Thousands of this favorite brand have been shipped to France. There is something home-like and friendly to the boys in the sight of the familiar green packages with the red circle.

This homelike, appetizing quality of the LUCKY STRIKE cigarette is largely due to the fact that the Burley tobacco used in making it has been toasted. "It's toasted" was the slogan that made a great success of LUCKY STRIKE in less than a year. Now the American Tobacco Co. is making 15 million LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes a day.

A good part of this immense production is making its way across the water to cheer our boys. The Red Cross has distributed thousands of LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes.

When His Fame Was His Misfortune
Here's a funny one on Sessue Hayakawa, Japanese movie star. They haven't been able to put it across because everybody insists it is a press-agent's tale. The funny part of it is that it's true, but then you know everybody will believe fiction and deny truth in Movieland. Mr. Hayakawa wanted to immortalize Hashimura Togo in perfection of screen rendition and registered with a Japanese agency as house-boy. In a few days he received an offer and took the position in a Hollywood home. On the third day he served dinner and to his dismay found among the guests three of his most intimate friends. That ended the career of Togo, for Sessue didn't even wait to bring the soup but fled back to Laskyville with the tale of an experience which he had not expected to incorporate in the screen version of a Japanese schoolboy. They've all got the laugh on him now and the public won't believe that he really "hired out" at all.
