Resume of the News of the Week from All Parts of Oregon

Bay City—The Whitney company, a Michigan corporation engaged in the lumber and logging business, has been given a permit to operate in Oregon, and will establish itself at Bay City. Its capital is $2,500,000. Officers and directors of the company are: Russell Hawkins, president; Charles Stinchfield, vice-president; David C. Whitney, treasurer; Jerome H. Renick, secretary. Hawkins' address is Bay City and the other three officers are residents of Detroit, Michigan.—Examiner.

Forest Grove—The Executive Committee of the newly organized Washington County Fair Association met at the Rogers library, in this city, on Monday night of this week to confer with the old board as to turning the fair over to the county-wide organization recently formed at Hillsboro. The old fair board members tendered their resignations and turned the affairs of the association over to the new.

The matter of fair dates was then discussed and it was decided to hold the fair on September 19th and 20th, it being felt that a two-days' fair this year would be sufficient.—News-Times.

Hillsboro—You never can tell. Doc Wood kept out of the state treasurer race when Cusick announced his candidacy. The latter proved a weak sister so far as getting votes was concerned and Hoff and Ryan were so close together that it took the official count to decide. Now supposing Cusick had kept out, or that notwithstanding his candidacy Wood had entered the race, who would have secured the plum? One guess is as good as another, but the Independent is willing to guess that Doc would have accumulated quite a few of the votes that went to the other fellows, with a mighty good chance that he would have had a few to spare.—Independent.

Newberg—The annual session of the Oregon Yearly Meeting of the Friends church will be held in Newberg, opening on Wednesday, June 12, and closing the following Tuesday, June 18. This is the 25th anniversary of the organization of the Friends church in this state and the event will be appropriately celebrated during the session.

There will be a service for worship which will be also an evangelistic service, at 8 o'clock both morning and evening of each day except Sunday. On that day three services will be held, at 8 a. m., 10:30 a. m. and 3:00 p. m. On Sunday evening, June 16, the missionary address of the session will be delivered.

The meeting on Ministry and Oversight comes on the afternoon of the first day, June 12.—Enterprise.

Newberg—Luther Newlin and a man named Fawcett have ordered a car and are expecting to load it with the latter's three horses and personal effects and Mr. Newlin's two teams and wagons and ship to the Alberta country. Mr. Fawcett expects to remain there and in case Mr. Newlin fails to find sale for his teams on arrival he will go to work with them until such a time as he may be able to sell at a satisfactory price.—Graphic.

Corvallis—Because of the many enlistments in the many branches of the service, the 21-year-old registration in this county was light, only 67 registering Wednesday—while it was estimated there would be over 100. There are not many 21-year-old boys in Benton county now.

These youths will be put at the bottom of class one and will have their numbers drawn from Washington.

With the recent call for 200,000 more men, there won't long be any bottom left for class one, as there were less than fifty remaining before this registration.

It is probable that registration dates for boys who hereafter become of age will be fixed quarterly.—Benton County Courier.

Grants Pass—Silas McClung and Merle Mock, of Grants Pass, were arrested Saturday for snagging salmon inside the fishing limit at the Ament dam.

Both men pleaded guilty. Merle Mock paid his fine of $25 and was released. Silas McClung, who is said to be an old offender in fish poaching, was fined $50. He did not pay the fine so will serve his time in the county jail.

On Monday Sheriff Lewis took McClung and two other men arrested last week for vagrancy out to work on the county roads.—Rogue River Courier.

Forest Grove—It appearing that Forest Grove has escaped a scarlet fever epidemic, only the three cases mentioned a week ago having developed, the members of the school board have decided to hold the graduation exercises on Monday, June 17th. The program will be carried out as heretofore announced.—Express.

Eugene—The officers for next year's senior class were elected at the University of Oregon on Wednesday, and resulted as follows: William Morrison, of Eugene, was elected president by a vote of 37 to 37 over Harold Gray. For vice president, Ruth Graham won over Ethel Waite 54 to 39; Helen Downing got 64 votes for the secretaryship, to 30 for Marie Badura; Henry English was unanimously elected treasurer, with no opponent, while Paul Spangler, also of Eugene, was elected sergeant-at-arms over Tracy Byers and Marian Coffey.—Guard.

music played by Miss Claire, they were greeted by prolonged applause from the large gathering of well-wishers who filled every chair. The procession was headed by Superintendent William J. Misher, Dr. U. G. Dubach, the speaker, and Dr. Thos. Sims, chairman of the school board. The young ladies were attired in white and wore corsage bouquets. The class, numbering thirty, took seats on the platform and a background of green boughs enhanced the beautiful picture.—Independent.

Eugene—Lane county has only seven alien men between the ages of 21 and 22 according to the registration of last Wednesday. Out of 190 registering in the county 181 are native born and one has already taken out his citizenship papers. Another has filed his declaration of intention to become a citizen. There is not a single alien enemy of that age in the county, according to the registration. There are two English aliens, three Italians, one Dane and one Filipino registered.

The registration by districts was as follows:

Eugene, 117; Cottage Grove, 16; Landux, 4; Marcola, 4; Junction City, 21; Blachly, 3; Leaburg, 3; Mapleton, 7; Florence, 6; Elmira, 9.—Guard.

JURY ON CONDEMNATION VISITS LAND INVOLVED

On Friday afternoon the jury, sitting in the case of the State Highway Commission versus the Ganong estate, visited that part of the Pacific Highway at Canemah, which is under the condemnation proceedings. Judge Tucker, of Portland, occupied the bench at the trial Friday in place of Judge J. U. Campbell. The case came up again Monday.

The road along the Ganong property at Canemah has already been worked on, and in making the water grade, several fine shade trees in front of the place were cut down by the highway commission. It is said that the loss of these trees is an element figuring strongly in the case, the defense having on exhibition a cross section of one of the Black walnut trees, about three feet through. A damage case is now pending, wherein the defendants in this case hold the highway commission liable for the destruction of the trees.

E. E. Brodie, publisher of the Morning Enterprise here, was the only Pacific Coast man in attendance at the National Editorial Convention at Little Rock, Arkansas, to receive appointment to office. He was elected a member of the executive committee. His invitation, on behalf of the state editorial association, for the next national convention to be held in the Pacific Northwest, was accepted, and next year will see the scribes gathering here.

ESTATE APPRAISED

John Jorgensen, Who Died May 8, Left Valuable Holdings

The report of the appraisers of the estate of John Jorgensen, who committed suicide at his home on the Molalla road, May 8th, shows real and personal property to the amount of $4074.36. This report was filed with the county clerk on Saturday. According to the terms of the will left by Jorgensen, his property goes to an old time partner, Nels Askjar, who has sold his interest in the 50 acres farm but a few days previously, to Jorgensen. Dependancy over the departure of his life-time partner was the reason assigned the act.

MOTORING PARTY LEAVES

Leaving here Monday morning on a motor trip to the Puget Sound country were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Martin, and daughter Elizabeth, Mrs. William Davis, and Miss Virginia Shaw. Enroute the party will visit with friends and relatives at Ellensburg, Tacoma, and Camp Lewis.

WHAT CATARRH IS

Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors only irritate and do little if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building tonic, free from any harmful drugs. It is helping thousands. Try it.

O. A. C. MAN SAYS KRESO KILLS CABBAGE MAGGOTS

"I have had excellent results in control of maggots on radishes, turnips, cabbage, kale and cauliflower by use of kreso No. 1 sheep dip," reports a Corvallis grower to the O. A. C.

O. A. C. "I diluted at the rate of 1 to 50 as you recommended, and for the first time in years produced plants free of maggots, in unprotected places."

"We are getting many favorable reports such as this while other growers report injury," says Prof. A. L. Lovett, entomologist at O. A. C. "Sheep dips vary in concentration and where other dips are used it is probably well to begin with a dilution of 1 to 125."

STUDENTS IN SCHOOLS OF COUNTY MAKE HIGH MARKS

In the final check-up of students' examinations papers this week, County Superintendent Calavan finds that 300 pupils have passed into higher grades. High averages were made by the scholars. Any of the pupils who failed in but two studies, and who are desirous of taking the examinations again, are given the opportunity, special classes to be formed for this purpose on June 13 and 14. These examinations will be held in the various school districts of the county, at the school buildings, while some will be given the work in the office of the county superintendent, at the Court House.

MORE PEDAGOGUES TO GET SALARY BOOSTS IN 1919

At the regular meeting of the school board last Thursday night, the members were unanimous in favor of raising the wages of seven more teachers in the city schools, and the following are the beneficiaries of the $10 a month increase: Zoe Brown, Lydia Doolittle, Elizabeth Ellison, Elizabeth Wagner, Elizabeth Lewis, Rose Price, and Maud Tuxley.

At the same meeting, Mrs. L. Sheets, of Bellingham, Washington was selected to fill the position at the Eastham school, made vacant by the leave of absence extended Miss Adah Mass, who will spend the next term in the east.

BANDS ENLARGED AND BUGLE CORPS ORGANIZED

Acting on a suggestion of Gen. Pershing an order has been issued increasing each regiment's band from 25 to 50 members. Band leaders having had more than five years' military experience as band leaders will be made first lieutenants; those with less than five years' experience will be made second lieutenants.

Beside enlarging the bands a bugle and drum corps will be added to each regiment. Each corps will include the company buglers of its regiment, and not more than 13 drummers.

High Percentage of Citizens

An interesting feature of the recent registration of new class one men here is that out of the 189 registrants, but 6 were not citizens of the United States. This is considered by local registration officials as being a high per cent for naturalization.

All were white men, also states the board.

Be a "potatrot." Help eat up the national surplus of spuds, and save the other foods.

PRELIMINARY TRAINING AT U. OF O. FOR REGISTRANTS

Sheriff Wilson, as head of the local war board, has received a communication from President Campbell, of the University of Oregon, in which the announcement of the military encampment at the college is made.

According to the letter, the program of the famous Plattsburg officers' training camp will be followed out. All Clackamas county registrants who expect to be called, home guard members, high school instructors, or any private citizen who wishes, may attend the classes at Eugene. The encampment commences on June 24th and runs for four weeks.

Lieutenant-Colonel John Leader, of the Royal Irish Rifles, and an officer of the American army, will be present as chief instructors. Those passing the examinations for the course will be qualified to act as home guard organizers, and school teachers who pass will be qualified to teach military tactics to high school students. The physical and mental training received at the encampment will be advantageous to any one, and a more profitable vacation would be hard to find in these times of war. For class one men, the encampment will be of especial value, as it will aid in promotion when they receive their call. The charge for the four weeks' course is $40, which includes meals and lodging.

CLASS FOR SPECIAL STUDY IS QUICKLY FILLED HERE

Clackamas county's quota for the special mechanical course at the Benson Polytechnic school in Portland required 12 men, who have signed up for this service. "Mrs. MARY BOYD, 1421 5th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio."

ECLIPSE OF SUN COMES ACCORDING TO SCHEDULE

Smoked glass was in good demand last Saturday afternoon, and the streets and high hills were lined with multitudes of awe-stricken sky-gazers. The advantage of a clear firmament was not had here, hazy clouds preventing a perfect observation of the phenomenon. Nevertheless, some of the more ardent amateur astronomers said that they could behold the colors of the corona, just as the eclipse reached the apex of darkness. The colors of the rainbow were plainly visible, they say, although the greater majority of the Oregon City folks were denied sight of the beautiful corona.

DR. KERR IS ASKED TO CONTINUE SPEAKING TOUR

Dr. W. J. Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural college, has been asked by the government to continue his series of war-and-food talks in different sections of the country.

"No need to ask," said he, "for whatever interests are entrusted to our charge we shall simply wire the government that we shall care for them. No one claims to see where the war will be won in a year or in five years, and we must go on building up resources and morals to back up the boys now gathering at the front."

School Play a Success

The play given at the Shively Opera house last Thursday night by the senior class of the high school, was well attended, and proved to be an interesting feature. The title of the piece was "What Happened to Brags," a farce comedy calling forth much applause from the audience. Each of the several amateur thespians in the cast did good work.
