STAFFORD

The blessed rain fell last week upon the gardens, corn fields and potatoes of the just and unjust alike, doing an immense lot of good, although too late to benefit grain.

The pastures, too, begin already to look green, whereas, before the rain, they looked as grey as winter.

CHERRYVILLE

This is fine growing weather.

The crops of grain and vegetables, which we thought lost or nearly so, have very much improved.

Napoleon's retreat from Moscow was not any more disastrous than the retreat of Wilhelm the Last towards the Rhine and the Fatherland.

If God Almighty divinely appointed Wilhelm the damned to rule over the German nationas as is alleged by the Germans, he showed mighty poor judgment for a divinely (?) appointed ruler to deliberately insult and add insult to injury after repeated warnings to add the Great Republic to his many enemies. It was an action worse than folly—it was a frightful mistake and the culminating cause of his doom and utter ruin. Marching through Germany will soon be an action equal to marching through Georgia for the American soldiers.

Fred and Walter Alt, who are now at Fort McDowell, California, expect to be sent to Russia across the Pacific to Vladivostok and be transported across Siberia, striking the Germans with the victorious Czech-Slovaks, who have captured and defeated the Bolsheviks. A vast army will soon be assembled in Russia.

Achie Averill, writing from England, sends pictures of cities there with the most important buildings, being cathedrals or palaces, both for kings and priests, while the people who built them live in hovels. This state of affairs will not last long after this war.

The wedding of Lillian Averill to George Ten Eyck occured at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday evening of last week. The house and church, where the ceremony was performed by W. J. Wirtz, of Sandy, were very tastefully and beautifully decorated. The bride has been a teacher in this county and Klamath county for the past seven years and holds a life certificate. The groom is an active and prosperous rancher and sawmill man of Marmot, thoroughly reliable and held in high esteem wherever known. After the ceremony the invited guests, consisting mostly of relatives, went to the house, where the wedding cake and ice cream were served. The newly-weds are now gone on a wedding or honeymoon trip to Mt. Jefferson, camping out in the open, and will probably be gone for a month if the weather continues favorable. The best wishes for the future go with them as they are both good, useful members of society and deserve a long and useful life.

MEDFORD, OREGON—"For three or four days at a time I would suffer untold agony, it was this way for years. I doctored all the time but never got any help. A friend told me about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took three bottles and never had any more trouble. At another time I had terrible dizzy spells and a catarrhal condition also; had that 'all-gone,' tired feeling; was nervous; and after each meal would bloat something terribly. Had indigestion so that I could hardly eat anything and my heart was affected. I again took the 'Favorite Prescription' and it cured me. It is a grand medicine and I am glad to tell others how it helped me.

"The 'Pleasant Pellets cured me of chronic constipation; regulated my bowels so that I never had any more trouble." MRS. A. D. LITTLE, 36 N. Riverside, Ave

LOGAN

With our minds on the mighty history-making struggle that is going on in the world, it is hard to keep in touch with local happenings, except those that are related to the big news.

C. A. Kirchem writes that he is kept busy since his return to Kelly Field training camp.

Fred Minder has enlisted in the medical corps and has gone into training at the Washington camp. He made a flying trip home and remained over Sunday.

Albert Gerber and Floyd Kirchem are impatient at the delay in being called to prepare for service.

Erma Babler has gone to California as the bride of Ray Forsche, one of Uncle Sam's soldiers to-be, who is in training there. Her sister, Elma, is also there and both are telegraph operators.

Fred Gerber is building a well house and tower for N. L. Kirchem.

Henry Thun has a separator now and is prepared for threshing.

Henry Babler has a new threshing outfit and it seems that the Logan country should not be delayed in threshing as there are five threshers here.

Most of the fall wheat is cut and some was caught in the rain but was not damaged.

Some oats are being cut and seem to be a short crop, in straw at least.

Earl Gerber has bought a phonograph and can have canned music whenever the occasion calls for it.

M. H. Reibhoff has bought Thomas E. Anderson's house and ten acres of land and will make his home there.

Henry Kohl's thoroughbred male hog got sick and died, which was a very unpatriotic thing for him to do.

The grading on the Carver railroad is progressing suely but slowly on account of labor shortage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Steinman were Logan visitors from Eagle Creek recently.

L. Kohl had a barn-raising on the 21st.

Mr. Feathers is keeping Youngs' truck busy hauling cattle, sheep, hogs and other produce and feed.

Events over in France are justifying the old saying that "Thrice is he armed that hath his quarrel just." Men will fight harder and longer for justice, right and liberty than for the ancient inspiration of conquest. That it is a struggle of autocracy attempting to crush democracy is proven by their first and fiercest attack on the greatest republic of Europe that had achieved its freedom through a bloody revolution. Belgium was crushed because it refused to clear the way for the murderous attack. They had a contempt for democratic governments, believing them weak and not adapted for war. But they finally awoke the sleeping giant of the West that has grappled with the beast before, that has the greatest and best of all preparedness, a determination to do and die for its ideals, and the greatest resources of any nation on earth. If might is the only logic they will accept, they shall have that in full measure.

AN OREGON CITY MAN'S EXPERIENCE

James Wilkinson, retired farmer, 201 Fourteenth street, says: "I had to get up often at night as I couldn't sleep on account of the pains and aches all over me. My limbs were stiff, too. I used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and today although I am in my 70th year I am hale and hearty." (Statement given March 29, 1910.)

Still Praises Doan's

On April 17, 1916, Mr. Wilkinson said: "I am ready to back up every word of my former statement recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. Whenever my kidneys get out of order a few doses of Doan's fix me up all right."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Wilkinson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (Adv.)
