

ARRESTED FOR ALLEGED THEFT OF LIBERTY BOND

Ephriam Emmons appeared in Justice Sievers' court Monday charged with the theft of a $50 Liberty bond, alleged taken from Frank Fisher, an employe of the Crown Willamette paper company. Emmons was formerly employed at the mill, and Fisher claims that while the men were being paid off in the mill, Emmons took an envelope from the mill office containing the bond. Emmons is 74 years of age, and a veteran of the Civil war. He claims he knows nothing of the missing bond, and denies that he ever saw the security. He was formerly an inmate of the soldiers' home at Roseburg. When apprehended by Special Officer Dill, he was cutting wood in the Beaver Creek district.

Sues on Mortgage
D. R. Dimick filed suit against H. R. Von Wiedner, Albert W. Riggs and wife, and the Canby State Bank to collect $300 alleged due on a mortgage on a tract of land, No. 67, Canby Gardens. Dimick claims that on December 6, 1913, Von Wiedner appointed L. B. Gorman his attorney in fact, and through Gorman, he obtained a loan from him giving him a mortgage on the tract as security. Mr. and Mrs. Riggs and the Canby State Bank claim some interest in the property.

JOHNSTON WINS REGIMENTAL CHAMPIONSHIP IN BOXING

Frank E. Johnston, who left Gladstone three months ago to join the colors, and who is stationed at Camp Fremont, has just won the lightweight championship in boxing for his regiment at that camp, according to word received by his friends in this city. He is a member of the S. O. S. section, 13th infantry, and has been stationed at Camp Freemont since his enlistment. He is the son of Mrs. Emma Johnston, of Gladstone, and a graduate of the high school at that place. He writes that he expects soon to leave for France.

PIONEER RESIDENT OF COUNTY DIES IN PORTLAND

Mrs. Zoe Audrey Nove, wife of J. W. Nove, of 853 Upshur street, Portland, died Tuesday at the above address. She was formerly of this county and is a daughter of Samuel B. Oglesby and niece of Mrs. Curran of this city. She was also a cousin of Bernice and Albert Curran, and leaves one uncle, Charles Oglesby, of Aurora. Deceased was born and raised in Clackamas county, and had resided here all her life until a few years ago, when she moved to Portland. At the time of her death she was 25 years of age, and leaves no children. Interment was held at the Lone Fir cemetery, and the
