There was quite a windstorm in this vicinity Saturday afternoon and several trees were blown across the Elwood and Springwater canyon road.

Mrs. Susa Linkins and sons of Portland, were visiting at the home of Mrs. Linkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Park, Sunday. If they can rent a house they expect to move out as Mr. Linkins is working for the Clear Creek mill company.

ELWOOD

The warm rains of late have made the fields green. A good crop is expected.

Mr. Bittner was at home over Sunday, from Oregon City, where he is engaged in some special work for the Hawley Paper company.

We are all glad to hear that Charles Mellike is getting along nicely, after the serious operation which he underwent in Portland two weeks ago. We hope to see him home soon.

Mrs. Ritter had the ill luck of losing a good cow, which was killed after being kicked by a horse.

Vallens are having some work done on their up-to-date house.

Miss Nella Vallen has again moved on her homestead.

The people of the Elwood district, after having made several ineffectual efforts to build and establish a telephone system in their community, seem to be getting off on the right foot a last, having obtained a franchise from the county court for a pole line. They will erect a pole line to Estacada with connections at that place. They are asking for articles of incorporation as a cooperative association under the state laws and of the board of control and, being so organized and established, will no doubt make a success of it.

EAGLE CREEK

Miss Frances Degerstedt, the teacher of the Douglass Ridge school, was a week-end guest at the home of H. F. Gibson, of Barton, and attended the basket social given at Barton Saturday evening.

Mrs. Walter Douglass spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duus, of Garfield.

Mrs. Naylor was a Portland visitor recently.

TWILIGHT

Wouldn't you become skittish if some big duffer had overrun your front yard two or three times? Then why blame France for wishing a permanent alliance with other countries against Germany?

Mr. and Mrs. Walker, nee Rose Spiger, paid a hurried visit to the latter's father, J. F. Spiger, last week.

Just before the war closed our government contracted thousands of tons of potatoes from Canadian growers. Recently these spuds were dumped on the markets of this country to the detriment of domestic producers. At any rate from a gradually increasing demand, potato markets became sluggish with a downward tendency and so continues. Question—Wouldn't Senator Chamberlain be justified in another scream in behalf of the growers of his country?

Mrs. Carl Swick is under the doctor's care.

Quite a number of our people witnessed the airplane maneuvers in Portland Monday.

The Calf club feels seriously the loss of Mr. Olmsted, but he leaves with a full assurance of their appreciation of his acts toward them.

Quite a few in our neighborhood feel slightly indisposed at this time. The old hen can't be made broody, and the outcome of various incubator efforts are very unsatisfactory this spring.

What is looking fine—weather fair but cool—gardening slow, but we can't complain.

P. S. King while loading wood in the timber, slipped and fell from his wagon, alighting across a small log, breaking two ribs and otherwise bruising himself. He is optimistic, however, saying it might have been worse.

Most of the early spuds are in and corn ground is being put in condition for seeding.

A number of Milwaukie boys spent Monday with the Montgomery boys, thoroughly enjoying themselves during the day.

PARKPLACE

Mrs. William Hammond, of Gladstone, is going to lecture on "Birds of Oregon," at the Grange hall Saturday afternoon, at three o'clock. Everyone is invited, and we assure you it will be worth your time. If you are a Granger, come early, for this meeting is going to be full of interesting things. Eight new members are to be initiated, and many important things are to come up.

Grange meetings are always snappy and full of interest. Come and join us. And oh boy! Those Grange dinners!

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh were Portland visitors Saturday evening.

Mrs. Chris Rivers has been spending several days with her little granddaughter, Maxine Keelley, of Portland, who has been very ill with pneumonia. She is home again, Maxine being much better.

The Grange Aid Society met last Friday, and worked hard. They finished a quilt, and expect to turn out another one this Friday. They are very industrious, and they also serve wonderful dinners. So some day when you are not awfully busy, just come in and get acquainted.

Elvin Smith, a Parkplace soldier, who has returned recently from France, will probably get another furlough this week. Mr. Smith was home last week for the first time in over two years. He spent a few days at home then went on to Camp Lewis, where he expects to be discharged soon. He has many interesting trophies, and German souvenirs, but says that he lost many while in the hospital. Henry Frazier, another Parkplace boy, who has seen many months of fighting, also has many interesting trophies, and wonderful stories to tell.

Homer Coffey, a well known Parkplace boy, who has recently joined the Marines, is hoping to get a furlough, and see his parents. He is stationed in California now, but expects to be moved further from home. We hope he gets his furlough.

Easter services were held at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon. The children had the main program and it was a very good one.

Sunday morning all the members of the Parkplace church united with the Oregon City Congregational church. There were many who united, and several new names were added. The Sunday school will still be maintained here, as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffey had a surprise Monday afternoon in the shape of an auto load of people from La Camas. They stayed only a short time, however, having been in Portland to see the planes, and while so close, decided to come on up and say "hello." They expected to return home the same evening.

Mr. Sitton, pastor of Gladstone Baptist church, was a Parkplace visitor last week.

Mrs. Rivers' sister, Mrs. Lowry, and daughter, Beulah, returned to their home in Vacca Valley by steamer this week. They have been visiting here for the last two weeks.

Miss Grace Barnette spent the week-end at her home.

SAVE MONEY ON SHOES FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

From Foochow, China, comes this letter from R. E. Gardner, Foochow College: "Neolin Soles have solved the shoe problem for me. Other soles wore out quickly on the rocky roads here, and I had no end of trouble with them," he writes.

Where other soles fail, Neolin Soles always stand the test of hard wear and rough usage. This fact points the way to economy. Buy Neolin-soled shoes for the whole family, and to save shoe money. And have Neolin Soles put on your old shoes, too.

These durable, flexible, and waterproof soles are scientifically made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear all other heels.
