TWILIGHT

The greatest pleasure I derive from the change in time, is when I hear the clock strike seven in the morning and know that it's only six.
 Both Mrs. L. E. Bently and daughter, Florence, wrestled with the mumps last week.
 What is there more beautiful than apple blossoms, of which the trees just now are laden.
 The public school gave a short program Friday afternoon.
 The country never looked more inviting than it does this spring.
 A load of fat hogs, fed at Mount Pleasant, passed here last week for the Canby market. It's a straw, but it would appear that Oregon City merchants have not the proper sense of distinguishing its meaning.
 Tom Kelland is closely scanning the auto directories, and has every earmark of an early purchaser. Go to it, Tom, none are more deserving of the luxuries.
 Our soldier boys, of which this community boasts an even half dozen, are homeward bound, and our fondest wish is for an early and safe arrival.
 The weather still keeps cool, but calm and pleasant, with an occasional April shower that just makes one love old Oregon.
 When the lawyers and politicians are solidly "agin" a thing, let the common people beware, and not depend too largely on their best interests being looked after from that source.
 "None of us are very good," winds up a motto recently seen on a family wall that seems to meet the approval of most minds properly balanced. Then why criticize too sharply our neighbor's shortcomings?
 Mrs. Lester Montgomery at this writing is seriously ill and is under the care of a sister from Milwaukee.

UPPER HIGHLAND

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kandle of Mist, Oregon, visited at the M. E. Kandle home part of Friday and Saturday.
 Saturday evening a large number of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rutherford's friends gathered at his home for a party. The affair was rather impromptu, nevertheless there was quite a large crowd. It was truly a surprise party in every sense of the word. The evening was spent in dancing. Refreshments were served. Among those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Graves, Henry, Alice and Charles Nelson, Walter and Roy Haines, Elva Gard, Rufert Marquet, Hubert Schram, Ruth Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Budz McVay, Mollie and Bell McVay, Hilda Chase, Esther, Will and John Martin, Willie Schmidt, Willie Washburn, Harry and Elsie Baurer, Mr. and Mrs. Brady Rambo and children.

 Friday morning at 11 o'clock, Upper Highland school, en masse, marched to Lower Highland for the spelling match, singing "Do you spell prairie prair, or prarer, or how? Is there an 'n' in charmed? Does 'e' come before 'f' in sense or is it in sieve? etc." They stopped at Martin's new house for lunch, which was served from a prettily decorated table, and eaten from unique plates. Boiled eggs, sandwiches, salad, pickles and cake constituted the menu. After lunch the journey was resumed and just as the one o'clock whistles were blowing the Upper Highland folks "blew" into the school yard. After listening to a very nice program the spelling match began and proved exciting from beginning to end. Our first person down got into "mischief" and had to take her seat. The last persons to remain on Upper Highland's side were Belle McVay and Esther Martin. The former went down on "hosiery," and Esther Martin finally succeeded in winning. Afterwards, adjourning to the school grounds a very exciting ball game ensued, featuring Mr. N. B. Land as umpire. A fierce battle then took place between Lower Highland with Hubert Schramm and James Hanhart against Lower Highland and Johnnie Martin. The final score in favor of Upper Highland was 27-23.
 Everyone here had a very pleasant time and when leaving gave the following yell—

She—She—She's all right!
 Who—Who—Who's all right?
 She's all right! Who's all right?
 Lower Highland!
 They returned the compliment with happily rippling rurs.
 There's nothing the matter with us. But nevertheless
 We must confess
 There's nothing the matter with Upper Highland!
 Meeting adjourned at 4:30.
 Mrs. Rambo, James Hanhart, John Martin and Hubert Schram, from this district, were at the match.
 Mr. and Mrs. Albert Martin are the proud parents of an eight pound boy, who was born Sunday, April 27, at 11:30 a. m.
 A big ball game was staged on the Hettman field on Sunday afternoon. A small but enthusiastic crowd witnessed it. There were no Upper and Highland sides, but sides were chosen. The final score was 27-20. Another game will be played next Sunday on the Haines place. Time—probably about 1:30 p. m.
 Last week we stated that there would be a Mother's Day program on May 3d. We made a mistake as to the date, which will be the evening of May 10, instead of May 3d. There will be a basket social also, after the program, which will consist of songs, recitations and dialogues by the school. There will also be a free-for-all spelling match and perhaps a spelling match between Upper and Lower Highland.
 Time—8:00 p. m.
 Date—May 10.
 Where—Upper Highland church.
 Who—Everybody.
 Proceeds are to go to the school district for library books and a new chair. Some will also go for lamps for the church. Everyone urged to attend.
 Canby Takes Game
 The Canby high school defeated Oregon City high school 12 to 5 in a diamond contest at Canby April 22.

Are You a Quitter?

The world has no use for the quitter. In the prize ring, on the battlefield, and in the whole field of human endeavor, there is nothing but contempt for the man who fails to see his effort through. America's reputation for gameness is at stake in the Fifth Liberty Loan. All the fruits of victory will be lost if we fail to finish. It is for every money-earning individual to do his or her part for the nation's good name. Let the world say: "America saw it through—those Yankees never quit!"
