This is the experience of most women who have been tempted to try so-called cheaper baking powders which almost always contain alum and often leave a bitter taste.

OREGON PIONEER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

George William McCarver, a native of Oregon and one of the most widely known pioneers of this section, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Babcock, in Oregon City April 23, after a long illness and following two operations, one 14 months ago and the other on Nov. 8.

Mr. McCarver was born in Canemah February 6, 1855. He was the eldest son of the late Thomas Jennings McCarver and Mary E. McCarver, early Oregon pioneers, and grandson of the late General M. M. McCarver, who came to the Westfoot state in 1843.

He was a lover of flowers and made them a hobby for many years. He had habitually worn a lapel bouquet of seasonable blooms since boyhood. He held a tiny bunch of violets in his hand when death came.

Probably no man in Clackamas county was better known than George, Esquire, as he was called by his hundreds of friends. His personality was magnetic in its unvaried optimism and sincerity.

His was the third death in the McCarver family in the last few months. His mother, Mrs. Mary McCarver, died here Nov. 30, and his brother, Harry McCarver of Portland, passed away Dec. 14.

He was a member of the Elks lodge. One son, Fred K. McCarver, of Venice, Cal., three sisters, Mrs. Harry W. Myers, Mrs. Charles C. Babcock and Miss Anita McCarver of Oregon City; a brother, Charles McCarver of Oregon City, and a nephew, Charles Babcock, Jr., of Portland, survive him.

Mrs. Mary Hurley of Coronado, Cal., one of the first residents of Oregon City, and of Mrs. Sarah Hildebrandt of St. Joseph, Mo.

A great throng attended the funeral services in the Babcock residence Sunday afternoon. Many beautiful floral offerings were the final tribute of his friends to Mr. McCarver's love for flowers. Men and women from many parts of the state came to pay their last respects to the man who was held high in their esteem. The Rev. C. H. L. Chandler, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, officiated. The pallbearers were William Myers, Thomas Myers, J. B. Olson and Charles Babcock, Jr., of Portland and Frank Cox and A. B. Dillman of this city.

Interment was made in the family plot of Mountain View.

"Spring Fever" and Common Sense If a man or woman feels heavy, dull, languid, lazy,—lacking in ambition and energy—instead of giving up and saying he has "spring fever," it is more sensible to take a good, wholesome physic. Biliousness, sick headache, sour stomach, gas, bloating, coated tongue, dyspepsia—all are relieved by Foley Cathartic Tablets.

CONCERT WINS HEARTS OF MUSIC LOVERS HERE

Oregon City music lovers packed Busch's hall Sunday afternoon to hear the concert of Flechtner's orchestra, made up of local musicians. The program was almost entirely instrumental.

Applause punctuated the concert almost with every number. The audience was appreciative. The unqualified success of this event should go to prove that Oregon City has a large class of residents who appreciate good music.

The stilted effect so often noticeable in musical students under egotistical instructors was absent. True interpretation and exact coloring were successfully presented. There was no attempt to imitate masters. The theme and thought of the players seemed to be clear expression.

Several members of the Portland symphony orchestra assisted the local musicians. Fifty pieces participated. Gustav Flechtner as a director proved himself an able artist.

Massenet's "Elegie," the overture, "Romantique" by Keler Bela and three poetic melodies brought eager response from the hundreds of listeners. The "Pique Dame" overture and several other numbers also won hearts.

Ferdinand Konrad, cellist, known throughout Oregon, Mrs. H. A. Berkman, pianist, and Mrs. Eugene Moore, vocalist, were among those whose splendid genius made the concert one of flawless strength.

This was the fifth annual concert presented by Professor Flechtner.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. MILLER ARE HELD

Mrs. Louise Miller died at her home in Viola last Thursday evening. Funeral services were held at the church there at one o'clock Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Mr. A. Demoy. A large number of friends and neighbors paid their last respects to her.

Interment was made in the cemetery on the hill near her old home, where she had lived for the last 33 years. She had been tenderly cared for by her son, Edward, and her aged husband. She had been an invalid for a year or more.

Mrs. Louise Miller was born in Ulm, Germany, December 26, 1840. She was married to Carl Miller May 20, 1860. She was the mother of 16 children, 10 of whom are living. They are, C. C. Miller, Portland; Eliza Coberly, St. Jose, Calif.; Robert and Adolph, of George; Annie Stone, of Highland; Edward and Raymond, and Mrs. Lulu Hamilton, of Viola, and Alfred, of California. Seventeen grandchildren and four great-grandchildren also survive her.

BIG OFFENSIVE AGAINST FINNY TRIBE IS OPENED

Salmon fishing has become increasingly popular during the last week. Hundreds of anglers are to be seen daily at the favored spots near Oregon City. Large catches have been made. Several salmon landed on regulation tackle have weighed more than 30 pounds.

Laughter and gaiety are the order of the day at the "first line" near the rapids, the second anchorage opposite Oregon City and the point where the enemy is advancing in mass formation near the falls.

Spoon-hooks are the most popular bait. It is said to be too early in the season for the use of wobblers.

Cheers and jeers mark every catch. A moving picture camera was set up in a boat near the rapids last Sunday just in the nick of time. Immediately someone cried "Fish-on" in transports of ecstasy, the camera was turned upon him and he put forth his best efforts in showing everybody who should see that film just how to catch a salmon in the most sportsmanlike way.

All went well until his companion in the boat snagged the gaff-hook under the salmon's gills. The big fish jumped and fought and spluttered. White foam and flashing tail were caught upon the film.

Then somebody got nervous. Instead of lifting the huge game above the stern, the gaff-hook manipulator pulled it against the boat—and pulled some more. Salmon are slippery and this one was no exception. It slipped.

The two sportsmen were facing the right direction, so they didn't sit down in the river, but the bottom of the boat received a jar that shivered its timbers when they both made it an emergency resting place, with the salmon on top.

"Hold 'im up," a jealous angler shouted. And they started to hold 'im up, but the salmon couldn't get the idea or something. He flopped mightily and fishermen and fish found the boat bottom the only really good place to sit again. Fatty and Charlie couldn't have done it better.

"Aw, you don't want him now—he's all wet!" teased a fellow who'd been there since old Sol put forth his first warm smile and still lacked three of having the limit.

"How'd you catch him?" queried a neighbor who was far enough away to be safe from any hurtling tackle can.

During the first two weeks in May, veteran fishermen declare, the salmon sport on the world's greatest grounds will be at its height.

Electric trains from Portland were loaded heavily early last Sunday morning. Boats were at a premium. Scores were disappointed because they could not hire boats at any price. Fishing was good that day, too. But the strange freaks that make for belief in "fisherman's luck" persisted.

While many caught the limit early and went home cussing the game laws, many stayed and stayed and stayed and went home at night without being bothered about lugging the pesky critters up the bank. These latter cussed also—about the one they nearly had in the boat. And it was the biggest fish that ever abode in the Willamette!

SPRING FEVER Following Colds, Grippe, Thin, Watery or Poisoned Blood

(BY DR. VALENTINE MOTT.)

At this time of year most people suffer from what we term "spring fever" because of a stagnant condition of the blood, because of the toxic poisons stored up within the body during the long winter. We eat too much meat, with little or no green vegetables.

Bloodless people, thin, anemic people, those with pale cheeks and lips, who have a poor appetite and feel that tired, worn or feverish condition in the spring-time of the year, should try the refreshing tonic powers of a good alterative and blood purifier. Such a tonic as Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a standard remedy that can be obtained in tablet or liquid form. Made without alcohol from wild roots and bark.

Occasionally one should "clean house" with castor oil or tiny pills made up of the May-apple, leaves of aloe and jalap, and sold by almost all druggists in this country as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Los Angeles, Cal.—"I will gladly tell of the relief and cure Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery gave me. I was sick with all troubles of stomach, liver, etc., and La Grippe with all its attending ailments. When all else failed Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery did the good work. I also took Pleasant Pellets for biliousness, with grand success. I write with gratitude to tell others of the relief that is in store for them. Do not delay but hasten to get the above remedies if suffering from any indisposition."—Samuel Kalisky, 978 Euclid Ave.

West Linn Sues Railway The city of West Linn filed suit in circuit court Monday against the Southern Pacific railway company and Walker D. Hines as director-general, setting forth in the complaint that a strip of land in West Linn was a public road and that the defendants claim it is not a road. It is alleged that the Willamette Falls company platted lands in West Linn known as the Willamette tracts and the Tualatin tracts and set aside the streets, and hat through the one in question the city laid a water main.

Is Your Blood Starving For Want of Iron?

Modern Methods of Cooking and Living Have Made an Alarming Increase in Iron Deficiency in Blood of American Men and Women

Why Nuxated Iron so Quickly Helps Build Up Weak, Nervous, Run-Down Folks—Over 3,000,000 People Annually Taking It to Increase Their Strength, Power, Energy and Endurance.

"Is your blood starving for want of iron? If you were to go without eating until you became weak, thin and emaciated, you could not do a more serious harm to yourself than when you let your blood literally starve for want of iron—iron that gives it strength and power to change food into living tissue."—Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital.

"Modern methods of cooking and the rapid pace at which people of this country live have made such an alarming increase in iron deficiency in the blood of American men and women that I have often marvelled at the large number of people who lack iron in the blood, and who never suspect the cause of their weak, nervous, run-down state. Lack of sufficient iron in the blood has ruined many a man's nerves and utterly robbed him of that virile force and stamina which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life.

"I strongly advise those who feel the need of a strength and blood-builder to get a physician's prescription for organic iron—Nuxated Iron—if you don't want to go to this trouble, then purchase only Nuxated Iron in its original packages and see that this particular name (Nuxated Iron) appears on the package."

In commenting upon the value of Nuxated Iron as a means for creating red blood strength and endurance, Dr. George H. Baker, formerly physician and surgeon, Monmouth Memorial Hospital, New Jersey, says: "What women need to put roses in their cheeks and the spring-time of life into the step is not cosmetics or stimulating drugs, but plenty of rich pure red blood. Iron is one of the greatest of all strength and blood-builders and unless this iron is obtained from our food it must be supplied in some form that is easily assimilated if we want to possess power, energy and endurance. I have found nothing in my experience so effective for helping to make strong, healthy red-blooded men and women as Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron's Worth: Nuxated Iron which is prepared and recommended above by physicians is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older iron preparations it is easily assimilated and does not irritate the stomach. The manufacturer guarantees successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser as they will not refuse to take it. It is dispensed by all good druggists.
