Rabbi Joseph Goldman, Russian Jew, who has suffered extreme cruelties at the hands of the Bolshevikis in Russia, will give an address in this city on next Sunday evening at the Methodist church. His subject will be "The Home Coming of Israel." Rabbi Goldman probably has suffered more than any other man in Russia. His wife and six children Seattle, and was with the 91st division when it went to France. He went over the top twice, and was in many engagements, receiving no injuries. Two days before the armistice was signed, the young hero was blown to atoms by a German shell. "I do not regret it," said Rabbi

Goldman. "When a man dies for America, he lives forever." Such is the kind of a man you will be privileged to hear next Sunday evening at the Methodist church. Rabbi Goldman carries a message on behalf of the Jews. In an inter-view with a COURIER reporter, he said: "You will not find a single Jew in the ranks of the I. W. W." He is on his way to Palestine, where he will join thousands of Jews in the homecoming to the Holy land, recently redeemed from the barbarous Turks. Come out and hear him.
