THESE DURABLE SOLES WORN BY MILLIONS

"After giving Neolin Soles a thorough trial, I would not go back to the soles I used to wear even though the cost were less. I receive twice the service from shoes with Neolin Soles," writes G. P. Jones, of Omaha.
More than 10,000,000 pairs of Neolin Soles have been put on American shoes. People were quick to realize the advantages of this scientifically-made sole—its long wear, its comfort, water-proofness—and its final economy. Good shoe stores everywhere sell Neolin-soled shoes in many styles for men, women, and children.
And any repairman will re-sole your worn shoes with Neolin Soles—made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

Cataract Washer

She Sits and Sews While the Washer Goes

The worst part of housework is the washing—when done in the old way, on the rubboard, rasping the dirt and soil out of each piece separately, by hand. If you have a hand machine it will help out, but even then someone must push and pull the handle back and forth, and, although it is not hard, it becomes arduous before the family washing is completed. Then, the wringer must be turned by hand, and this is by far more tiresome than operating the washer.

Hand operated machines have been done away with in the factory, in the office, and in the institution, and, in fact, everywhere. Men now use machinery operated by power. Why should women not do likewise.

CORRESPONDENCE

Miss Dorothy Dodds, one of our sweetest little girls, celebrates her 5th birthday May 22d. Dorothy recently lost a pet lamb by the death of a catarrh of the throat and stomach, from which she is deeply interested. Another thing, she is thrifty, and while extremely fond of ice cream, says she hates to spend her money for it.

Bert Harvey has received his discharge from the navy and is at this writing on his way home overland from New York. He is not expected to reach the coast before June 1st, making a number of stops enroute.

At a called meeting of our citizens last Saturday night it was decided to properly express our appreciation for our returning soldier boys on their arrival home and committees on general arrangements, decoration and entertainment were appointed. The date is open and will be announced later.

Your correspondent (A. H. Harvey) has been named as manager of the Boys' Galf club, and as a result is all puffed up. We always have admired a nice boy, and the six members of this club in his estimation have a record confronting them that looks extremely gratifying.

PERUNA and MANALIN Cured Me

Mrs. E. M. Harris, R. R. No. 3, Ashland, Wis., sends a message of cheer to the sick:

"After following your advice and using Peruna and Manalin, I was cured of catarrh of the nose, throat and stomach, from which I had suffered for several years. When I commenced taking Peruna I could not make my bed without stopping to rest. Now I do all my work and am in good health. I recommend this valuable remedy to all suffering from any disease of the stomach."
