KEEP YOUR OWN HOUSE

The hardest housekeeping in the world is the housekeeping that we do for our neighbors.

No one can live his life and two or three other people's lives besides. So what's the use of setting up housekeeping on the roofs or on the outside walls for the benefit of the neighbors?

They may not say so in so many words, but they mean it, and it is simply a great big vacuum in some of our natures where moral courage ought to be.

Half the sting of poverty or of small means is gone when one keeps house for himself and not for his neighbors.

WHY DOES SHE DO IT?

This is the season when almost every home in Oregon City is in turmoil and the so-called head of the house is an outcast.

Monday—Got my report card today. average was ninety. pa was tickled, so was ma and pa give me a dime for 2 buy sum candy. am saving sum for J. E. when I see her at school tomorrow.

Slat's Diary

Thursday—Jake & me had decided to make a lot of money by starting a farm & raising pole cats.

Friday—found a pole cat in our trap. Jake & me, ma sed there isent no sents in pole cats.

Saturday—Pa tuk a new job at a nother stoar today. he is a head man he gets there ahead of every 1 else & sweeps up & etc.

Sunday—Come home from the countrie with my stummick aching from eating chicken & bacon & ham & buttermilk & all.

Monday—Got my report card today. average was ninety. pa was tickled, so was ma and pa give me a dime for 2 buy sum candy.

Tuesday—teacher sed for me 2 bring my report card up, which I did. She seen she had maid a mistake & had gave me Shrimp Clays card & my grade only was sixty 3.

Wednesday—pa & ma including me went 2 see a new baby which had came 2 our neighbors home.

Thursday—Teacher was explaining about the League of Nations 2 us & Jake ast her when does the Leag play the Opening game & where & she sed yure dummer than Slat is & Jake shurely is a dum kid.

COUNTY AND CITY LOCALS

West Linn C. W. Inn will buy your pig and pay cash. Call on Mr. Barlow when next in town.

Mrs. Herbert Martin and daughter, Elizabeth, of Portland, were in this city last Thursday.

Mrs. W. B. Silcox, formerly a resident of Oregon City, but now living at The Dalles, has been visiting with Mrs. W. B. Eddy of Sixth and High streets.

Mrs. E. R. Gregory, residing in Greenwood, was an Oregon City visitor Saturday. She was accompanied home by Miss Nan Cochran, who enjoyed a visit with her over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Meldrum and two sons are occupying their residence on Steel avenue, Meldrum, and are to make their residence there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Latourette were visitors at Seaside over Saturday and Sunday, going there to attend the meeting of the Bankers' association. They returned to this city Monday.

Arthur Vernon Davis is home from France, after serving with the 324th Bakery company for the past 18 months in the service of Uncle Sam. His parents, who live here, had written several times to him while he was in France, but failed to hear from him for over nine months. The young soldier claims that he answered all of their letters, but that the mail probably had gone astray. He has been up to the front line several times while in France, and was gassed upon one occasion, when he got behind the German lines, but later escaped. He has just recovered from an attack of pneumonia. Davis reports that he is glad to get back to Oregon City, and that he has had enough of the war.

At a meeting of the King's Daughters, held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Lewthwaite Thursday afternoon, officers of the order were elected for the coming year.

Obituaries

Mrs. C. C. Schroeder Mrs. C. C. Schroeder, of the Stafford district, died at the Oregon City hospital Monday afternoon, after an illness of several weeks. She is the wife of Conrad Schroeder, and was born in Germany 49 years ago. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. DeNeul. Deceased came to this country in 1884, and first settled in North Dakota, where she resided until 1890, when she came to Oregon. In the fall of 1892 she was united in marriage to Conrad Schroeder, of Stafford. She is survived by her husband and six children—Mrs. Anna Schaubel, Mrs. Mamie Miller, Mrs. Lottie Coulson, Mrs. Lydia Ellingsen, Roy Schroeder and Lulu Schroeder; also by two brothers, John DeNeul and R. DeNeul, of Stafford. Funeral services will be held this afternoon (Thursday), from the family residence, and interment will take place in the Stafford cemetery. Rev. W. T. Milliken, of the First Baptist church of this city, will officiate at the services.

MAYOR ARRESTED—CLEARED ON INSUFFICIENT EVIDENCE

Mayor R. L. Holman, of this city, was arrested Friday by Chief of Police Woodward for breaking the traffic laws of Oregon City. He was charged with turning at the intersection of Seventh and Main streets, which is prohibited under the new city ordinances. The complaint against the mayor was sworn out by A. R. Diersch, a salesman for the Miller-Parker company, who was arrested himself for driving by a street car while the car was unloading passengers.

Mr. Diersch claimed that he had picked up a man who desired to catch the car, and gave him a lift to Eighth street. When he returned to Seventh street, he was arrested by Chief of Police Woodward and the mayor, who were standing on the street at the time. He pled not guilty, but Judge Loder fined him $5. In return, Diersch swore out a warrant for the mayor's arrest, claiming that while he did not see the mayor turn at the intersection of Seventh street with his car, he could produce witnesses who did see the violation of the traffic rules by the mayor. He gave the names of Dr. W. E. Hempstead and A. Roebeker as the witnesses.

At the trial Saturday, one of the witnesses claimed that he did not remember the date of the occurrence and the other witness claimed that he was in doubt as to whether it was the mayor's car, or some other car. The case was dismissed for want of sufficient evidence.

AN OREGON CITY MAN'S EXPERIENCE

Read this: James Wilkinson, retired farmer, 201 Fourteenth St., says: "I had to get up often at night as I couldn't sleep on account of the pains and aches all over me. My limbs were stiff, too. I used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and today, although I am in my 70th year I am hale and hearty." (Statement given March 23, 1914.)

Still Praises Doan's On April 17, 1914, Mr. Wilkinson said: "I am ready to back up every word of my former statement recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. Whenever my kidneys get out of order a few doses of Doan's fix me up all right."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Wilkinson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

WILLIAM MILLER RETURNS— WAS IN FRANCE 17 MONTHS

William Miller, who has been with an aviation squadron in France for the past 17 months, returned to this city Friday after being mustered out of the service. William or "Ted," as he is known here, was formerly linotype operator on the COURIER, and when the war broke out with Germany, enlisted at Vancouver. About six months later he was sent to France, and had been in that country serving Uncle Sam ever since.

He reports that while France is a nice place to make a short stay, he prefers the "Little Old U. S." to live in. He claims that the French are about 25 years behind the times, and that their methods and customs are antique. Ted is seriously thinking of going to college, and using his experience as a linotype operator to pay his way through the educational institution. He is in the best of health, and has gained about 15 pounds.

HART SUES ON NOTE OF $600 IN CIRCUIT COURT

Suit has been entered here by J. M. Hart against John F. and Wilmore S. Jennings and the National Baking company and I. M. Blomwick to collect a note for $600 given by Jennings October 30, 1915, which was to run two years at seven per cent. Plaintiff alleges that nothing has been paid on the note which was given to secure real estate, and that he was forced to pay the taxes in the sum of $80.96. Plaintiff asks for a settlement of the note from April 30, 1918, to May 20, 1919, and $100 attorney's fees. The Baking company and Blomwick claim some interest in the property involved, and plaintiff alleges that these claims are second to his own.

Sues on Note P. J. Shepherd filed suit against L. Forsythe and Mrs. A. F. Kiel to collect a note in the sum of $33.70.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

May be Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—This Letter Proves It. West Philadelphia, Pa.—"During the thirty years I have been married, I have been in bad health and had several attacks of nervous prostration until it seemed as if the organs in my whole body were worn out. I was finally persuaded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made a well woman of me. I can now do all my housework and advise all ailing women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I will guarantee they will derive great benefit from it."—Mrs. FRANK FITZGERALD, 25 N. 41st Street, West Philadelphia, Pa.

There are thousands of women everywhere in Mrs. Fitzgerald's condition, suffering from nervousness, backache, headaches, and other symptoms of a functional derangement. It was a grateful spirit for health restored which led her to write this letter so that other women may benefit from her experience and find health as she has done. For suggestions in regard to your condition write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.
