Friday—Went swimming with Jake and Blisters today. I was learning Jake 2 swim over hand but he couldn't. I killed a grate big water snake over a ft. long. Blisters can keep under the water for 20. If you count fast enuff. Saturday—I was pulling up weeds and ma give me 15 cts & I sed Come on ma the war tax aint as yet ben taken off 2 cts more Please & she did. I went 2 a Soshul wich the Boy skouts was giving for 17 cts a ticket. J. E. was there & I ast her did she have enny ticket. She sed Yes so I sed Suppose we eat sum ice cream & we did. I was joking her and kinda making love 2 her & she sorta blushed red & sed I bet you dont know what color my eyes is. I sed They are like a bunch of panies in a fence corner. She smiled cause I cud see she was tickled. Sunday—Pa & ma & me went on a Weak end picknick with a lunch and sum lemons wich was for lemonaid. Wile ma was Preparing our lunch pa & me got a skiff & we went Fishing. pa got his line fast I was leaning out and just for fun I rocked the bot & he went out head last. Wade, of the Carus district, returned to his home from France Thursday, where he has been serving his country as a soldier of the U. S. army. He has been in some of the most fierce engagements of the war, and in one of the battles was so badly gassed that he was given up for dead. Later, he was removed to one of the hospitals in France, where he was confined for several months. He said that he had not heard from his people since last November, and when he arrived in Portland Thursday, was in doubt whether he would be met at the train by all of them or not. He was a member of Battery B, Field Artillery, and has been in Europe since the beginning of the war. He has two brothers in the service, one who is stationed at Fort Sill, Okla., and who was recently married to an Oklahoma young lady, and expects to bring her back with him to Clackamas county. Alva claims that he is surely glad to get back home. Hundreds of picnic parties lined the banks of the Clackamas river Sunday, and autos by the score were parked near the river. The Clackamas river road has been recently graveled, and is in fine shape, making a fine jaunt from Oregon City or Portland for a day's pleasure. ley Drug Co., Molalla (James Russell), $4.15; Huntley Drug Co., $21.70; Mrs. J. M'RAE TO START CHICKEN RANCH AT GLADSTONE The A. Jones tract, situated in the City of Gladstone, was sold Saturday to J. R. McRae, president of the Oregon Poultry Dealers' Association, and who is interested in the McKenna Poultry park, at Portland. The deal was put through by O. E. Freytag, real estate dealer of Gladstone. Mr. McRae intends to transport over 900 pedigreed White Leghorn and Rhode Island Red hens and pullets to the new chicken ranch about July 1, and with this foundation stock to start with, expects to have one of the best poultry farms in Oregon. At the All-Northwestern laying contest at Pullman, Wash., last year, Mr. McRae's stock captured third prize over all contestants, and at present he has some pens of hens which are laying from 200 to 250 eggs per year. Saturday—I was pulling up weeds and ma give me 15 cts & I sed Come on ma the war tax aint as yet ben taken off 2 cts more Please & she did.
