CANBY

Irvine Wheeler is in Portland this week attending to the annual conference of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Relief association.

Chas. Kiohe and son, prosperous farmers living east of Canby, recently purchased 160 acres of land near Union hall, from D. R. Dimick.

R. C. Duke has purchased the old Knight building on Main street and is moving it to a lot fronting the Pacific highway, where he will conduct a garage.

C. C. Evans and family are at home again after a month's absence.

A farewell party was given Myrtle Lorenz last Thursday evening by her associate employees of the Carlton & Rosenkranz company, and a few invited guests. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and music, winding up with dainty refreshments served by the young ladies. Miss Myrtle will leave for Portland soon, where she will enter the Behnke-Walker Business college.

The funeral services of Mrs. Gladys Hutchinson of Newberg, who died in Oregon City January 12, were held in the M. E. church Sunday at 11 o'clock. A large concourse of relatives and friends were in attendance.

Mrs. Hutchinson was only 19 years old and lived here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lowry until her marriage to E. D. Hutchinson six months ago. Interment was in Zion cemetery.

Last Sunday at 3 o'clock funeral services were held in the Nazarene church for Henry Yeary, aged 55, who was killed January 7 by F. Gerber, a trusty at the state hospital for the insane, where Mr. Yeary was working as an attendant. The deceased is survived by a widow and seven children.

Ed. Hollenback has secured a position with the Silver Falls Milling Co. at Silverton. He began his new duties Monday.

J. Lee Eckerson, who has been staying in Eastern Oregon the past year, spent a few days with his family here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. McConnell of Needy, have moved to Canby.

Roy Zimmerman, Frank Zelinski and two of the Berg boys have just returned from Mexico, where they had been on a pleasure jaunt. They say no place they saw on the trip could compare with the Willamette valley.

A double-header basketball game was played in the Canby gym last Friday night. The contesting teams were the Hubbard and Canby boys' and girls' quintets. The Hubbard girls were victorious with a score of 28 to 8, but the Hubbard boys could not break up the passing game of Canby, who won. The score was 30 to 4.

The entertainment given by the Canby High school at their hall last Friday night was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd assembled. The program included a piano solo by Cora Lloyd; a play, "Courtship of Miles Standish," staged by the pupils, in which Lloyd Kendall and Dorothy Vaughan starred, and a clever character song by Opal Wheeler and Eva Knutson. The High School Glee club also gave several selections.

The death of John P. Christensen, who had been ill some time with pneumonia, took place last Friday. Mr. Christensen was born in Denmark in 1870. He had lived near Canby the past 12 years. He is survived by a wife and five children.

The funeral was held from the M. E. church Monday afternoon. Interment was in Zion cemetery.
