

OUR NEAR NEIGHBORS

WEST LINN

The rock pile below A. J. Knightly's store which has been a scene of activity for some time, is practically removed and work will begin immediately on the construction of a concrete walled basement. Mr. Knightly has planned an extension back of his present store which will be of two stories higher above the basement. The upper rooms will be for rent and the lower for the store. Here's to West Linn and advancement!

At West Linn sees a means of crossing the swirling waters. A noble and inspiring span, temporary of course, is practically completed and soon will be the course followed by all who cross the Willamette.

The Shakespeare club met at the home of Mrs. M. W. Hedden last Saturday afternoon. Fourteen were present and the afternoon was passed most enjoyably.

Some of the Oregon City merchants have arranged to supply the West side via the Sellwood Ferry, now that the old bridge is closed to vehicle traffic.

Several doctors of Oregon City have also planned to have cars on the west side so that they may continue their practice as always.

The old bridge was closed Monday morning to vehicle traffic. The trucks carrying sand and gravel for construction are permitted to cross only.

ISSAS LUDWIG GIVES FACTS

"I am 75 years old and for a number of years a sufferer from rheumatism, eczema and severe itching," said Mr. Isaac Ludwig, Delphos, O. "I was compelled to talk on crutches," he continued, "and obtained no relief until I began to take Number 40 Prescription. I have taken in all eight bottles; my rheumatism and itching eczema is gone and I am able to get around without the use of my crutches. I have received great benefit and recommend it to anyone suffering as I was."

Prescription Number 40 is recommended for blood troubles from any cause; chronic constipation, indigestion, stomach and liver troubles, eczema, skin troubles, etc. Acts on the liver removing waste matters from the system thus cleansing the blood of all impurities and doing away with the need of cathartic pills and tablets. Sold by Huntley-Draper Drug Co. Ad.

MT. PLEASANT

Welcome rain the frost did little pleased with his work. Some are damage most to the wood pile from appearances everything looks fresh as spring. Our poultry men are well pleased with their work. Some are making ready for an increase in their flocks. Some few want the electric company to put up poles and furnish lights for the residents if enough can subscribe they promise to look it up.

Well, we had the loss of one of our good neighbors, Mr. Jack Humphrys, as we all called him he will be missed. He had been with us so long.

We also lost one of our esteemed members. We all knew her as Ethel Holmes, who was married to Mr. Gray of Eugene, where they will make their home. She will be more than missed, but we all are pleased to hear of her way of leaving the neighbors. She was born and raised here and schooled here, so we all are interested.

Yes, there is a certain young man we would like to see the humane society get after and so they have a good right to the way he whips his horse and runs him over these roads.

E. E. Kellogg had the misfortune to lose a very valuable horse Sunday night with stomach trouble.

One of our new neighbors, Mrs. Smith, who recently moved on to the King place is reported on the sick list.

Mr. Rose is confined to his bed with heart trouble. Mrs. Holmes gave him a few treatments which greatly relieved his pain.

TWICE PROVEN

If you suffer backache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's Oregon City evidence—doubly proven.

James Wilkinson, retd. farmer, 201 14th St., Oregon City, says: "Nothing gave me as much relief from kidney trouble and pains in my back and hips as Doan's Kidney Pills. I had to get up at night as I couldn't sleep on account of the pains and aches and my limbs were stiff. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and was surprised at the quick relief I got. Several boxes relieved me and today I am hale and hearty." (Statement given March 29, 1910.)

On April 20, 1920, Mr. Wilkinson said: "The occasional use of Doan's Kidney Pills keeps my kidneys in good condition and I can't say too much for Doan's."
