Irvine, editor of the Oregon Journal, as a candidate for governor of Oregon, is being given a decided impetus by their method of procedure in the campaign. Petitions simply worded to the effect that the citizens of Oregon desire B. F. Irvine to allow his name to be placed on the primary ballot are being circulated among the voters of Oregon. The club feels they have a candidate with a peculiar distinction of appealing to all classes and feels no hesitancy in presenting these petitions for the signature of all voters regardless of party affiliation. Mr. Irvine has a wide reputation for straight-forwardness, honesty of purpose and championship for the interest of the people. Many prominent women are assisting in securing signatures on the petition in and about Portland. Petitions are going forward to all parts of the state to be placed in the hands of leading democratic women who will solicit the names of representative citizens. It is expected they will have no difficulty in securing in a short time a sufficient number of names to properly influence Mr. Irvine to become a candidate. Yours truly, MRS. REDMOND MARSHALL. We do printing of all kinds at the Banner-Courier—the best workmanship at lowest prices.

COMMUNICATION The movement, which was started in Portland, Oregon by the democratic women's club popularizing B. F. Irvine, editor of the Oregon Journal, as a candidate for governor of Oregon, is being given a decided impetus by their method of procedure in the campaign. Petitions simply worded to the effect that the citizens of Oregon desire B. F. Irvine to allow his name to be placed on the primary ballot are being circulated among the voters of Oregon. The club feels they have a candidate with a peculiar distinction of appealing to all classes and feels no hesitancy in presenting these petitions for the signature of all voters regardless of party affiliation. Mr. Irvine has a wide reputation for straight-forwardness, honesty of purpose and championship for the interest of the people. Many prominent women are assisting in securing signatures on the petition in and about Portland. Petitions are going forward to all parts of the state to be placed in the hands of leading democratic women who will solicit the names of representative citizens. It is expected they will have no difficulty in securing in a short time a sufficient number of names to properly influence Mr. Irvine to become a candidate. Yours truly, MRS. REDMOND MARSHALL.
