

NEWSY BRIEFS FROM AROUND THE COUNTY

Interesting Items From the Country Correspondents Telling of the Progress, Development, and Upbuilding of Social and Civil Life

CLARKES

A little snow and frost were with us last week. Miss Katy Hofstetter was taken to the Oregon City hospital last Saturday. Latest reports say she is getting along very nicely.

Mr. Solomon Glick is visiting with his sister, Mrs. George Hofstetter. Mrs. Peter Sorger, age 57 years, was buried last Friday at the local cemetery. Services were held at the Anglican church. Rev. Staggs officiated. Mrs. Sager was a long-time resident in our neighborhood.

The hope prevails amongst us that the new road supervisor, Mr. R. Griffiths will make things hum around here wonderfully this year. The Buckner Hill needs considerable work done. The grade should be finished as per survey and crushed rock should be laid on the road bed this spring. Mr. Griffiths will do so, if the money can be obtained for the work.

George Gasser and sister, Clara, and Paul Clark from St. Johns, Ore., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gasser over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths visited with Mr. and Mrs. Steiner at Molalla the other day.

Ben Elmer is in the Emanuel hospital at Portland. He underwent an operation on his foot there. Two years ago he hurt his foot in a tractor and was laid up for months, but his foot never got well completely. He hopes to get a permanent cure this time. He is getting along very nicely.

Fred Lindare is very busy in his large orchard at present.

W. L. Taylor is putting the ground in good shape to plant a crop of acres in English walnuts.

Mrs. E. Kleinath of the Sugar Maple poultry farm is getting ready for the spring rush of delivering the famous Plymouth Rock baby chicks and 4-week-old eggs for hatching. She has been sending out catalogues lately. Her methods are in every respect modern and no doubt the very best in the county for poultry business.

Miss Moser from Redland is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boyd.

The following took in the Farm Bureau meeting at Beaver Creek Monday: Mr. and Mrs. F. Oldenburg, G. Oldenburg, E. Berrier, F. Lindau, A. Gasser, Julius Scherve, Octo Gasser, C. Blaser, Mrs. Lizzie Ringo. They enjoyed themselves wonderfully. The ladies served a very fine dinner.

CARUS

Mr. Lee Bly went to Molalla last Monday.

Mrs. Peter Faurie of Molalla was a guest over night at Blisses' home last Monday night.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Harold Magness last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Griffith and family and Mrs. Fred Spangler and family, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Lewis.

Mr. Richard Davis is taking his daughter, Emma of Oregon City to the specialist in Portland every other day. Telephone line 33 helped App Jones put up his poles and line last week.

Mrs. John Calverly accompanied by Minnie Emerson and Bill Edwards all went to Oregon City last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown and family spent Sunday with relatives at Beaver Creek.

Mr. Harold Magness went to town Saturday and brought out a phone.

Mrs. John R. Lewis spent a few days with friends in Portland last week.

Mrs. Nettie Jagger and son, Fred, was an Oregon City visitor last Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Spangler entertained at dinner last Monday evening in honor of her daughter Virginia's ninth birthday. Those present were: Jane and Richard William Elizabeth Shocley, Francis and George Lewis, Gertrude and Emily Griffith, John Lehman, Helen and Virginia Spangler.

The people of Carus met at the church last Wednesday evening to organize a Community club. Fred Spangler was elected president, Ed Brown secretary. They will meet every fourth Wednesday at the Carus church everybody being invited to attend.

Mrs. John R. Lewis slipped and fell on her porch, breaking her arm. She was taken to Oregon City where a physician reduced the fracture. At the present time she is resting comfortably.

Mr. Arthur Beach purchased a Maxwell touring car in Portland last week.

Mrs. Harold Magness called at Gulliam's home Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Weiser entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Russell and daughter, Myrtle, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. George Ingram and daughter, Grace, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Magness.

Little Frances Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Even Lewis met with an accident by getting cut with an axe across the face. She was taken to Oregon City to the doctor, accompanied by Mrs. Jack Griffith and Fred Spangler.

Mrs. George Bliss called at Gulliam's home last Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Thomas of Beaver Creek were guests at the Gulliam home Monday evening.

William and Emerson Edwards split and piled cordwood for Mr. George Bliss last week.

Mr. M. Stevens called on Mr. Shockley Friday afternoon.

Quite a few young folks surprised Albert Fisher last Monday evening in honor of his birthday. They all reported a good time.

Mr. App Jones sold pigs to the Farmers' union last week.

Mr. George Bliss accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fredericks and son Alvin, motored to Oregon City last Wednesday afternoon.

FROGPOND NEWS

Friday night the Literary met and a very good time was had by all. There was only a short program as the new program committee has not yet organized.

Mrs. Smith Turner spent Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ernest Kruse.

Miss Melba Baker and brother, Loren, spent the week-end with their grandmother, Mrs. J. L. Kruse.

Mr. Howard Turner spent Sunday with Willard Sharp.

Smith Turner and Gilbert Sharp were Oregon City visitors Monday.

Saturday the Grange met and a very enjoyable time was had by everyone present. The morning was spent in a short business meeting and by giving 23 the third and fourth degree.

After the initiation came dinner which was enjoyed by 80 people. After the dinner the meeting was again opened and the time was spent in installing the officers and a very good program by the new lecturer. Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson were invited to do the installing. They were assisted by Otie Holton. The officers installed were: Master, Ella Seedling; overseer, Fred Ellingsen; secretary, Etta V. Barnes; treasurer, Sidney Seedling; lecturer, Irvin Sharp; steward, Hush Moulton; gatekeeper, Harry Gosser; assistant steward, Harold Sharp; lady assistant, Nola Turner; chaplain, Louisa Kruse; Flora, Melba Baker; Ceres, Myrtle Aden and Pomona, Eva Seedling.

Among the visitors from different Granges were: Ollie Holton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gage, Eva Ray, Mrs. Gage, Lloyd Borland; Cris Borland, Harry Borland, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Dickinson of Oswego Grange, and Mrs. Moulton of Wilsonville Grange.

Mrs. Vogt and children of Stafford, also Mr. and Mrs. A. Dilker and Christina Delker visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Oldenstadt Sunday.

Mrs. Otto Peters and little daughter Marjorie Geraldine, came home from the hospital last week.

Ottis Robbins is working for Mr. Gould. Mr. Robbins' mother has moved up to Alfred Sharp's and intends to live there for some time.

Mr. Gould broke down with his truck somewhere near Oswego Saturday, and was forced to walk home.

Dora Oldenstadt and brother George attended the basketball game at Tualatin Saturday night.

ELLWOOD

Mr. Stanford Cox and family, who for the past two years have been living on the M. M. Surlus place have moved on Matt Park's place recently vacated by Seymour Lanzins.

W. Z. Hight was out from Portland last week doing some repair work on his place.

Harry Bittner wife and little son, Harold of Oregon City spent Saturday night and part of Sunday at the C. Sittner home.

Mrs. Hazel Vallen spent a few days visiting her mother, Mrs. Freeman at Colton last week.

Mrs. Frank Bittner, accompanied by his father, C. Bittner and uncle Geo. Bittner, made a business trip to Portland one day last week.

Mr. L. N. Vallen purchased a registered pig of Mr. Kitching of Currinsville last week.

Ed Hodgkiss sold 5 hogs to parties in Portland last week.

Mrs. Knoll's spent last week in Portland, she being a seamstress is frequently called to Portland to sew.

Mr. S. W. Jones spent a few days in Oregon City last week.

Miss Claire Say returned to her school last week feeling fine since her operation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Park, Sr., are quite poorly again.

This continuous freezing and snowy weather is sure getting the best of fall sown grain, feed and wood piles.

VIOLA

We are still having winter weather with some snow and freezing at night, but most of the time the sun shines

a while in the day time. We are thankful for that we haven't the blizzard weather that the eastern states have.

Elmer Olsen of McMinnville is making a visit of some weeks at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph.

Services were held at the church on Sunday by Rev. Young of Garfield. The friends and neighbors of Mrs. Tom Jubb, Sr., were pained to learn of her death on Friday morning, the 27th, in St. Jose, California at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Thompson. She leaves to mourn, four daughters and two sons, three grand children and two sisters. She was a kind and loving mother and a kind and helpful neighbor, whose loss will be felt for a long time. She came here from California about 30 years ago.

Grandma Terrell is still confined to her bed with a broken hip, we are sorry that she doesn't gain, but is getting weaker all the time.

Mr. Ben Clark spent two weeks in Viola. He came here to attend to the auction that was held at his place. There was quite a crowd and the goods and stock sold pretty fair, but not what they cost at first. He returned to Walla Walla on Thursday. J. H. Sevies took him to Portland.

Mr. Arthur Mattoon and his son, Archie and wife and little son took dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mattoon.

Mr. Evenson of Portland is moving his Donkey engine from the mill here. He expects to ship it to Washington.

Wm. Hicinbotham is building a garage and tool house for his father and sister, Mrs. A. D. Hughes.

Mrs. Hinman and son from Clackamas took dinner at the home of Earl Hinman on Sunday. Little Robert, who has been spending a couple of weeks with his grandmother, returned to his home here with them.

There will be a Farm Bureau meeting at the church on Saturday evening, February 4th. Everyone is welcome.

There has been quite a lot of sickness with bad colds.

CHERRYVILLE

Cold as January. Weather prophets all frozen up. Fine sleighing and very good skiing. The literary drew a good crowd and an extra good program was presented.

The bridge gang put up a good minstrel stunt at the Literary society last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Funk were called to Portland last week to attend the funeral of Mr. Funk's sister.

Work is still going on at the Boulder Creek bridge in spite of the cold weather.

The beautiful bridge at Alder Creek is very nearly done. It surely is a No. 1 structure, perfect in every way.

The cold weather calls for lots of wood. Everybody has to keep the home fires burning.

Now that January is gone we may expect milder weather and more sunshine.

It is said that work will soon begin on a flume from Alder Creek to the back water at the dam for the Sandy Lumber Co.

TOWN MARSHAL'S NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL PROPERTY FOR DELINQUENT ASSESSMENTS.

Notice is hereby given that the Recorder of the Town of Milwaukie, Oregon, has transmitted to me the following list of delinquent assessments against the property herein described, situated in the Town of Milwaukie, County of Clackamas and state of Oregon, for the improvement of 32nd Street from the south line of Elmer Street to the north line of Wister Street, to-wit:

Quincy Addition to Milwaukie: Lot 5, Block 7. W. A. Ham, $40.00. Lot 8, Block 7. W. A. Ham, $40.00. Lot 9, Block 7. Philip Strieb, $40.00.

U BUST UM WE FIXUM

Umbrellas repaired, saws filed and set, soldering.

OXY-WELDING ALL WORK GUARANTEED

FIXUM SHOP

Opposite Library on 7th St.

Dependable Poultry Feeds

Are a large factor in successful poultry farming. We carry a large and complete stock of poultry supplies and grain at prices which compare very favorably with pre-war times.

Larson & Company

10th and Main Oregon City

Lot 12, Block 7, A. C. Hotchkiss, $40.00. Lot 13, Block 7, A. C. Hotchkiss, $40.00. Lot 6, Block 8, Nellie Kelland, $40.00. Lot 7, Block 8, Nellie Kelland, $40.00. Lot 24, Block 8, Wm. E. & Sarah Morand, $24.00. Lot 6, Block 11, C. E. Bogue, $40.00. Lot 11, Block 11, C. E. Bogue, $40.00. Lot 14, Block 11, C. E. Bogue, $40.00. Lot 2, Block 11, Samuel Grooms, $24.00. The amount set opposite each lot or parcel of land is the amount of the unpaid assessment against said property. In compliance with said list of delinquent assessment and pursuant to the Charter of the Town of Milwaukie, Oregon, I will on Monday, the 6th day of March, 1922, at the hour of 9:00 A. M. of said day, at the front door of the Town Hall, in the Town of Milwaukie, Oregon, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, subject to redemption, the above described real property. Each lot or parcel of land will be sold separately and for a sum equal to but not exceeding the amount of delinquent assessment thereon with interest and cost of advertising and sale and penalty. Where more than one bid is made the land will be sold to the bidder offering to take the same for the least amount of penalty and interest. Competition will be: (1) Upon the penalty for the first period; (2) Upon the penalty for the succeeding periods; (3) Upon the rate of interest.

As the twig is inclined so the tree is bent. When your boy is old enough to spend his first nickle he is old enough to save.

You can not begin too early to teach him the first principles of thrift. Habits formed now will have a tremendous effect on him in later years.

Bring him in today and let us meet him. FIRST NATIONAL BANK. 4 Per Cent Paid On Savings Deposits. 512 MAIN STREET Oregon City, Ore.

National Conservatory of Music. Same faculty under new management. We teach piano, violin, guitar, steel guitar, banjo, mandolin, Saxophone and all band instruments. LYLE SMITH, Manager. Studios, Main Street Over Liberty Theater Oregon City

FIVE STAR POINTS OF THE RED STAR DETROIT VAPOR OIL STOVE

PRICE NOW $96.00. 1. Durable 8 1/2 pound burner without wicks or wick substitutes. Lights instantly. More economical than coal, wood or gas. Heat directly, under cooking utensils. 2. Positive valve control regulates heat like city gas. A quick hot fire or a slow steady by simply turning valve. 3. Double flue oven bakes perfectly as fast as a gas range. Linings are rust resisting Glass doors. Handle always cool. 4. Convenient, full length high shelf. Fuel supply back of stove. Double tank makes refilling easy. 5. Black enamel finish requires no blacking. Easily cleaned with a dry cloth. All nickel parts highly polished Gas stove appearance.

Hogg Bros.

Date of First publication, February 2nd, 1922. Date of last publication, Mar. 2, 1922. J. A. KECK, Marshal of Milwaukie, Oregon. 2-3-5t. At the regular meeting of the Waluga Civic club at the community house on Friday night the following officers were elected for the year: Carol McFarland, president; R. D. Bangs, vice president; Herrick, secretary-treasurer. A membership campaign is under way in the form of a contest. Parkplace Shops Will Enlarge. E. H. Pauchy and W. W. Burkhardt plan to enlarge their blacksmith shop in the near future. They will operate a garage fully equipped for all kinds of repair work in addition to their present business. Miss Dora Staehley, of the Central Point district, spent the week-end with relatives in Portland. She is the daughter of Mr. A. Staehley, who is one of the largest and most progressive farmers of that district.

Wrigley's P-K advertisement featuring a child and various gum products like Spearmint, Doublemint, and Juicy Fruit.

Harry Greaves for Insurance advertisement listing Life, Fire, Farm Buildings, and other services.

Falls Transfer & Storage Co. advertisement for Building Material at 110 Fifth St.

TO THE CITIZENS OF WEST LINN, WILLAMETTE AND BOLTON. WILLAMETTE RIVER LUMBER CO. advertisement for lumber services.