GLADSTONE

The Euterpean club was entertained in a delightful manner at the home of Mrs. F. P. Nelson, Thursday. A delicious luncheon was served at 1 o'clock. The table decorations were of unique design and were artistically arranged. The table was centered with a miniature log cabin, ivy entwined, with its fireplace and surrounded by a split rail fence. The place cards were pen and ink sketches of a log cabin with a verse attached telling something of the life of Lincoln. Roll call was responded to by each member giving some incident in the life of Lincoln. The art study, in charge of Mrs. V. C. Gault, consisted in the study of the Flemish artist, Rubens. Mrs. F. L. Oswald had charge of the musical program. The opera, "Faust," was studied. The story of the opera was told by Mrs. T. E. Gault. Mrs. J. W. Leonard sang "The Madrigal Song," "The Jewel Song," and "The Waltz Song." Mrs. E. Noon Good sang "The Flower Song." The home of Mrs. F. L. Oswald will be the scene of the next meeting. Guests present were: Mrs. Thomas Burke, Mrs. T. E. Gault, Mrs. V. C. Gault, Mrs. F. L. Oswald, Mrs. E. N. Good, Mrs. F. Miranda, Mrs. R. M. McGetchie, Mrs. J. W. Leonard, Mrs. A. F. Parker, Mrs. L. OAK GROVE

One of the working departments of the Oak Grove-Milwaukie Social Service club is the child welfare which has been working for the Alberta Kerr nursery during the past two years, as well as for other needy children and also studies child welfare problems. Their last meeting was held with Mrs. E. Fenwick on Thursday, at 11 o'clock to sew and lunch was served at noon. Other meetings will be held at call of the leader.

The get acquainted social under the auspices of the Community club was an enjoyable affair. A good program was rendered consisting of violin, piano and saxophone selections; readings and dialogues, and refreshments followed by social hours, made the evening a pleasant one. A new feature of the work of the Social Service club is that of "Club Chest." Some months ago the club decided to keep in readiness a nurse's supply closet to assist the visiting nurse should her services be needed in this community. At the last meeting of the club it was decided to have a club chest in connection with this for the philanthropic work the club is called upon to do. A committee was appointed to have charge of this and also the clothing and other useful articles which will be held in readiness.
