ORCHARD FALLS NEWS

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the entertainment at Colton last Friday night, given by the Farm Bureau. All report an exceptionally good program and a pleasant time.

Roy Sullivan was a Portland visitor on the 13th.

There was a pleasant party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Conner on the evening of the 11th. Dancing was engaged in until midnight, when the genial hostess assisted by Mrs. John Anderson and Mrs. Ormer Carrie, served a bounteous lunch.

Judge W. A. Beech, our worthy justice of the peace, has been on the sick list for several days. We hope for his speedy recovery.

The F. M. Countryman family of East Colton are moving into their new home here.

Jason Fellows and wife are both having very poor health this winter.

Our roads that were put in such fine shape last fall are being rapidly ruined by heavy trucks, hauling in all kinds of weather. One would almost believe with the heavy loads that they haul in the sloppiest weather that their only ambition was to destroy the roads as quickly as possible.

D. Pendleton of Fernwood is helping Geo. Williams log. The Frederick mill is running again and every one busy therefore happy.

Net Much.

Loquacious visitor—When I get scared my mind becomes a perfect blank.

Bored hostess—But there's nothing to be scared about here.—Wayside Tales.

The Season's Hit.

"Here's a book," said the agent, "you can't afford to be without."

"I never read," said the victim.

"Well, buy it for your children."

"I'm single—I have no family. All I have is a dog."

"Well, don't you want a nice, heavy book to throw at the dog now and then?"—Wayside Tales.

MEADOWBROOK

Mr. Frank Oglesby lost about one fourth of his potatoes with the dry rot.

A few fishermen are trying their luck along the river now.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess White of Portland spent Sunday at Chas. Oglesby's. The trucks are again ruining what is left of our roads.

Lots of sickness around here. The death of the Semson family is much regretted here as they are widely known here.

Some of our small saw mills will begin cutting lumber next week.

It seems that the moonshine in Molalla precinct is exempt from arrest as there is more moonshine made and drunk in Molalla precinct than any other precinct in Clackamas county.

Miss Maud Armstrong of Hebo, Tillamook county is spending a few days with relatives here.

Mr. Walter Ball has been subpoenaed as a witness in an action at Tillamook next week.

Mrs. Goldie Bowman has been spending a few days in Oregon City returned home Saturday.

A. J. Lewis Gaine.

A. J. Lewis, who has had a severe attack of influenza is now convalescing. Dr. Strickland was in attendance.

SPECIAL SALE

of PHONOGRAPHS, TALKING MACHINES at REDUCED PRICES

If you have put off the buying of a Phonograph that you have wanted and felt you ought to have in your home, because you didn't think you could afford it, then now is your opportunity. This sale offers you both used and new (but shop worn) Phonographs at prices ranging from One-Fourth to Three-Fourths of the Original Prices.

Every machine has been overhauled and placed in good mechanical condition. Every machine plays exactly the same as a new one of the same model and most of them look like new. Instruments sold as "Shop Worn" are new, but in handling have been slightly marred, though only close inspection will show the marks.

They all carry our guarantee of "Good Mechanical Condition." If you are interested, we urge an early selection, for there is generally but one of a kind. Records that go with these instruments are not second hand, except the cylinder outfits.
