

OUR NEAR NEIGHBORS

WEST LINN

Miss Jane Lindsay is again residing in West Linn after some time away. Miss Lindsay is connected with the Portland schools this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rice and daughter, Hazel, were afternoon visitors at the Kiddy home on Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Hickman of this city and Mrs. R. Cox of Oregon City, entertained the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Oregon City M. E. church, last Thursday. An enjoyable meeting was had and delicious refreshments were served.

The spring-like warmth and sun of Monday, brought forth a chorus of frogs. Spring is surely coming, hurrah!

WILLAMETTE

The Willamette W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. McArthur February 15. After an interesting meeting, refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Knopp and Mrs. Denton. The other members present were: Mesdames Eam, McLean, Layton, Davis, Snidow, Prall, Tour, Bennett, Casey, Carpenter and W. Davis; Miss Gladys Davis and Kenneth Layton.

February 14th was an exciting day for the grade school children. Every room had a Valentine box and the postman filled them generously. Just before the time for dismissal the Valentines were distributed and any lister at the school house when school was out could have heard a buzz of questions such as "How many did you get?" "Were they pretty ones?" A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Leisman at their home in Willamette February 17th. She has been given the name of Alice Lorraine.

Mrs. A. Larson, who has been ill at the St. Vincent's hospital is home again and feeling much better.

Washington's birthday programs were held on February 22, in the rooms of the grade school, it being arranged so that the programs came at different times, making it possible for visitors to see and hear them all. The eighth grade for their entertainment gave a debate "Resolved that George Washington was the greatest statesman the United States has produced."

The Epworth League is planning an entertainment to be given soon, the benefits from which are to go toward paying for the new piano. Everyone is practicing diligently and it promises to be a big success.

Mr. H. Wallis has returned to work after an absence of several weeks, due to illness.

Miss Genevieve Fromong is recovering from a severe attack of the influenza and expects to return to the school soon.

Mrs. John F. Carroll of Yakima, Wash., visited at the home of her brother, H. E. Wallis, Friday.

JENNINGS LODGE

Rev. A. B. Snider will attend the fellowship meetings of the Congregational pastors to be held in Portland Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the present week. Rev. Snider has a part on the program Friday, speaking on "Public Worship."

Word was received here Tuesday morning of the death in San Francisco of George Robbins, brother of John Robbins of this place. Mrs. Robbins who has been spending the winter here is confined to her room with the prevailing influenza. She had planned to leave last Friday to join her husband, but was prevented, by reason of her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cook, Miss Ruth Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson, and Miss Florence Wilson attended the Valentine party recently given by the Oregon City Women's Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. George Berry received word the past week of the birth of a new grand son. The new arrival is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hanschell, of Bremerton. Mrs. Hanschell was formerly Miss Myrtle Berry.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hayles motored down from their home at Airlie and were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Roberts. Mr. Hayles is an extensive poultry breeder at Airlie.

Mrs. George Pooler who was a substitute teacher in the Canemah school the past week is confined to her home with the prevailing influenza.

C. R. Holloway and family visited Mr. Holloway's father in Portland last Sunday which was the birthday anniversary of the latter.

Mrs. Holden of Sellwood and her brother, Harold Wilcox, of Redland have been visiting at the Lodge the past week and helping care for the family of Mrs. S. L. Wilcox during their illness.

F. B. Madison has recently purchased the Weiss property on Addie street.

Miss Mary Weinmann is ill with the prevailing influenza at the home of her sister, Mrs. Waterman.

Mrs. Lizzie Staatsman who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. J. Wilson on the river, has returned to her home in New York.

Robert Meyers who recently purchased a tract of land on Hull avenue from F. B. Madison is excavating the basement for his new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Losey were guests of Mr. Losey's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Soden at Portland last Sunday.

Mesdames A. B. Snider, Frank Covert and George Pooler went to Portland last Sunday for the purpose of hearing Miss Evangeline Booth.

Jack Hampton's father from Portland visited at Hampton home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Poe of Portland spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roberts. Mr. Poe and Mr. Roberts are fellow employees in the office of the O. W. R. & N. company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Naef have returned from Monrovia, Cauormia, where they had planned to spend the winter. They were called home by the condition of Mr. Naef's father, who suffered a paralytic stroke recently.

Superintendent Gay of the local Christian Endeavor society attended the Salem convention of the organization the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jacobs were Sunday visitors in the Lodge.

Mrs. A. B. Snider spent four days with her mother at Cherryville the past week.

Henry Woodham will leave this week for a visit with his brother in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hopkins accompanied by their daughter, Miss Pearl Hopkins visited their son, Vernon Hopkins at the Open Air Sanitarium last Sunday.

OAK GROVE

The diphtheria patient at the Oswald home is doing nicely.

Mrs. E. Ellstrom has been much indisposed the past few days with a gripe.

Mr. J. K. Hann is improving slowly from the grip, but Mrs. Hann is quite ill with a nurse in attendance.

The little son of J. P. Link is in very poor health and is under the care of a physician.

Mrs. W. C. Pierce is much improved, but still quite weak from an attack of gripe.

J. H. Yearsley and wife returned last week. Mrs. Yearsley visited in Kansas City since last December and Mr. Yearsley joined her there in January enroute from a business trip to New York.

Mrs. F. N. Little succeeds Mrs. V. G. Benvie as collector for the Portland Gas & Coke company and the Portland Railway, Light & Power Co. Mrs. Benvie resigned because of other duties.

Helen E. Wilcox, temporary postmaster, received a telegram announcing the illness of her son in Ralston, Minn. A daughter, who is a nurse in La Grande left at once to care for her brother.

The reception of the Social Service club which was to have been held February 16 at the home of Mrs. Pierce, was postponed because of her sudden illness. The reception will be held March 2.

The church having "traveled" this week from the old location to the new, makes a good showing. An addition will be added and considerable repair work done.

Rev. Patten, wife and son, who were all sick at the home, are improving. A good film play is booked for each Friday night in March. You don't want to miss them.

Mrs. V. G. Benvie spoke on the life of Lincoln at the Grange meeting last Saturday and H. G. Starkweather spoke on the agricultural bloc in congress.

Appropriate exercises were held in Oak Grove school in commemoration of Abraham Lincoln.

GLADSTONE

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Burke of Chicago, have been the guests of the latter's parents, Judge and Mrs. H. E. Cross. They left for their home last week. Mr. and Mrs. Burke are stopping enroute to visit with Mr. Burke's mother, at Miles City, Montana.

The bungalow which is being built on West Dartmouth street by Guy La Salle, has been purchased by E. L. Moore, of West Linn.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Ryan who have been spending their honeymoon at Newport, at the summer home of Judge Ryan, have returned to Gladstone. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan will occupy the former home of Judge and Mrs. E. Noble, which is opposite the home of Judge and Mrs. Ryan.

R. M. McGetchie, who underwent an operation at the Oregon City hospital last week, is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. H. Wilson, who has been quite ill is improving.

Mrs. W. E. Rauch is quite ill, suffering with lagrippe.

Mrs. Frank Johnston is quite ill.

The Federation of Missionary societies of the Christian churches, of Portland and vicinity, met at the Gladstone Christian church Friday. The forenoon was devoted to reports from the various societies. Dinner was served at noon by members of the local society. The ladies serving were Mrs. F. B. Hayward, Mrs. J. Hollowell, Mrs. G. Olds, Mrs. B. Vedder, Mrs. B. F. Clay, Mrs. J. N. Kyler, Mrs. J. W. Hoyt, Mrs. C. A. Frost, Mrs. W. E. Rauch, Mrs. W. E. Hassler. A very interesting program was given in the afternoon. The program was cleverly arranged. It was carried out as an "Extra" daily newspaper, each society having charge of a department. Mrs. Clara G. Esson, state Bible school secretary, of Portland, gave a short talk on the life of John G. Payton, one of the earliest missionaries to the South Sea Islands. Rev. E. S. Muckley, state secretary of United Christian church missionary societies, gave an interesting talk on the "Chinese Missionary Work in Portland."

Workers' conference was held at the Christian church Monday evening.

Mrs. Frank L. Oswald entertained the Euterpean club at a one o'clock luncheon Thursday. The decorations were in keeping with Washington's birthday. The table was centered with a miniature cherry tree, laden with cherries, with the hatchet nearby. Tiny cherry boughs and hatchets were attached to the place cards. Miss Frances Cross and Miss Ruth Oswald assisted the hostess. Mrs. V. C. Gault had charge of the art study. The Flemish artists Van Dyke and Frans Hals were studied. The opera "Tanhauser" by Richard Wagner was studied. The story of the opera was told by Mrs. Eugene Good, who also sang "The Pilgrims Chorus." Mrs. J. W. Leonhardt sang "The Evening Star." Mrs. Frank Miranda gave the piano arrangement of "The Evening Star." For current events, "The Political Situation in China" was studied. Mrs. Wm. Hammond led the discussion. The club will be entertained by Mrs. Wm. Hammond next week. The opera "Il Trovatore" will be studied. Mrs. Leo Meyers and Mrs. Robert Morrison were guests of honor. The members present were: Mrs. V. C. Gault, Mrs. T. E. Gault, Mrs. E. N. Good, Mrs. W. E. Hempstead, Mrs. Wm. Hammond, Mrs. J. W. Leonhardt, Mrs. F. P. Nelson, Mrs. M. A. Thompson, and Mrs. F. Miranda.

Mrs. John Kent has returned after spending several days in Forest Grove.

Mrs. Gottlieb Schmid of Eugene, formerly Miss Muriel Moller of this place, was the guest of Miss Fayne Burdon Saturday.

Miss Marjorie Read, who is attending the university of Oregon, is at home this week with her mother, Mrs. L. A. Read, who is quite ill.

Mrs. F. A. Burdon, who is in the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, is improving. Miss Fayne Burdon is quite ill with a gripe.

Mr. C. D. Legler, traveling salesman for the Oregon City Manufacturing company, left Tuesday on his annual trip through the northwest.

Mrs. Edna Morgan and daughter of Stevens Point, Wisconsin, have purchased the F. P. Nelson bungalow on Exter street.

Dan McMahon will start his new home on East Arlington street in the near future.

Cecil Ernest Green, 17 years of age, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. La Doux, died here Saturday. He was born in Little Falls, Minnesota. He was a member of the degree team of the Security Benefit association. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 o'clock at the Holman and Pace chapel. Interment was made at the Clackamas cemetery. The pallbearers were Everett Catto, Franklin Niles, Stanley Blane, Burnett Pope, Harrison Lucas, and Melvin Glass.

BOLTON NEWS ITEMS

Mr. Charles Raines who has been suffering from la gripe, has improved and is able to be out again.

Last Saturday night one J. E. Borland, who vociferously proclaimed himself the cabbage king of the west side, entered the Oleson barber shop and ordered a shave and hair cut. When the barber finished his work, his majesty could only produce 28c in payment thereof, which was far from satisfactory and despite his protests that he had money and could get more money, all he needed, in fact, he was reported to the police and arrested on charges of being drunk and disorderly. Monday he was fined $25 in Judge Kelly's court.

Pelix Prepost was also taken into custody, after being forcibly ejected from a pool room and was fined a like amount on similar charges.

OREGON INDUSTRIES

Weekly Record of Industrial Conditions Gleaned From Reliable Sources Over The State

Oregon exports total $67,904,841, half going to England.

Baker overalls factory started February 20.

Twohey Bros. have returned Grants Pass municipal railroad to the city.

Tillamook cheese output for 1921 $3,576,000.

Portland—P. R. L. & P. Co. has 21,000 new stockholders.

Milwaukie wool scouring plant has big contract for 1922.

Eugene—200 pieces property being foreclosed for taxes.

Florence—Newspaper to be published here by S. E. Landers.

Eugene fruit growers 1920 output $1,252,000. Labor bills $147,000.

Gold Hill—Big gold strike in Red Ribbon mines.

New sanatorium at Boswell springs to open up in spring.

Albany—Shell company to erect distributing station.

Eugene to have modern apartment house.

Silver Lake creamery to rebuild. Oregon to get $1,875,664 out of $15,000,000 fund for forest roads.

Umpaine—Contract let for erection of $900 George hall.

Morrow county farm bureau fixes wages for farm labor for coming spring as follows: Farm hands, $40 per month; tractor men, $60 to $80; cooks, $25 to $35. The above wages include board.

Astoria—K of P. to build $40,000 lodge hall.

Dallas to have big lumber factory.

Astoria—Plans made for cutting of new $200,000 hotel.

Newberg—New community building to cost $20,000.

Brookline—Work begins on new rooming house here.

Littleton to have new Guild hall.

St. Helens—Milton Creek Logging Co. resumes operations.

Dallas to have new Methodist church.

Seaside to have new school in District No. 10.

Eugene—Work to begin on construction of new public market.

Newberg—New Methodist church to cost $25,000.

Troutdale—Plans being considered for erection of cold storage plant here to cost $75,000.

Cottage Grove to have modern new business block.

Marshfield to have new sanitarium.

Astoria—Plans being made for establishment of public market.

Multnomah—Community club here plans building of clubhouse.

Lebanon—Novelty factory opens here and is making up line of coaster wagons, kiddie cars, bob sleds, etc.

Eugene—Building permits during past month, total $27,277 compared to $11,235 for the same period a year ago.

Albany planning $18,000 city hall.

Roseburg—New bridges to replace highway grades at Winchester and Winston.

Salem building operations increase 40 per cent over 1921.

By-Products Industries.

The practical course in training commercial canning managers at the Oregon Agricultural college is taken advantage of by twenty persons.

Preparing the fruit, putting it in the cans, machine operation in cooking and sealing the fruit in the tins of all sizes, is going on.

In addition the new industries of jellifying and making confections of by-products and waste in canning are being worked out with success.

The first class of twenty canning managers and confectioners will be a great addition to saving and wealth-producing in the northwest.

These twenty trained persons will be in demand at good wages if they can show ability to produce merchantable products from the waste fruit.

Confektions made from our prunes, pears, apples and plums will be far more attractive than the adulterations now so often passing as candy.

Pendleton—Total expenses of running city during 1921 are $88,576.55.

North Bend authorizes $44,948.55 bond issue for street work.

Newberg—Methodists to build new $25,000 church.

Seaside boosting $10,000 "End of the Trail" monument for city.

Astoria—New shingle mill promises to add good-sized payroll to the city.

Salem building permits for January 1922, show increase of 400 per cent over those of January, 1921.

The conference between Oregon and Washington tax commissions held at Olympia did not result in any agreements. The general plans for retrenchment adopted in Washington are going ahead, and the commission of the Evergreen state absolutely refused to even consider the Oregon plan of enacting a state income tax law.

Mr. Robert B. Allen, secretary of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, told the senate finance committee December 30, that American lumbermen do not need a protective duty on lumber, but they are very desirous of having that paragraph left in the Fordney bill which gives the president power to make a reciprocal tariff if conditions warrant it. In other words, Mr. Allen asked that the Fordney bill be left exactly as it passed the house, including the reciprocal bargaining provision, free lumber and a duty on shingles.

More than five billion dollars are invested in electric utilities. In the past ten years our population has increased slightly less than 15 per cent, while the number of electric customers has increased more than 250 per cent. The amount of electrical energy used has increased over 350 per cent.

SKELTON UNEARTHED

The skeleton of a human being was brought to the surface of the ground on the west side of the Willamette where the crew of men were excavating for the roadway to the new ferry, on Saturday. It was uncovered at a depth of about six feet.

The theory of the presence of the bones at this place is that they are those of an Indian either buried there or washed ashore during high water and became bedded in the sand or silt of the river bank.

Wild and Woolly.

Betty had spent the morning in the zoo and had been impressed with the sight of the wild animals she saw there. That afternoon she dashed into the house in great excitement "Oh, mother," she exclaimed, "come quick. Out in the back yard I've found a wild worm."—Wayside Tales.

Went Away in a Hurry. An Irishman was hauling dynamite in a quarry. He let a stick drop and the whole box went up, taking Mike with it. The quarry boss came after later and said to another Irishman: "Where is Mike?" "He's gone," replied Pat. "When will he be back?" asked the boss. "Well, replied Pat, "if he comes back as fast as we went, he'll be back yesterday."—O. E. R. Bulletin.

The Artist—Much depends upon a good setting. The Disappointed Lover—Yes, many a girl's beauty is spoiled by an ugly frame of mind!—Wayside Tales.

A Long Time Ago. School Teacher (to little boy)—If a farmer raises 3700 bushels of wheat and sells it for $2.50 per bushel, what will he get? Little Boy—An automobile.

Satisfaction

When the groceries are delivered how satisfying it is to know that everything is fresh and of the highest quality obtainable, and that every article is the particular brand you asked for.

FARR BROTHERS

Meat Market and Grocery
Phone 68
Monroe and Seventh Streets
Oregon City

We Pay Your Taxes

If you will call with your tax statement we will gladly send it in for you saving you a trip. If you have not your statement we will gladly send for it for you.

SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES FOR RENT

Four (4) % paid on time deposits.

CARVER STATE BANK

Carver, Oregon
THOS. F. RYAN, President THOS. E. ANDERSON, Vice. Pres.
R. E. LOOMIS, Cashier

Millers Shoe Store

Men's and Boys' Shoes, Gloves, Laces, Shoe Polish, Oils and Greases
EXPERT SHOE REPAIRING
Main Street
Opposite Post Office.

FEBRUARY

Is one of the best months of the year to build in. We are bound to get a few weeks of good weather soon. Better get busy and get your lumber on the job.

Come in and see us. We have a complete line of Lumber, Mouldings and Shingles, and our prices are right.

WILLAMETTE RIVER LUMBER CO.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL
Phone 63
16 and Main
Oregon City

Store Now Opens at 9 A. M. Saturdays

Phone: Pacific Marshall 5080

The Most in Value

The Best in Quality

Store Closes Daily at 5:30 P. M. Saturdays at 6 P. M.

Home Phone: A 2112

"THE STORE THAT UNDERSELLS BECAUSE IT SELLS FOR CASH"

RIBBONS

Thousands of Yards in the New Spring Novelties and Staple Plain Colors Just Received.

Here you'll find just the right widths, shades and styles for your spring needs—in qualities and which will give lasting satisfaction both in their permanent color as well as the superiority of their fabric—and, best of all, at new low prices. Here are a few numbers on special display.

QUALITY RIBBONS AT NEW LOW PRICES

Imported Fancies 15c to 35c Yard

Bow Ribbons 50c to 75c Yard

A fine line of new, narrow Fancy Ribbons for spring trimmings—all the latest colors, and color combinations, combined with metal—everything desirable and all brand new.

Splendid quality Ribbons especially adapted for making pretty hair bows, sashes, etc.—solid colors, novelty edge, stripe, plaids, new gingham checks—all wide widths.

Moire Ribbons 29c Yard

Taffeta Ribbons 59c Yard

Beautiful 5-inch Moire Ribbons in some thirty different spring shades. An excellent quality at a very low price.

High-grade Taffeta Ribbons in 6 1/2-inch width and shown in all wanted colors—one of our leading values.

Warp Print Ribbons—Light and Dark Combinations 35c a Yard

New Two Tone Ribbons

The New Cire Ribbons

Double-faced Saffin Ribbons with picot or plain edge, shown in all new color combinations. Numbers 2, 3 and 5.

The popular black Cire Ribbons in all numbers from 5 to 300. Ribbons that are in great demand at exceptionally low prices.

IN CELEBRATED PHOENIX HOSE FOR WOMEN

We Are Showing the Following Line at New Low Prices

$1.20 Pair—WOMEN'S PHOENIX SILK HOSE, made seamed back, seamless foot, reinforced lisle heel and toe, lisle top and wide garter hem; black and Havana Brown; sizes 8 1/2 to 10 1/2.

$2.55 Pair—WOMEN'S PHOENIX PURE SILK HOSE, made full-fashioned with reinforced lisle sole, heel and toe and lisle garter hem; in black and Havana brown; sizes 8 1/2 to 10 1/2.

$1.55 Pair—WOMEN'S PHOENIX PURE SILK HOSE, made seamed back, seamless foot, reinforced lisle heel and toe and lisle garter hem; in black and Havana brown; sizes 8 1/2 to 10 1/2.

$2.85 Pair—WOMEN'S PHOENIX ALL-SILK FULL-FASHIONED HOSE, with reinforced lisle sole, heel and toe, lisle lined garter hem; in black and Havana brown.

$2.10 Pair—WOMEN'S PHOENIX PURE SILK HOSE, made full-fashioned with reinforced lisle sole, heel and toe, lisle top and wide garter hem in black, Havana brown and white.

$2.55 Pair—WOMEN'S PHOENIX OUT-SIZE SILK HOSE, made full-fashioned with reinforced lisle sole, heel and toe and lisle top with wide garter hem; black, Havana brown, white.