

NEWSY BRIEFS FROM AROUND THE COUNTY

Interesting Items From the Country Correspondents Telling of the Progress, Development, and Upbuilding of Social and Civil Life

UPPER HIGHLAND

The Highland Literary Society met Friday evening and many were there to enjoy the evening. A great deal of interest is shown by all and we hope the good work will continue.

The Epworth League is having a contest in connection with their meetings Sunday evenings. We need you to attend to make the interest even greater you have the privilege of choosing for yourself which side you wish to be on.

The playshed of our school has undergone quite a transformation. Mr. Phillip Wetmore put up the trapeze bars, swings, and rings and made some turning poles.

Mr. William Schmidt and Ed Hoffman hauled saw dust for the floor of the playshed on Monday, which is quite an improvement.

Mr. Bub Imel was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Sunday.

There was a birthday party given at the Rambo home Saturday night in honor of Miss Christina, for her sixteenth birthday.

Mrs. H. N. Schafer, daughter of Mrs. A. F. Fonander left for California Tuesday, where Mr. and Mrs. U. Shofer are planning to reside.

Mr. Laurence Mudgett and Frank Nicholas motored to Portland Sunday. Mrs. Joe Wallace was operated at the Oregon City hospital and her friends are glad to hear that she is getting along nicely.

Miss Elsie and Roy Gordon from Washington are visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. Irene McVay. Many of this vicinity have been subject to the la grippe or influenza. Some have nearly given up hopes of ever having real spring weather, and even gone so far as to say we apparently will have winter all summer.

The work of J. and L. Seidmore's sawmill has been retarded last week on account of bad weather and on Friday when work started, there was trouble with the saw and repairs were made so work could be commenced again on Monday.

Miss Loeta Nicholas visited the South Highland school Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Iva McVay, Everett Jones and Mr. M. E. Kandle were Oregon City visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Burnell visited with Mrs. M. E. Kandle and Miss Moser Saturday afternoon.

Miss Belle McVay is reported on the sick list again.

WILSONVILLE

(Late for Last Week)

The ladies of the Hood View school, with the assistance of Mrs. M. C. Young of Wilsonville, met at their school house Friday afternoon and organized a Parent-Teacher association with Mrs. Chas. Myers, president, Mrs. Harry Jost, vice-president, the secretary, Miss J. Ruth Rosenberry, treasurer and Mrs. Deman treasurer; to hold one social and one business meeting each month during the school year was decided upon.

Miss Martha Stangel is still quite ill in the Oregon City hospital. Miss Elsie and Vida Seely are both confined to their rooms with the flu. Mrs. Raymond Seely is enjoying the great pleasure of the use of a new Thor Electric Washing machine.

Mr. Fred Weidemann is again about after a very severe attack of the flu.

NELDON'S WATCH SHOP

has the agency for the Mandel Phonographs which is as good as the very best instrument sold by any one, at a remarkable low price of $75.00. Also Genett records for 75 cents. All of the very latest ones out are carried in stock.

WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER

425 Main at 5th St. Oregon City

He was able to fill the Worthy Master's chair in the new Wilsonville Grange No. 600, Saturday. Mr. Dickenson of Oswego was a distinguished guest. There were about 40 members out for dinner and many more in the afternoon.

Mrs. Dill of the Cottage Hotel has gone to Portland for a few weeks' stay.

Mrs. M. C. Howard of Portland spent last week at the home of her youngest son, J. W. Graham.

Mr. Bish Seely made Woodburn a visit on Saturday.

Little Lowell Hasselbrink has been out of school all week on account of illness. Mrs. M. C. Young spent last week at Hubbard, Woodburn and Silverton, in the interests of the Degree of Honor Lodge. Also visiting friends of thirty seven years ago, when she was a teacher in the Waldo Hills school district near the home of the late Homer Davenport.

ELWOOD

Mr. Harry Bittner, who has been quite ill with Lagrippe, at the home of his parents is improving and is now able to be about the house.

The little Munson boys were out of school last week with sore eyes, several of the scholars have had it although contagious, it doesn't seem to be very serious.

Mrs. Hazel Vallen spent most of last week at Colton among relatives. Willie Bittner, who has been confined to the house the past week with Lagrippe is now able to be out.

L. N. Vallen made a business trip to Oregon City last Friday and while there called on W. T. Henderson, who has been confined to his bed, the past three weeks at the home of his son, Will Henderson. He is improving.

Stanley Turel was out from his work in the mountains for the P. R. L. & P. co. for a short time last week.

Mr. George Devore, who is working several miles above Estacada, black smithing was calling on neighbors last week, after being confined in the hospital at Portland for 15 days with "flu."

Mrs. Susa Linkins was on the sick list last week.

Mr. Frank Bittner has his saw mill about ready for operation.

EAGLE CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister were Oregon City visitors last Friday. Roy Douglass and family, who have been ill with the "flu" are getting better and are able to be up again.

Mr. and Mrs. St. Evang were the guests of Portland relatives last week and on arriving home on Wednesday found an eight pound grand daughter awaiting them, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Murphey.

The spelling school held at the schoolhouse last Friday evening was quite well attended. And all who spelled were spelled down by Mrs. Baumgartner's eighth grade pupil, Edna Evans. This is the third time that Edna Evans has had the honor of spelling all who have participated in the spelling match, down. After the spelling "bee" a short program was rendered, which was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass.

Eagle Creek Grange held its regular session at the Grange Hall Saturday, with about twenty-five, including children, present. After a short business meeting, two candidates, Helen Johnstone and Gifford Hoffmeister, were initiated in the first and second degrees. Then an interesting program was rendered. A committee was appointed to prepare the program and plan for the May picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Snider were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Linn Sunday.

GLADSTONE

Mrs. Grant Olds entertained at dinner Saturday evening. Covers were laid for Mrs. Georgia Ketchum and Miss Ruth Ketchum of Powell River, B. C., Mrs. C. N. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Gault, Lyman Warnock, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Warnock, Gordon Hansel, Chester Hansel, Dale Olds, Mr. and Mrs. G. Olds. The evening was devoted to music. Piano selections by Miss Ruth Ketchum and vocal selections by Lyman Warnock were enjoyed.

Hugh Olds, of Camas, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Olds.

Dr. Lucille Withers was the guest of Mrs. H. H. Hulbert, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. W. W. Leete was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Dennis Crabtree, in Portland Monday.

The Cradle Roll Mothers Class will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Baker on Dartmouth street this afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Legler and Mrs. Harry Woolrich of Portland are the luncheon guests of Mrs. Charles Legler, today. Rev. Hardie Connor, who fell and seriously injured his hip some time ago, is much improved and expects to be removed from the cast this week.

Ces Shipley an Odlara Kanney; affirms Mrs. J. H. Prater, who was seriously ill last week, is slightly improved. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Hughes, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia is greatly improved.

Mrs. Margaret Niles has had as her guest her brother-in-law, J. Taylor, of Willmar, Minn. Mrs. Taylor visited here last fall. Mr. Taylor has also been the guest of his nieces, Mrs. J. E. Hammack of Portland, and Mrs. R. M. McGetchie.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Prater of St. Johns, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pater.

Mr. and Ms. John Bolle and son, John Jr., Mildred Kyler, and Troy Solomon motored to Estacada Sunday where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bolle.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McGetchie, Mrs. Margaret Niles and Mr. J. Taylor were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hammock in Portland Sunday.

Mrs. J. La Dioux left last week for South Pasadena, Cal., where she will visit indefinitely with her daughter.

Mrs. Pearl Washburn, of Corvallis, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. P. Edwards, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wallace, last week.

Mrs. Edward Rauch and Mrs. Chas. Legler were guests of Mrs. Harry Woolrich, of Portland, Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. E. W. Eby spent Wednesday in Vancouver, the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. O. B. Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Frances, Mrs. C. D. Legler and daughter, Mildred; Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Mott, of Salem, were the dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. V. L. Rocho in Portland, Sunday.

Mrs. K. E. Bauersfeld and daughter, Glenna, who have been quite ill are improving.

Mrs. F. A. Burdon, who has been seriously ill at the St. Vincent's hospital for the past several weeks is improving and expects to return to her home the latter part of this week.

It is requested that all state library books be returned to the Gladstone library before March 31. The state books now in the library will be returned at that time and a new shipment received about April 1st.

Mrs. Addie Symms has been quite ill with a severe cold but is slightly improved.

OSWEGO

E. E. Wells of Labox, Ore., is a guest of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rosentreter.

Miss Shannon Pettinger was hostess for a party of college friends, who were guests at the home of Miss Pettinger Saturday evening.

W. H. Chapin of Glenmorrie is as yet very ill at his home with the lagrippe.

A group of friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Savage Thursday evening with a shower of wedding presents. The evening was spent at cards, after which a luncheon was served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Centes, Mr. and Mrs. Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. Borghorst, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bethke, Mr. and Mrs. Merrick.

Wrigley's Juicy Fruit, Spearmint, and Doublemint chewing gum advertisement featuring a woman's face and various gum packs.

LUMBER advertisement for Willamette River Lumber Co. featuring text about mill overhauls and lumber products.

Mrs. Robert Fulton had a group of friends call in honor of the birthday of her sister, Mrs. Gace Burke, Monday, March 14. Cards were enjoyed after which luncheon was served to Mr. and Mrs. Savage, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Savage, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. Bethke, Mr. and Mrs. Centes, Mr. and Mrs. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. E. Merrick, Mr. and Mrs. Borghorst, Miss Grace Burke, Maurice Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Richards, John Clancy and Mr. and Mrs. Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hallman, of Redland entertained Saturday with a St.-Patrick's Day party for a party of relatives and friends.

The Oswego Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Wessling last Wednesday when a committee of New Town members served the second of a series of luncheons which the club is giving. An interesting speaker, by name, Mrs. A. B. Millican, of Prineville, gave a talk on the various experiences while serving as a teacher in government schools in different parts of the U. S. The next luncheon by the club will be given at the home of Mrs. George Bullock.

Mrs. Cockrun, who recently returned from a years visit in the East, is paying a visit at the home of her son, Edward Cockrun.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Ray Wing last Thursday afternoon.

Waiting for Him. "When are you going to fix that front fence, Hiram?" said the farmer's wife. "Oh, next week, when Silas comes home from college." "But, what will the boy know about fixing a fence, Hiram?" "He ought to know a heap. He wrote me that he'd been taking fencing lessons for a month." "He Had the Hoover Idea." "Tommy," said the fond mother, "isn't it rather an extravagance to bread at the same time?"

Albers Flour advertisement featuring a flour sack and a woman's face.

The Time to Buy insurance advertisement for E. E. Teeple.

ELECTRIC HOTEL AND RESTAURANT advertisement for J. J. Tobin.

Millers Shoe Store advertisement for men's and boys' shoes.

SAFETY FIRST SAVE AND INVEST advertisement for Portland Railway, Light and Power Co.

Robert's Bros. advertisement for CRISP, NEW SPRING FROCKS and Coats of Imported Tweeds.