MT. PLEASANT

Yes, we all spent Saturday at Twilight hall. The Jersey cattle club from the surrounding country from Salem, all learned something and of course that feast at noon was worth going a long way for. Besides viewing those nice Jerseys on exhibit was a treat we'll not forget.

We have been wondering what kind of weather we will get next. The electric company is hauling poles so Mt. Pleasant will soon have lights.

We are all well pleased with the stand the Courier has taken on the tax issue. We think they might go a little farther and make candidates sign statement No. 1. We have been fooled too many times to believe any one.

Word comes from Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King, from the old country. They are having the time of their lives.

Mrs. Mendle of Portland is spending a few days visiting friends here. Mrs. Mendle will be remembered as Miss Rena Lazelle.

Max Telford has a crew of men at work on the south end road repairing a land slide.

Mr. W. B. Lawton of Locust farm has his wireless station about completed. Land sales are very quiet. Our school is back to normal. The broccoli raisers suffered quite a loss. Some of the dairy men make lots of noise about the cut in milk in Oregon City.
