Idle Hour Club Enjoys Outing
Canby, Or., April 26—The Idle Hour Club of this city enjoyed its first outing of the season on Sunday, the destination being Oswego Lake, where the day was spent in picnicking and canoeing.

Leaving by automobile at 10 o'clock the party arrived in good time, and selecting one of the beauty spots of the resort to pitch camp, a bon fire was made, where hot coffee was served with the lunch.

Enjoying the affair were Misses Albers Gilmore, Laura Pennell, Leta Zimmerman, Hollenbach, Emma Berg, Easter Noble, Fisher, Gladys Tremayne; Messrs. Fred Staller Ernest Hov, Melvin Eld, Fayne Wolfer, Lyle Pennell, Floyd Ziegler, Roy Zimmerman.

On Saturday evening the club will give a dancing party at the Artisan hall.

dist church. The course is being conducted by Mrs. Ellnor M. Redington and the materials used in the preparation of the daily menus have been donated by the manufacturers and merchants.

Two of the Banner-Courier staff attended the Thursday luncheon and enjoyed a repast fit for kings. Both the lectures and luncheon are proving very popular with Oregon City people.
