CANBY

The Canby high school team won over the Hubbard high school team Friday afternoon. The score was 16 to 7.

In a game played on the Canby diamond Sunday afternoon the newly organized Canby base ball team defeated the St. Paul team at a distance of 23 miles.

This statement may sound like a new departure in the kingdom of sports, but we have it from the boys that instead of St. Paul doing as St. Paul agreed to do, St. Paul sent one player or two, and picked from Mt. Angel, Albany, Portland, and Newberg, a crew to meet our boys in a surprising way, and plan to swipe the whole load of hay.

So it was 1 to 0 in favor of Canby with "no horse" on the Canby team but a "joke" turned on St. Paul. The yell, faintly heard around the corner sounded like: "Yea haw, yea haw Salamander, Sarals, Did you meet St. Paul, or the 'Saul of Tarsis'?"

This was a surprise to Miss Seely, who said she noticed everyone bringing packages and was so sorry they had not told her it was a birthday of some members so she too might have brought something when the hostess opened a door and rolled in a well laden table before her chair and informed Miss Seely she was the recipient of all the table contained. Miss Seely was quite overcome for a few minutes, then proceeded to unwrap and display the numerous gifts of all descriptions from her many friends and vowed her hope chest was well refilled.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by the members. Music and games were enjoyed.

HARVEY G. STARKWEATHER CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

Of all the various democrats mentioned for governor, none has the record for old-fashioned common sense executive ability that can be shown by Harvey G. Starkweather. He does not play to the galleries with sob eloquence and he does not follow fads and fancies. When Walter Pierce was flirting with the Non-Partisan League, at a time when it looked like the league might cut a figure in Oregon, Starkweather condemned it from the start. Later Pierce condemned it. When so many grange leaders were fighting the state highway program Starkweather helped lay the constructive foundations for what has resulted in our present state highway system. He was a powerful influence in enlisting grange support in its behalf, and in spite of the bitter opposition of most of the grange leaders. Starkweather is a real dirt farmer who by thrift and business ability built up his properties to the point that he was able to acquire profitable holdings of Portland business property, which shows that he is a good business manager as well as a heavy taxpayer. Starkweather is a solid citizen with deep convictions, lots of determination and a lot of horse sense. He would be a strong candidate against whomsoever the republicans nominated and would make a good governor for Oregon.

The above estimate of Mr. Starkweather is contained in the Oregon Voter and was entirely unsolicited.

W. J. H. Clark Candidate

One of the surprises of the last school board election in Portland was the election of W. J. H. Clark by a very large majority. Mr. Clark has made many friends by his good judgment and courageous stand on public matters and is a strong candidate for joint senator for Multnomah and Clackamas counties. If elected his friends predict for him genuine usefulness as a legislator.

KRUSE MAKES CHALLENGE I will pay $25.00 into the treasury of the American Red Cross Society if on investigation by three competent persons, one chosen by myself, one by whom it may concern, and they to check the third that if such board may find by actual record a single person now living in school dist. No. 106 who bought during the war period more U. S. Government securities than myself and of my own volition.

Desiring to make this offer of real value to the above beneficiary I insist upon the contestor paying a like sum upon failure to make good. Deposits to be placed with said board in advance.

My sons were not of registration age until near the close of hostilities. One of them volunteered, was rejected, and finally was taken into the sea service where he was released at New York shortly after Armistice was signed, but not leaving, however, as others did, until the vessel was coaled and engines cleaned. My son bought $200 of government paper and has it now.

We worked Sundays and 14 hour days to produce food for soldiers while good patriots were burning gas. It was our quiet humble way of doing and I shall continue with my shoulder to the wheel without flaunting or advertising. This is spoken in defense and as a direct challenge to my opponents. This is not the 11th hour. -Adv. C. W. KRUSE.

CHERRICK for SENATOR

A great effort is being made this year throughout Oregon to elect a larger bloc of farmers and other workers. Let Clackamas county be in the front by sending that fighting progressive farmer CHERRICK to the state senate to represent YOU. The defeat of Senator New of Indiana, who had the entire machine, well lubricated and filled with gas, by the great unorganized majority of common people who would be represented is a sign of the progressive tendency of the day. The rank and file are tired of electing those who do not represent them, and then trying to send a lobby to get them to change their minds after being elected. The people are studying their government. They are beginning to realize that they are a part of it. Realizing that each one has a responsibility. They must study the men who would represent them and their platforms. They must then vote for the ones they believe will be for the best, and then, and no less important, they must support them after they have elected these men to office.

Voters, let us here in Clackamas county rally around a man who is one of the masses, who understands the problems of the majority from their viewpoint, who is fair, cool, level headed, honest and earnest. He is radical if you use the word as Webster does. Radical is latin for root, to go to the root, go to the bottom, to be thoro. That's Cherrick. But Cherrick is not a fanatic. He doesn't go off half cocked. He has no hobbies. Just get our old Oregon down to a place where her expense will be no greater than her income. Oregon's debt is so great that it will take men with courage and ability to trim expenses, and shift taxation burdens from those least able to bear it to those best able to bear them. Cherrick is awake NOW. He will be awake,—up and doing for the next four years, if you will say the word—with ballots on May 19th at the Republican primaries. —Paid Adv.

REPUBLICANS!

Shall Oregon continue to hold the pre-eminence that is now hers? Shall she forge ahead as a leader in the Republican party?

Answer "Yes!"—Vote X13 for RALPH E. WILLIAMS for Republican National Committeeman

In the presidential election of 1916 when there was dissension and division everywhere, Oregon was the only state west of the Missouri river to go Republican. Harmony!

Ralph Williams is the first committeeman representative from any western state to be elected to the vice-chairmanship.

Ralph Williams is a veteran of the national organization. He stands at the head with the leaders. A new man would, of custom and necessity, stand at the foot with the followers.

Progressives and Republicans united in giving credit for this remarkable achievement to Ralph E. Williams, national committeeman since 1908.

Republican leaders, in Congress and out, are Ralph Williams' friends. This friendship means much to Oregon and the Northwest. Without ostentation Ralph Williams enlists the aid of these leaders for the things the Northwest needs from the national government.

In recognition of this and other services Ralph Williams was elected vice-chairman, the second highest honor within the power of the Republican Committee to bestow. It is a position of influence to be reached only by years of faithful and intelligent service.
