Ralph E. Williams,
Republican National Committeeman
Portland, Oregon.

Mutual friends have told me that you are a candidate for re-election as Republican National Committeeman this year, and I am constrained to send just this word of appreciation for your splendid service on the committee all the time that I was chairman. Your election as vice-chairman of the national committee was the fullest possible evidence of the committee's gratitude to you and their confidence in your great future usefulness to the committee and to the party. In this I join most heartily. Kindest regards and best wishes always,

WILL H. HAYS.

HON. WILL H. HAYS

RALPH E. WILLIAMS
Vice-Chairman
Republican National Committee

VOTE X 13

EDITORIAL from the MORNING OREGONIAN

Mr. Williams for Committeeman

Will H. Hays, who but lately retired as chairman of the republican national committee, pays tribute in a telegram to the service performed to the republican party by the committee for Oregon, Ralph E. Williams. Mr. Hays should know. His testimony may be accepted as something more than a mere polite and formal expression of approval, to be expected from one member of the organization for another; for it is supported by the entire committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of the representatives of forty-eight states elected Mr. Williams vice-chairman. He is the oldest member in point of service, and it is obvious—it is not denied by anyone—that his standing with the heads of the republican party is very high.

The national committee is a party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, in terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in line for the national chairmanship, and can, and doubtless will, perform service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform.

The Oregonian is reluctant to interfere in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams' election are so plain that it feels that it should point them out.

CHERRICK FOR SENATOR

"Workers, You have the votes. Elect fighting progressive farmer and be represented." One mig reason why business men are so successful is because they take their business to the polls. Farmers and working men and women, let us learn and take OUR business to the polls. After you elect me, make your wishes known. Support me while I make YOUR fight. It takes team work, hard steady even pulling for success. It's your fight as well as mine.

Friends and opponents, I have made a hard fight for this nomination. The old bunch who want things to go on as they are, are aroused. Are you? Cherrick has no political debts to pay. (Save Newspaper advertising, which costs money, but is worth the price) no promises made to so called prominent citizens. If you send him there, it will be entirely as the Senator for the masses. Many of your prominent citizens and high brows are against Cherrick, because they know he cannot be bought, sold or traded. They know he will always fight fair, he never fouls. He will fight against rot, petty graft and extravagance, and for men above $$$$. We have a fighting chance to win. (No vote thoughtfully and conscientiously cast is ever lost. Lets go—to the ballot box on May 19th. Sit it with ballots—CHERRICK for SENATOR and WE WIN.

NORBLAD VS. HAWLEY FOR CONGRESS

About Mr. Norblad
The Oregon Voter of May 13th says, "Mr. Norblad missed few roll calls, faithful in attendance, a snappy and courageous voter; spoke right up, left no one in doubt as to exactly where he stood on any measure. His eloquence, fighting ability, intelligent grasp of essentials in measures, buoyant energy and magnetic personality made him a commanding figure even in his first session; by the end of the session he was recognized as one of the leaders of the senate. He got through every important measure in which his district was vitally interested, and took a prominent and effective part in the most important debates. In the opinion of The Voter, his voting record was the best of any member of the senate of 1919, and among the best in later sessions. If sent to Congress and kept there, it is certain that he will attain a position of leadership as he has the spirit, energy and ability. If Hawley is to be retired the first district would have difficulty in finding any citizen better qualified to get results for the district and to achieve a distinguished and creditable career."

Mr. Hawley's Record
The Producers Call of Portland of May 10th says: "W. C. Hawley who has been a congressman from the First District for nearly sixteen years, should be defeated on May 19th because he has no conception of the duties of his office. He voted against the establishment of the Federal Reserve Banking System, without which this country could never have financed the war or make the astonishing progress it has in the past eight years. He voted in favor of the cowardly McLemore resolution, which meant that this great nation of Washington and Lincoln should stay off the high seas at the behest of the autocratic German Kaiser. He voted to repeal the excess profits tax which shifted a burden of $480,000,000 last year from the Standard Oil and other huge cormorant corporations, onto the backs of the farmers and wage earners. He voted to reduce the surtax on millionaires whose incomes are $70,000 or more per annum from 73 per cent to 32 per cent. The change in the law was finally compromised at 50 per cent, thus shifting $90,000,000 more in taxes from millionaires onto the backs of farmers and wage earners. Such a record! Such a man! Defeat him on May 19th."

Mr. Hawley voted for the Adamson law which will effect farmers seriously for years to come.
