Water Association Meets

The meeting of the Kilpatrick Collins Water Users Association which was held Monday evening at Knox's Hall, Collins View, was well attended, over 65 being present.

The speakers of the evening were Mr. Frank L. Shull, of the Palatine Acres Company, Mr. Turner and Mr. J. H. Pos, consulting engineers.

Mr. Shull spoke on the forming of the new Water Company, and the territory covered. Mr. Turner gave the estimated cost of building, bonding and operating the water system.

The idea was favorably received, and after much discussion a committee of three, composed of the present Kilpatrick-Collins Water Board, P. A. Duhkoop, G. J. Murray and W. G. Wright, was elected to attend a meeting to be held Tuesday evening at the Rivera School.

At the meeting held Tuesday evening at the Rivera School the matter of the Kilpatrick Collins Water Users Association joining in with the new Water Board was thoroughly discussed and a resolution was passed unanimously to go ahead with the project and to further outline the boundaries of the district.

A committee was appointed Mr. A. S. Pattullo, Frank L. Shull, Mr. Turner and Mr. P. A. Duhkoop, to secure signatures of the residents for presenting the matter to the County Court.

Boulevard to Be Extended

A meeting of great importance to this district was held by the county commissioners, May 15, but through misdirection our representatives went to the City Hall, with the exception of J. J. Knox, of Collins View.

The county commissioners have at last decided to go ahead with the extension of the Terwilliger Boulevard through Palatine Acres.

Frank L. Shull of the Palatine Acres Company, agreed to donate the county a 150-foot right-of-way for over a mile, provided that the commissioners would agree to commence work on it this year.

This they have finally consented to do, and gave District Attorney Myers authority to prepare an order designating this project as a market road, so that the necessary funds for the preliminary work, to the amount of $3500.00 may be taken from the market fund this year.

The road will ultimately become part of the Pacific Highway, extending from the southern end of the Terwilliger Boulevard, to the end of the Pacific Highway near Oswego. In importance and scenic view it will run second to the Columbia river highway.

Wandler Birthday Celebrated

Mrs. J. L. Wandler, of Collins View tract, gave a surprise party on her husband Sunday, May 14. The occasion was his birthday and there were eighteen invited but on account of illness, all could not be present.

Covers were laid for twelve at a bountiful chicken dinner served at noon, the decorations being red and white. Afterward on account of the day being "Mother's Day", a brief devotional service was held during which Miss Alarise Smith of 188 Ivy Street, Portland, a niece of Mrs. Wandler, read the 24th psalm.

The rest of the afternoon was spent in playing games, all participating in the game of guessing the most names of birds, the prize, a beautiful box of stationary, falling to Alarise.

A huge birthday cake decorated with Mr. Wandler's name and age, 63 years, with ice cream, was partaken of by the guests.

A most enjoyable time was had by all present.

Little Miss Eryln Taylor, of Portland, is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hull, of
