A class of 635 students and several thousand parents, teachers, and visitors, crowded Gladstone Park on Saturday afternoon when the second annual joint graduation exercises of the Clackamas county grammar schools were held.

Judge Grant B. Dimick delivered the commencement address to the 1922 class, the largest in the history of the county schools. The speaker laid special stress upon the value of individual integrity in national life, showing the dependence of the democratic system of government upon the personal qualifications of its many people.

In fitting themselves for their future responsibilities as citizens, the speaker urged the continuance of their educational career, pointing to the present age as one which requires thorough and extensive training of all young people.

In addition to the commencement address a fine literary and musical program was rendered. POLITICAL PENDULUM SWINGS TOWARD THE SUMMER CAMPAIGN

Presidency Senate Warm Topic — Primary Law Now Under Fire

DEMOCRATS HOPEFUL

Disaffection Of Hall Supporters Fill Gubernatorial Atmosphere With Strange Prophecies

With the settlement of the primary gubernatorial contest by the nomination of Governor Olcott, political attention is now surging toward the summer campaign and the November election.

It is generally conceded that the coming election will be a hard fought contest and there are few who believe that the rancor manifested in the recent primary contest will die out during the summer months.

Various predictions are being made concerning Governor Olcott's probable strength in the coming contest. There is some talk of an independent candidate to oppose Olcott, Senator Hall and Mayor Gates of Medford, both being mentioned as possibilities.

There is also a strong sentiment in favor of Walter M. Pierce, Democratic candidate for governor and should he receive the entire support of Senator Hall's friends and the Klan, he will give Olcott the fight of his life for re-election.

On the other hand, should a majority of the supporters of Hall, Lee, Bean, Patterson and White back Olcott he should have little trouble in defeating Pierce. The three last named candidates have already pledged their support to the governor.

In addition to the governorship, there are other problems facing both the voters and the legislature during the coming year. The proposed state income tax which will confront the voters at the November election and probably the legislature later on, will be no doubt a contest as well also the efforts of certain machine politicians to abolish the direct primary system and to bring back the old convention.

The presidency of the senate, now a more important position than ever, due to a recent constitutional amendment which makes the president of the senate vice-governor, will also be a bone of contention. Senators Gus C. Moser, E. L. Cusick, Bert Farrell and B. L. Eddy are now avowed candidates and Charles Hall a possibility as soon as the official count on governor is settled.

Fire Destroys Residence

The M. H. Mulligan residence in Elvville was practically destroyed by fire, at 2:15 o'clock Friday afternoon. Starting, it is believed, from an overheated or defective flue, the flames gained considerable headway before the arrival of the local fire department. She gave up her work on account of her health permitting her to attend to the office only a part of the time. Both the cause and the resignation is deeply regretted by other county officers, patrons of the office and her multitude of friends.

Miss Dunn has been a faithful and very efficient official receiving high recognition for her work in accountancy, her uniform courtesy and prompt service. The Banner-Courier sincerely wishes for her a rapid and complete restoration to health.

Dance Hall License Doesn't Materialize

An application for a license to conduct the Rock Island dance hall at Milwaukie was voted down by the county court at a recent meeting. Influenced by the recent protests against the Oak Grove dance hall and also by the recent arrest of three intoxicated men at that place, Judge Cross and Commissioner Hart voted against the license while Commissioner Proctor favored it.

It is reported that action looking toward the revocation of the Oak Grove beach dance hall license will soon be taken.

ATHLETIC FIELD IS NEW CIVIC PROPOSAL

A movement is on foot to obtain and equip a thoroughly up-to-date athletic field for the schools of Oregon City. It is suggested that if plans now under consideration mature an appropriate name for this civic educational feature of the city would be the Geo. E. Pusey Jr. Athletic Field.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY DEMOCRATIC BANQUET HUGE SUCCESS

Optimism Over Successes In The Fall Election Prevails

PIERCE IS GUEST Many Candidates Give Views On The Present-hour Problems With Solutions

With one hundred fifteen persons seated at the well-laden tables in the Electric Hotel dining room on Tuesday evening the Democratic banquet proceeded with real Jeffersonian enthusiasm and good cheer.

After the feast of good things to which the guests did full justice, J. E. Hedges, toastmaster, introduced Milton A. Miller, who made under the inspiration of the occasion, a dandy democratic speech, prophesying with great certainty as did all the other speakers signal democratic success at the polls this fall.

Mrs. Elsie Gaffney expressed gratitude for the honor of nomination by the party and a hope that she might as representative help to solve the farmers problems and those of the common people in which she is most interested.

A. A. Price, was "Proud to be associated with democracy," characterized the League of Nations Covenant as the "Greatest document since the Declaration of Independence" and predicted its return to earth in all its glory of peace and prosperity.

Judge Campbell the only republican so honored in response to introduction declared he felt like Mark Anthony must have felt in the midst of the murderers of Caesar and with great celerity passed the honor of speech to Dr. E. Lundberg, democratic candidate for joint representative, who with well directed thrusts, soon had the Republican party outside the "ropes."

Roscoe Gard, nominee for county commissioner, pledged his best efforts for Clackamas county, and Dr. Hedlund made a hit with his humorous description of how he expected to be elected. W. N. Gatens declared Walter Pierce would carry Multnomah county this fall and flayed the Republicans with real democratic fervor.

Col. Robert A. Miller was at his best. He recalled pleasant memories of Oregon City, roared the opposition and declared that even Lincoln were he now living, would be a democrat.

Walter M. Pierce, democratic nominee for governor, was the guest of the evening. His references to the Republicans were without contempt and tempered with tender mercy and good will. He declared for an income tax as the "Squarest tax ever laid on mortal man" and that this method should raise one half of $4,000,000 taxes.

The speaker desired to be known as the "veto governor" and would cut down appropriations $1,500,000.

As a result of this most successful get-together Clackamas county democracy goes forth with renewed determination and courage.
